

A reading from the Second Book of the Kings (5:14-17)
Naaman the leper went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and he came and stood before him; and he said, "Behold, I know that there is no God in all the earth but in Israel; so accept now a present from your servant." But he said, "As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will receive none." And he urged him to take it, but he refused. Then Naaman said, "If not, I pray you, let there be given to your servant two mule-burdens of earth; for henceforth your servant will not offer burnt offering or sacrifice to any god but the Lord." This is the Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm:

Response: The Lord has shown his salvation to the nations.

Sing a new song to the Lord for he has worked wonders. His right hand and his holy arm have brought salvation. R./

The Lord has made known his salvation; has shown his justice to the nations. He has remembered his truth and love for the house of Israel. R./

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Shout to the Lord all the earth, ring out your joy. R./

A reading from the Second Letter of St Paul to Timothy (2:8-13)
Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, descended from David, as preached in my gospel, the gospel for which I am suffering and wearing fetters like a criminal. But the word of God is not fettered. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation which in Christ Jesus goes with eternal glory. The saying is sure: "If we have died with him, we shall also live with him; if we endure, we shall also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful – for he cannot deny himself." This is the Word of the Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! I am the light of the world, says the Lord; he who follows me will have the light of life. Alleluia! (Jn 8:12)

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St Luke (17:11-19)
On the way to Jerusalem, Jesus was passing along between Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance and lifted up their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us." When he saw them he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went they were cleansed. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. Then said Jesus, "Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" And he said to him, "Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well." The Gospel of the Lord.

We acknowledge the Wurundjeri people, the traditional owners and custodians of the land on which we stand. We pay our respects to them for their care of the land. May we walk gently on this land.

To say: "Thank You, Lord!" is celebrating.

"O Lord, our prayer of thanksgiving adds nothing to your greatness, but makes us grow in your grace." This we pray in Preface IV on a weekday celebration of the Mass. Mass itself is called "Eucharist" which means: "Thanksgiving". When the Church meets in any act of worship, the most important expression is one of giving thanks to the Lord. We are that Samaritan leper who, seeing that he had been cured, went back to Jesus to give him thanks. Or we continue the act of the leper Naaman, the Syrian, who being cured, recognised that only the God of Israel was the only true God. Worship finds its best expression in giving thanks. This is the message in the readings of the Word of God this Sunday. If we recognise the good things the Lord has done for us and that all we have is a gift from Him, then it should come spontaneous in our heart to celebrate God with thanksgiving, praise, prayers and songs. This is what Liturgy is, to which the Church calls all believers on a Sunday and other occasions: A call to praise God for all he has done for us. But many have lost the spirit of thanksgiving and are, instead, going about their daily life as if all is a personal achievement for one's own gratification. These people have nobody to thank but only self-praise and pride. If contradicted or criticised or failing in their plans, they turn to bitterness, hatred, vengeance or depression. They live in the grip of fear that their castle will crumble at any moment. Thanksgiving, on the other hand, is a song of freedom and joy because even little things are recognised as gifts: an act of love from God and others. Naaman and the Samaritan leper, by giving thanks, celebrated much more than the physical cure: they celebrated the gift of faith in God upon which to re-build their life. The Gospel says that the Samaritan: "turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him". He is more than cured now; a flow of new spirit, joy, enthusiasm has erupted into his life and now everything is new and beautiful. His shouting is captivating everyone around him. So should our liturgy celebration be: captivating and drawing all in a song of praise that renews us from within.

Dire: "Grazie, Signore!" è celebrare.

"Signore, tu non hai bisogno della nostra lode; i nostri inni di benedizione non accrescono la tua grandezza, ma ci ottengono la grazia che ci salva". Così preghiamo nel Prefazio no. IV durante la Messa settimanale. La Messa è infatti chiamata "Eucarestia" che significa "Ringraziamento". In ogni atto liturgico l'espressione più comune è di dare grazie a Dio. Noi siamo come il samaritano che accorgendosi di essere guarito ritorna da Gesù per ringraziarlo. Ancora, siamo come Naaman il siriano che riconosce il Dio d'Israele come il solo vero Dio. L'atto di ringraziamento è il contenuto più consistente nella celebrazione della nostra fede. Questo è quanto ci insegna la Parola di Dio oggi. Se noi riconosciamo tutto il bene ricevuto da Dio e che tutto in noi e nella nostra vita è dono di Dio, allora dovrebbe essere spontaneo in noi celebrare Dio ringraziandolo con canti di gioia e con preghiere di riconoscenza. Questa è infatti la celebrazione domenicale a cui la Chiesa chiama tutti i fedeli a partecipare. Purtroppo, molti hanno perso lo spirito di ringraziamento e vivono giorno dopo giorno come se tutto fosse frutto del proprio impegno personale e gratificante al proprio io. Se capita che si è contraddetti, criticati, o i propri piani falliscono, allora si diventa amari, nervosi, ribelli e vendicativi, vivendo nella paura che la propria vita sia un fallimento, un castello che crolla. Dare grazie a Dio, al contrario, ci fa liberi, gioiosi, felici riconoscendo che tutto è dono dell'amore di Dio e del prossimo. Naaman e il samaritano, nel loro atto di ringraziamento, esprimono molto più che la gioia di essere curati fisicamente: celebrano una vita rinata nella fede e nella sicurezza dell'amore di Dio. Il vangelo dice che il samaritano "tornò indietro lodando Dio a gran voce; e si gettò ai piedi di Gesù per ringraziarlo". Lui è più che guarito ora; uno spirito nuovo irrompe in lui, gioia ed entusiasmo esplodono dal suo animo e tutto nella sua vita diventa bello e meraviglioso. Lui grida di gioia e così trascina gli altri a rendere grazie a Gesù con lui. Così dovrebbe essere la nostra celebrazione domenicale: un atto di ringraziamento che trascina e ci rinnova di nuove energie spirituali.

Communion Antiphon: The rich suffer want and go hungry, but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing. (Ps 33:11)

Entrance

Come with Praise

Refrain

Come with praise, people of God!
Come with your heart's thanksgiving
Sing for joy, house of the lord!
Sing of your bounteous blessing!

Come, you poor of the land,
all who live with hearts of hunger,
Come and taste the love of the lord
and you will be filled. (refrain)

Come, you captives of fear,
all who bear the yoke of hatred,
God has heard the cry of your soul
and broken your chains. (refrain)

Come you wounded and worn,
all who know the face of sorrow,
God will heal the pain of your heart
and gladden your soul. (refrain)

Year 12 Simonds College students

Offertory

Bread for the World

Refrain:

Bread for the world:
a world of hunger.

Wine for all peoples:
people who thirst.

May we who eat
be bread for others.

May we who drink
pour out our love.

Lord Jesus Christ,
you are the bread of life,
broken to reach and heal
the wounds of human pain.
Where we divide your people,
you are waiting there on
bended knee to wash our feet
with endless care.

Lord Jesus Christ,
you are the wine of peace,
poured into hearts once broken
and where dryness sleeps.
Where we are tired and weary,
you are waiting there to be the
way which beckons us
Beyond despair.

Communion:

In Him Alone

Refrain:

In him alone is our hope
In him alone is our strength
In him alone are we justified
In him alone are we saved.

What have we to offer
That does not fade or wither
Can the world ever satisfy
The emptiness in our hearts
In vain we deny? (refrain)

When will you cease running
In search of hollow meaning?
Let his love feed the hunger
In your soul, til it overflows
With joy you yearn to know.
(refrain)

Final

QUEEN OF THE HOLY ROSARY

O Queen of the Holy Rosary!
Oh! bless us as we pray
And offer thee our roses
In garlands day by day.

While from our Father's garden
With loving hearts and bold
We gather to thine honour
Buds white and red and gold.

O Queen of the Holy Rosary!
Each myst'ry blends with Thine
The sacred life of Jesus
In ev'ry step divine

Thy soul was His fair garden,
Thy virgin breast His throne
Thy thou'ts his faithful mirror
Reflecting Him above.
