

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: The Lord is truly risen, Alleluia. To him be glory and power for all the ages of eternity. Alleluia, Alleluia. (Lk 24:34)

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (10:34a, 37- 43)

Peter opened his mouth and said: "The word which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism which John preached: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. And we are witnesses to all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and made him manifest; not to all the people but to us, who were chosen by God as witnesses, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that he is the one ordained by God to be judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness that every one who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name." This is the Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm:

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end. Let the sons of Israel say: "His love has no end." R./

The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up. I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. R./

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians (3: 1-4)

If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ who is our life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. This is the Word of the Lord.

Communion Antiphon: Christ our Passover has been sacrificed, alleluia; therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of purity and truth, alleluia, alleluia. (1 Cor 5:7-8)

SEQUENCE

Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer sacrifice and praise. The sheep are ransomed by the Lamb; and Christ, the undefiled, hath sinners to his Father reconciled. Death with life contended: combat strangely ended! Life's own Champion, slain, yet lives to reign. Tell us, Mary: say what thou didst see upon the way. The tomb the Living did enclose; I saw Christ's glory as he rose! he angels there attesting; shroud with grace-clothes resting. Christ, my hope, has risen: he goes before you into Galilee. That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know. Victorious king, thy mercy show!

Alleluia, alleluia! Christ, our paschal lamb has been sacrificed; let us celebrate the feast then in the Lord Alleluia! (1 Cor 5:7b-8a)

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St John (20: 1-9)

On the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. So she ran, and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Peter then came out with the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first; and stooping to look in, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb; he saw the linen cloths lying, and the napkin, which had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not know the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. The Gospel of the Lord.

Communion
JESUS CHRIST IS RISEN TODAY

Jesus Christ is risen today, Alleluia!
Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
Who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
Suffer to redeem our loss, Alleluia!

Hymns of praise, then let us sing,
Alleluia!
Unto Christ our heavenly King, Alleluia!
Who endured the cross and grave,
Alleluia!
Sinners to redeem and save, Alleluia!

But the pains which He endured
Alleluia!
Our salvation have procured. Alleluia!
Now above the sky He's King, Alleluia!
Where the angels ever sing. Alleluia!

Sing we to our God above, Alleluia!
Praise eternal as His love, Alleluia!
Praise Him, all ye heavenly host,
Alleluia!

Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Alleluia!

Final ALLELUIA,
ALLELUIA, GIVE THANKS TO THE RISEN LORD

Chorus:

He is the King of creation.

God, Joyfully sing to our Saviour (Chorus)

EASTER SUNDAY

"Truly, Christ is risen and he appeared to Simon Peter" (Lk. 24:34)

Two Disciples of Jesus came running back from Emmaus to Jerusalem and with a heavy breath were about to announce that they had seen the Lord resurrected – but before they could speak they were met by the shout of the other Disciples: "Truly, Christ is risen and he appeared to Simon Peter" (Lk. 24: 34). Then Jesus himself appeared to all of them gathered in the upper-room, saying: "Peace be with you!" The resurrection of Jesus is an historical event proven by the empty tomb and the testimony of all the Apostles, the Disciples of Jesus and more than 500 people as testified in the Gospels, The Acts of the Apostles and the several Apostolic Letters that speak of the various encounters with Jesus following his resurrection. Up to the moment of the crucifixion and death of Jesus on the cross, the history of Israel was in a state of expectation that God would, one day, send the Messiah, but could not believe it was Jesus; mankind was dominated by sin and moral darkness in the pagan world. The resurrection of Jesus is the turning point in history: Now to believe in Jesus is to believe that he is truly the Messiah and the Saviour of the whole world. It is, also, the turning point for the Apostles who, strengthened, then, by the Holy Spirit, boldly started to announce Jesus resurrected as the Saviour, the Baptism for conversion and the gathering of believers into a new community – the Church – not identified any longer with the Jewish people. The teaching of Jesus, preached by the Apostles and later on gathered into the gospels, the celebration of Jesus present in the community as they gathered in prayer and the Eucharist, the living in love and harmony with all (Act 2: 42), became essential moment of unity with the living Jesus that would transformed their lives into witnesses of a new way of living by the Spirit of Christ. After his resurrection, Jesus said to the Apostles: "I am with you always till the end of time" (Mt.28: 20) This was the faith and the strength that animated the believers even to the point of martyrdom. This has been the faith and strength that has animated generations of believers from the time of the Apostles till today. Today Jesus is alive and continuing his mission to make our Imperfect and often sinful life "resurrect" with him to transform us into "more spiritual people" and leave behind "our life pleasing the flesh" (Gal. 5:16). The witnessing of this new life in the Spirit of Christ and by his power is offering a continuous hope to the world that it too can "resurrect" into a more truthful and loving society.

To you all, a very happy and blessed Easter!

DOMENICA DI PASQUA

"Veramente Cristo é risorto ed é apparso a Simon Pietro" (Lc. 24:34)

Due discepoli di Gesù ritornarono velocemente da Emmaus a Gerusalemme e con il fiato pesante stavano per annunciare ai compagni che avevano visto Cristo risorto – ma prima che potessero parlare, gli altri discepoli gridarono con esultanza: "Veramente Cristo é risorto ed é apparso a Simone" (Lc. 24:34).

Poi Gesù stesso apparve a tutti riuniti nel Cenacolo dicendo: "Pace a voi!". La risurrezione di Gesù é un fatto storico provato dalla tomba vuota e la testimonianza degli Apostoli, i discepoli di Gesù e da oltre 500 persone, come viene testimoniato dai Vangeli, dagli Atti degli Apostoli, e dalle Lettere Apostoliche che parlano dei vari incontri con Gesù dopo la sua risurrezione. Fino al momento della crucifixione e morte di Gesù in croce, la storia d'Israele era in attesa del Messia che doveva venire, ma non credettero che Gesù era il Messia. L'umanità intera viveva sotto il peso del peccato e il buio morale in un mondo pagano. La risurrezione di Gesù cambia la storia dell'umanità. Ora, credere in Gesù é credere che lui é il Messia e il Salvatore per tutti. Questo porta anche un cambiamento profondo negli Apostoli che, ricevendo lo Spirito Santo, diventano coraggiosi nell'annunciare con forza che Cristo risorto é il Salvatore, il Battesimo della conversione dai peccati e nel raccogliere i fedeli in una comunità nuova – la Chiesa – che non si identifica più con i Giudei della sinagoga. Gli insegnamenti di Gesù vengono raccolti nei Vangeli, la comunità dei fedeli si riunisce a celebrare Cristo vivo in preghiera e la Celebrazione dell'Eucarestia e nel vivere nella pace e condivisione dei beni (Att. 2:42). In questa unione con Cristo vivo e tra loro essi davano testimonianza di una vita trasformata nello Spirito di Cristo. Prima di ascendere al cielo Gesù promise: "Io sarò con voi per sempre fino alla fine del mondo" (Mt. 28:20). Questa era la fede e la forza che animava i fedeli fino anche al punto del martirio. Questa fu la fede vissuta con forza e coraggio da tutte le generazioni dal tempo degli Apostoli fino al giorno d'oggi nella Chiesa. Oggi, Gesù vive e continua la sua missione di far "risorgere" questo nostro mondo imperfetto e ancora immerso nel peccato, invitandoci a "vivere nello spirito" e non soggetti ai desideri della carne" (Gal. 5:16). La nostra testimonianza di questa nuova vita vissuta nello Spirito di Cristo e per la sua grazia diventa "speranza di risurrezione" per il mondo intero dal male ad una società più giusta e buona. A tutti voi, di cuore, una Buona e Santa Pasqua!
