

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place. (Jer 29:11,12,14)

A reading from the Book of Malachi (4:1-2a) Behold, the day comes, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. But for you who fear my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings. This is the Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord comes to rule the peoples with fairness.

Sing psalms to the Lord with the harp, with the sound of music. With trumpets and the sound of the horn acclaim the King, the Lord. R./

Let the sea and all within it, thunder; the world, and all its peoples. Let the rivers clap their hands and the hills ring out their joy at the presence of the Lord. R./

For the Lord comes, comes to rule the earth. He will rule the world with justice and the peoples with fairness. R./

A reading from the Second Letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians (3:7-12) You yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you, we did not eat any one's bread without paying, but with toil and labour we worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you. It was not because we have not that right, but to give you in our conduct an example to imitate. For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: If any one will not work, let him not eat. For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busy-bodies, not doing any work. Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work in quietness and to earn their own living. This is the Word of the Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! Watch at all times, praying that you may have the strength to stand before the Son of man. Alleluia!

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St Luke (21:5-19) As some spoke of the temple, how it was adorned with noble stones and offerings, Jesus said, "As for these things which you see, the days will come when there shall not be left here one stone upon another that will not be thrown down." And they asked him, "Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign when this is about to take place?" And he said, "Take heed that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he!' and, 'The time is at hand!' Do not go after them. And when you hear of wars and tumults, do not be terrified; for this must first take place, but the end will not be at once." Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and pestilences; and there will be terrors and great signs from heaven. But before all this they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors for my name's sake. This will be a time for you to bear testimony. Settle it therefore in your minds, not to meditate beforehand how to answer; for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which none of your adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be delivered up even by parents and brothers and kinsmen and friends, and some of you they will put to death; you will be hated by all for my name's sake. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your lives." The Gospel of the Lord.

Entrance O God Beyond All Praising

O God beyond all praising, we worship you today and sing the love amazing, that songs cannot repay; for we can only wonder, at every gift you send, at blessings without number, and mercies without end: we lift our hearts before you, and wait upon your word, we honour and adore you, our great and mighty Lord.

O God of all creation, who glory fills the sky We gather in your presence, our spirits lifted high; To bring for humble service, those who answer to your call, That they may follow Christ, the example for us all Protect them and guide them, their faith in you be strong, As now they journey onward, we sing the ancient song.

Then hear, O gracious Savior, accept the love we bring, that we who know your favour, may serve you as our king; and whether our tomorrows, be filled with good or ill, we'll triumph through our sorrows, and rise to bless you still: to marvel at your beauty, and glory in your ways, and make a joyful duty, our sacrifice of praise.

We acknowledge the Wurundjeri people, the traditional owners and custodians of the land on which we stand. We pay our respects to them for their care of the land. May we walk gently on this land.

1st Holy Communion Sunday

This Sunday, four children are receiving their 1st Holy Communion. We congratulate them as they will be accepted as special guests at the Eucharistic Table of the Lord. We pray that, by the commitment of their families, they will be able to join regularly at this Table as children in the family of God, the Church. The readings in today's liturgy is a clear invitation to be active and dedicated members in the Community of believers, the Church, as an "opportunity to bear witness" in our difficult and rebellious times when the disciples of Christ will also experience rejection and persecutions. "Your endurance will win you your lives", says Jesus. In the time of the early Christian Communities, many rumours and pretensions went around, confusing, distracting and discouraging believers. Jesus in the Gospel was mentioning rumours of a new Messiah appearing here or there, captivating the curiosity of people. "Refuse to join them", warned Jesus. St. Paul in today's letter to the Thessalonians was also referring to the belief that the end of the world was imminent, therefore, some would do no work and live at the expenses of others. In response, St. Paul rebukes these people saying: "We order and call on people of this kind to go on quietly working and earning the food that they eat". Our times are not much different, with public and private disregard of "religious beliefs and duties", and yet manifesting deep spiritual and emotional distress in life as if what is hoped to be a joyful celebration of living in a time of progress often turns sour in the lives of many. A proper, healthy and hopeful vision of the future, assisted by faith, will overcome the negative feelings of life and energise ourselves, our families and the present society toward a constructive and fruitful future, "for the Lord comes, comes to rule the earth. He will rule the world with justice and the people with fairness" (Responsorial Psalm 97:9)

Celebrazione della Prima Comunione

Oggi quattro bambini riceveranno la Prima Comunione. Noi ci congratuliamo con loro che oggi sono ospiti speciali alla Tavola Eucaristica del Signore. Preghiamo che, con la pratica fedele dei propri familiari, questi possano partecipare regolarmente all'Eucarestia con la Famiglia di Dio che è la Chiesa. La Parola di Dio oggi si fa invito forte ad essere membri attivi e generosi nella comunità dei fedeli, che è la Chiesa, come "opportunità a rendere testimonianza" in un mondo difficile e ribelle dove i discepoli di Cristo soffrono rifiuto e persecuzione. "Con la vostra perseveranza salverete le vostre anime", dice il Signore. Al tempo delle prime comunità cristiane si diffusero tanti rumori e pretese di chi diceva che il Messia stava per ritornare e apparire, distraendo, confondendo e scoraggiando i fedeli. "Molti verranno sotto il mio nome dicendo: 'Sono io' e 'Il tempo è prossimo'; non seguiteli. Guardatevi di non lasciarvi ingannare!" è l'ammonimento di Gesù stesso. S. Paolo nella lettera di oggi ai Tessalonicesi fa riferimento anche lui alla credenza che il ritorno di Gesù era imminente e perciò alcuni lasciavano di lavorare vivendo alle spalle degli altri. Per tutta risposta S. Paolo afferma: "A questi tali ordiniamo, esortandoli nel Signore Gesù Cristo, di mangiare il proprio pane lavorando in pace". I tempi d'oggi non sono tanto diversi, con atteggiamenti pubblici e privati di abbandono di fede e dai doveri religiosi. Di conseguenza si manifesta una grande delusione spirituale ed emotiva di vita perché ciò che si crede debba essere una gioiosa celebrazione del progresso nella vita, spesso degenera in tristezza e ansietà. Solo una visione realmente sana, di speranza nel futuro, assistita dalla fede, potrà superare le esperienze negative della vita e ridare forza a noi, alle famiglie e alla società intera per costruire efficacemente una vita migliore. Nel Salmo Responsoriale abbiamo cantato: "Esultiamo davanti al Signore che viene a giudicare la terra. Giudicherà il mondo con giustizia e i popoli con rettitudine". (Ps. 97: 9)
