

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: When he calls on me, I will answer him; I will deliver him and give him glory, I will grant him length of days. (Ps 90:15-16)

(1st reading in Italian) A reading from the Book of Isaiah (6:1-8) In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple. Above him stood the seraphim; each had six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! For I am lost; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" Then flew one of the seraphim to me, having in his hand a burning coal which he had taken with tongs from the altar. And he touched my mouth, and said: "Behold, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away, and your sin forgiven." And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here am I! Send me."

This is the Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm:

Response: Before the angels I will bless you, O Lord.

I thank you, Lord, with all my heart, you have heard the words of my mouth. Before the angels I will bless you. I will adore before your holy temple. R/

I thank you for your faithfulness and love which excel all we ever knew of you. On the day I called, you answered; you increased the strength of my soul. R/

All earth's kings shall thank you when they hear the words of your mouth. They shall sing of the Lord's ways: "How great is the glory of the Lord!" R/

You stretch out your hand and save me, your hand will do all things for me. Your love, O Lord, is eternal, discard not the work of your hands. R/

(2nd reading in Spanish) A reading from the First Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians (15:3-8, 11)

I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed. This is the Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Speak, Lord, your servant hears; you have the words of eternal life. Alleluia! (1 Sam 3:9; Jn 6:68)

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St Luke (5:1-11)

While the people pressed upon Jesus to hear the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret. And he saw two boats by the lake; but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people from the boat. And when he had ceased speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch." And Simon answered, "Master, we toiled all night and took nothing. But at your word I will let down the nets." And when they had done this, they enclosed a great shoal of fish; and as their nets were breaking, they beckoned to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord." For he was astonished, and all that were with him at the catch of fish which they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; henceforth you will be catching men." And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him. The Gospel of the Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Let them thank the Lord for his mercy, his wonders for the children of men, for he satisfies the thirsty soul, and the hungry he fills with good things. (Ps 106:8-9)

Communion

QUANTA SETE NEL MIO CUORE

Quanta sete nel mio cuore: solo in Dio si spegnerà.
Quanta attesa di salvezza: solo in Dio si sazierà.
L'acqua viva che egli dà
Sempre fresca sgorgherà.

Il Signore è la mia vita,
il Signore è la mia gioia.

Se la strada si fa oscura
Spero in lui: mi guiderà.
Se l'angoscia mi tormenta,
spero in lui: mi salverà.
Non si scorda mai di me,
presto a me riapparirà.

Il Signore è la mia vita,
il Signore è la mia gioia.

Nel mattino io ti invoco: tu, mio Dio, risponderai.
Nella sera rendo grazie: tu, mio Dio, ascolterai.
Al tuo monte salirò e vicino ti vedrò

Il Signore è la mia vita,
il Signore è la mia gioia.

Final MOTHER ST. BRIGID

O Holy Woman
Abbess of Ireland
Pray for us: St. Brigid!

When you were young
God spoke to your heart,
And you became:
Mother of the emerald isle. R.

The Lord the most high gave his reply;
Sending you forth
to preach the Gospel of Christ. R.

O Patroness dear,
We sing of your cheer,
Pray with us here;
May all souls to God draw near. R.

All glory be to the Trinity:
Father, and Son, and Spirit;
ever one! R.

(During Procession)
Lourdes Hymn

Immaculate Mary,
we praise God in you:
His power and his Mercy,
His grace given to you.
Ave, ave, ave, Maria!
Ave, ave, ave, Maria!

È l'ora che pia la squilla fedel.
Le note c'invia dell'Ave del ciel
Ave, ave, ave, Maria! (X2)

Predestined for Christ
by eternal decree,
God willed you both virgin and mother to be.
Ave, ave, ave, Maria! (X2)

Nel piano di Dio l'eletta sei tu, Che porti nel mondo
il Figlio Gesù.
Ave, ave, ave, Maria! (X2)

SALVE REGINA

(Final)

Salve Regina,
mater misericordiae Vita, dulcedo,
et spes nostra, salve.
Ad te clamamus,
exsules filii Evae,
Ad te suspiramus,
gements et flentes
in hac lacrimarum valle Eja ergo,
advocate nostra, illos tuos misericordes
oculos ad nos converte.

Et Jesum, benedictum
fructum ventris tui, nobis post hoc exsilium ostende.
O Clemens, o pia,
o dulcis. Virgo Maria.

St. Brigid OF KILDARE FEAST DAY

St. Brigid's Parish: Patron Saint Feast Day.

Today our Parish celebrates the Feast of the Patron Saint, St. Brigid of Kildare, as one family in the faith, coming together from different nations, cultures and languages. Like in the day of Pentecost, we are Australians, English speaking from various Countries, Italians, Spanish speaking from America, Portuguese speaking, Filipinos, Samoans, Chinese, people from several Asian Countries and people from all Continents: this is the Family of St. Brigid's, a family of many nations. Indeed, St. Brigid's Cross is a symbol of unity. Tradition has it that she made it from rushes joined together as she was assisting a pagan chieftain on his deathbed who then converted to Christianity when St. Brigid explained that on the Cross Jesus died for his salvation and for all. St. Brigid's Cross is the most appropriate sign of our Parish: our Community, in celebrating St. Brigid as our Patron Saint sees in her an inspiration for unity. In our church, people of different nations, cultures and languages gather and celebrate their faith in God and together become a powerful sign that God's Family is one in faith and love. The love of God reaching out to the whole world; and all the people in the world united in the power of the love of God. St. Brigid was also a perfect example of this uniting love by her dedication to the poor, the education of girls, the gathering of spiritually dedicated people in religious communities, the imparting of the knowledge of God's love to people. She was indeed an instrument of wisdom and unity in her own time. Our celebration today sings of this unity in faith. Let us be inspired by our Patron Saint, St. Brigid of Kildare.

Historical Notes: Brigid is thought to have been born at Faughart (County of Louth), Ireland, in 451. Her father was Dubhthach, a Leinster pagan chieftain, her mother Brocca, a Pictish Christian. Brigid was named after the goddess of fire of the local pagan religion. In 468 Brigid converted to Christianity. Her father was not pleased when she felt a longing to enter the religious life and kept her at home. But her charity to the poor made her give away many of the family resources. Her father finally gave in and sent Brigid to a convent. Receiving the religious veil from St. Mel, Brigid embarked on a career as founder of convents starting at Clara (County of Offaly). But her activity in Kildare became most important. The name 'Kildare' comes from 'Cill Dara', meaning 'The church of the oak' and Brigid's cell being under a large oak tree. She founded a monastery there first for nuns and soon after for monks as well to secure the celebration of the Mass and the administration of the sacraments. Her ministry, however, spread all around that County. Brigid died in or around 525 and was buried in Kildare's abbey church. Later her remains are said to have been exhumed and transported to Downpatrick, to rest with the two other patron saints of Ireland, Patrick and Columba. St. Brigid was a courageous woman of faith, an Irish nun, an abbess, founder of several convents, a charitable pioneer of monastic institutions in Ireland, a leader with a big heart in favour of the most in need, well known for her common sense and holy life. Her devotion spread fast in Ireland, and through the centuries in the whole world.

PRAYER TO ST. BRIGID
*St. Brigid, you were a woman of peace,
You brought harmony
where there was conflict.
You brought light into the darkness.
You brought hope to the downcast.
May the mantle of your peace
Cover those who are troubled and anxious.
And may peace be firmly rooted
In our hearts and in our world.
Inspire us to act justly and reverence
all God has made.
St. Brigid, you were a voice for the wounded and the weary.
Strengthen what is weak within us.
Calm us into a quietness that heals and listen
May we grow each day into greater Wholeness in mind, body and spirit.
Amen.*

NOI CANTEREMO GLORIA A TE

Noi canteremo gloria a Te, Padre che dai la vita, Dio d'immensa carità, Trinità infinita.

Tutto il creato vive in Te, segno della tua gloria;
tutta la storia ti darà onore e vittoria.

La tua Parola venne a noi, annuncio del tuo dono;
la tua Promessa porterà, salvezza e perdono.

Dio si è fatto come noi, è nato da Maria:
egli nel mondo ormai sarà, Verità, Vita, Via.

Cristo è apparso in mezzo a noi, Dio ci ha visitato;
tutta la terra adorerà, quel Bimbo che ci è nato.

Cristo il Padre rivelò, per noi aprì il suo cielo;
egli un giorno tornerà, glorioso, nel suo regno.

Manda, Signore, in mezzo a noi, manda il Consolatore, lo Spirito di santità, Spirito dell'amore.

Vieni, Signore, in mezzo ai tuoi, vieni nella tua casa:
dona la pace e l'unità, raduna la tua Chiesa.

Siam qui raccolti innanzi a te, Signor, bontà infinita,
e tu, benigno, ci darai, la gioia della vita.

In spirito e in verità noi gloria ti cantiamo, la tua divina maestà, con fede adoriamo

Plenary Council Prayer

*Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost.
Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.*

O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia

and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council.

Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road.

Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth.

Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.

Lead your Church into a hope-filled future,

*that we may live the joy of the Gospel.
Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age.*

Amen.

*Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us.
St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.*

Communion: Here I am Lord

I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard My people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin,
My hand will save.

I who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.

Who will bear My light to them?
Whom shall I send? (Ref)

Here I am Lord, is it I Lord?

I have heard You calling in the night
I will go Lord, if You lead me
I will hold Your people in my heart

I, the Lord of snow and rain,
I have born my peoples pain.

I have wept for love of them,
they turn away.

I will break their hearts of stone,
Give them hearts for love alone.

I will speak My word to them,
Whom shall I send? (Ref)

I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame.

I will set a feast for them,
My hand will save

Finest bread I will provide,
Till their hearts be satisfied.

I will give My life to them,
Whom shall I send? (Ref)
