Queenscliff RAR is hosting a 'Community Conversations' evening on October 28th in Queenscliff

We are inviting representatives from a broad range of community groups and organisations on the Bellarine Peninsula to participate. The evening aims to open-up the conversation around refugees and people seeking asylum by bringing members of civil society together. Those who attend will have the opportunity to build relationships with others in their community, hear a refugee share his story and explore their questions and concerns about asylum seeker policy in a safe, respectful space. We invite up to three representatives from your organisation to participate in the 'Community Conversations' evening. Light refreshments will be provided.

WHEN: 'Community Conversations' Monday October 28th at 7.30pm

WHERE: The Bay Room @ Queenscliff Uniting Church, 85 Hesse St, Queenscliff

RSVP by 21/10/19 with the names of people attending from your organization to Sue at queenscliffrrar@gmail.com. This will assist us with our planning.
