Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time 1.7.18

24.6.18

Liturgy of the Word:

FIRST READING: Wis 1:13-15; 2:23-24

A reading from the book of Wisdom

It was the devil's envy that brought death into the world.

Death was not God's doing,
he takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living.
To be – for this he created all;
the world's created things have health in them,
in them no fatal poison can be found,
and Hades holds no power on earth;

for virtue is undying.

Yet God did make man imperishable,
he made him in the image of his own nature;
it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world, as those who are his partners will discover.

The Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 29:2. 4-6. 11-13. R. v.2

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me
and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.
O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. (R.)

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him,
give thanks to his holy name.
His anger lasts but a moment: his favour through life.

At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.
(R.)

The Lord listened and had pity.

The Lord came to my help.

For me you have changed my mourning into dancing,

O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. (R.)

SECOND READING: 2 Cor 8:7. 9. 13-15

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Your abundance should supply their want.

You always have the most of everything – of faith, of eloquence, of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection – so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous the Lord Jesus was: he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture says: The man who gathered much had none too much, the man who gathered little did not go short.

The Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: 2 Tm 1:10

Alleluia, alleluia!

Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death and brought us life through his gospel.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mk 5:21-43

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Young girl, I say to you, arise.

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus by name, and seeing him, fell at his feet and pleaded with him earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him.

Now there was a woman who had suffered from a haemorrhage for twelve years; after long and painful treatment under various doctors, she had spent all she had without being any the better for it, in fact, she was getting worse. She had heard about Jesus, and she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his cloak. 'If I can touch even his clothes,' she had told herself 'I will be well again.' And the source of the bleeding dried up instantly, and she felt in herself that she was cured of her complaint. Immediately aware that power had gone out from him, Jesus turned round in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' His disciples said to him, 'You see how the crowd is pressing round you and yet you say, "Who touched me?"' But he continued to look all round to see who had done it. Then the woman came forward, frightened and trembling because she knew what had happened to her, and she fell at his feet and told him the whole truth. 'My daughter,' he said 'your faith has restored you to health; go in peace and be free from your complaint.'

While he was still speaking some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard this remark of theirs and he said to the official, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha, kum!' which means, 'little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were overcome with astonishment, and he ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ

PLENARY COUNCIL 2020 –

Listen to what the Spirit is saying.

Pope Francis has approved the Australian Bishops' decision to hold a Plenary Council in Australia in 2020. It is a significant time for the Australian Church to make decisions about the future.

To prepare the agenda for the Plenary Council, all of God's people are asked to reflect on the question: What do you think God is asking of us in Australia, at this time?

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time 1.7.18

THEME FOR LECTOR ?

The Lord called me before I was born'. This is the child John the Baptist, 'called a Prophet of the Most High who will prepare the way of the Lord, to make known His salvation to His people through the forgiveness of their sins. Jesus gave us the gift of reconciliation. Do we use it to grow in love and friendship with Him, in preparation for our life in eternity with Him?

Before we commence today's liturgy let us take time together to reflect silently as a community of faith 1 minute silence

Let us pray together our Parish Prayer

Heavenly Father, Holy Trinity Parish is your family committed to praying and growing together as we build on the gifts of our past, the living of our present and our hopes for the future.

Lord Jesus, we are nourished by prayer, the word and sacraments especially the Eucharist. We recognize and trust in each other's spiritual gifts. We will strive to be a visible sign of God's love for the world.

Holy Spirit, baptized in your name, we accept the challenge to live as Jesus did. We will celebrate our lives and gifts in service to others, welcoming all people and sharing our talents and resources. As a parish we will endeavour to make present the Kingdom of God, here and now. AMEN

Please stand now together for our entrance hymn

Celebrant: John the Baptist was chosen to prepare for Christ's coming. As heralds of God's salvation, let us offer these prayers to God for the coming of the kingdom..

1. We pray for the Church, especially Pope Francis, our Bishops, priests and ministers. May they be the Suffering Servant who help bring the work of Christ to the world.

(pause) We pray to the Lord.

2: We pray for our children. May the hand of the Lord rest upon them as they grow and mature in spirit.

(pause) We pray to the Lord.

3: We pray for all who are preparing for their Confirmation. May the gifts of the Holy Spirit help them grow in the love and service of God.

(pause) We pray to the Lord.

4: We pray for our parish community. May we, baptised in the Holy Spirit, reject complacency and indifference as we prepare for Christ's return.

(pause) We pray to the Lord.

5: We pray for those who have died recently, and those whose anniversaries occur about this time: Pat Haddrick, Ian Cracknell, Mardi Huggins, Joe Lawry, Win Sharp, James Kerley, Mick Drury, Stan Brice. Dorothy Buswell . May they attain their final reward in heaven.

(pause) We pray to the Lord.

Celebrant: God our Father, you search us and you know us. Hear our prayers that we may look forward in hope to the salvation won by Christ and announced by John the Baptist. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.
