

A reading from the Book of Isaiah (49:14-15)

Zion said, "The Lord has forsaken me, my Lord has forgotten me." "Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should have no compassion on the son of her womb? Even these may forget, yet I will not forget you." This is the Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm:

Response: In God alone is my soul at rest.

In God alone is my soul at rest; my help comes from Him. He alone is my rock, my stronghold, my fortress: I stand firm. R./

In God alone be at rest, my soul; for my hope comes from Him. He alone is my rock, my stronghold, my fortress: I stand firm. R./

In God is my safety and glory, the rock of my strength. Take refuge in God all you people. Trust Him at all times. Pour out your hearts before Him. R./

A reading from the First Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians (4:1-5)

This is how one should regard us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required of stewards that they be found trustworthy. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by any human court. I do not even judge myself. I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not thereby acquitted. It is the Lord who judges me. Therefore do not pronounce judgement before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then every man will receive his commendation from God. This is the Word of the Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! The Word became flesh and dwelt among us; to all who received him, he gave power to become children of God. Alleluia! (Jn 1:12,14)

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St Matthew (6:24-34)

Jesus said to his disciples, "No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon." "Therefore, I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you shall eat or what you shall drink, nor about your body, what you shall put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit to his span of life? And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, O men of little faith? Therefore, do not be anxious, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' For the Gentiles seek all these things; and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first His Kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things shall be yours as well." "Therefore, do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Let the day's own trouble be sufficient for the day." The Gospel of the Lord.

Entrance Hymn
JOYFUL JOYFUL WE ADORE THEE

Joyful, joyful we adore Thee
God of glory, Lord of love
Hearts unfold like flow'rs before Thee
Opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin
and sadness
Drive the dark of doubt away
Giver of immortal gladness
Fill us with the light of day.

All Thy works with joy
surround Thee
Earth and heaven
reflect Thy rays
Stars and angels sing
around Thee
Centre of unbroken praise.
Field and forest,
vale and mountain
Flowery meadow, flashing sea
Chanting birds
and flowing fountains
Call us to rejoice in Thee.

Offertory Hymn
TAKE AND RECEIVE

Take and receive,
O Lord, my liberty.
Take all my will,
my mind, my memory,
All things I hold and
all I own, are Thine
Thine was the gift,
to thee, I all resign.

Do Thou direct,
and govern all and sway,
Do what Thou wilt
command, and I obey.
Only Thy grace,
Thy love on me bestow.
These make me rich,

Communion Hymn
ISAIAH 49

I will never forget you,
my people;
I have carved you
on the palm of my hand.
I will never forget you;
I will not leave you orphaned.
I will never forget my own.

Does a mother forget her baby?
Or a woman the child within
her womb?
Yet even if these forget,
yes, even if these forget,
I will never forget my own.

Final Hymn
JESUS LOVES ME

Jesus loves me this I know,
For the Bible tells me so.
Little ones to Him belong,
They are weak,
but He is strong.

(Chorus):
Yes Jesus loves me,
Yes Jesus loves me,
Yes Jesus loves me,
The Bible tells me so.

Jesus loves me, He who died
Heaven's gates to open wide.
He will wash away my sin,
Let His little child come in.
(Chorus)

Jesus loves me when I'm good,
When I do the things I should.
Jesus loves me when I'm bad,
Even though it makes Him sad
(Chorus)

Pastoral Letter for Lent, 2014
from Archbishop Denis Hart

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On 5 March 2014, Ash Wednesday, we undertake a path of conversion as individuals and as a community, leading to Easter Sunday, preparing to live and proclaim the joy of the Risen Christ.

Prayer, fasting and works of love

Prayer is the lifeblood of our relationship with God. We meet Jesus and listen to him speaking in our hearts. We are encouraged to keep our Church as our holy place for prayer and silence and to meet for prayer more regularly during Lent, and sanctify each day by our prayer at home.

Attendance at Mass, Eucharistic adoration, reflection on the Scriptures and personal prayer nourish this relationship from which springs our relationship with others.

Fasting sharpens our vision and our readiness in mind and heart to love God and others, rather than personal selfishness. As a community we fast and abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. On other days, discipline in eating and drinking trains us for our journey with Christ who spent forty days in the desert, in prayer and penance.

Works of Love are the fruit of prayer and penance. Pope Francis reminds us that though Jesus was rich, for our sake he became poor. When Jesus was baptised by John, he did so not because he was in need of repentance or conversion; he did it to be among people who need forgiveness and to take upon himself the burden of our sins.

The Pope encourages us to acquire a new awareness of those who are in destitution - poverty without faith or hope. He challenges us to be alert in binding the wounds of those who suffer material destitution - lacking basic rights, food water and work; moral destitution - maybe a brother or sister is enthralled to alcohol, drugs, gambling, pornography, or no longer sees meaning in life; or spiritual destitution - which we experience when we turn away from God and reject his love. The Gospel is the antidote to destitution. We are called to proclaim the liberating news that forgiveness for sins is possible, because God freely loves us at all times, and asks us to be joyous heralds of his mercy and hope.

Parishes, communities and individuals might consider what can be done to help walk with people in their suffering, whether through Project Compassion, Caritas or by personal example. This shows the logic of love and the responsibility which springs from taking on the yoke of Christ. We realise that in giving we receive.

May this Lent be a time of transforming prayer and challenge, of love and joy in the Gospel and of gifted Christian outreach to our sisters and brothers who, like us, are encircled with the infinite love and compassion of God.

Yours sincerely in Christ,

ARCHBISHOP OF MELBOURNE

In questa misera valle infelice, tutti t'invocano: Soccorritrice. Questo bel titolo conviene a te.
O Santa Vergine, prega per me; O Santa Vergine, prega per me.
