ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Save us, Lord our God! And gather us from the nations, to give thanks to your holy 4 name, and make it our glory to praise you (Ps 106:47).

A reading from the Book of Deuteronomy (18:15-20) Moses said to the people, "The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you, from your brethren him you shall heed – just as you desired of the Lord your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, 'Let me not hear again the voice of the Lord my God, or see this great fire any more, lest I die'. And the Lord said to me, 'They have rightly said all that they have spoken. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brethren; and I will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I command him. And whoever will not give heed to my words which he shall speak in my name, I myself will require it of him. But the prophet who presumes to speak a word in my name which I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that same prophet shall die'." This is the Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: If today you her his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, ring out our joy to the Lord; hail the rock who saves us. Let us come before him, giving thanks, with songs let us hail the Lord. R/

Come in; let us bow and bend low; let us kneel before the God who made us, for he is our God and we the people who belong to his pasture, the flock that is led by his hand. R/

O that today you would listen to his voice! "Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as on that day at Massah in the desert

A reading from the First Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians (7:32-35) I want you to be free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious about the affairs of the Lord, how to please the Lord; but the married man is anxious about worldly affairs, how to please his wife, and his interests are divided. And the unmarried woman or girl is anxious about the affairs of the Lord, how to be holy in body and spirit; but the married woman is anxious about worldly affairs, how to please her husband. I say this for your own benefit, not to lay any restraint upon you, but to promote good order and to secure your undivided devotion to the Lord. This is the Word of the Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! The people in darkness have seen a great light; a radiant dawn shines on those lost in death. Alleluia!

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St Mark (1:21-28) They went into Capernaum; and immediately on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. And they were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one who had authority, and not as the scribes. And immediately there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God." But Jesus rebuked him saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. And they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, "What is this? A new teaching! With authority he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." And at once his fame spread everywhere throughout all the surrounding region of Galilee. The Gospel of the Lord.

We acknowledge the Wurundjeri people, the traditional owners and custodians of the land on which we stand. We pay our respects to them for their care of the land. May we walk gently on this land.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF JESUS: St Mark at the beginning of his Gospel presents a normal day in the life of Jesus. The evangelist wants us to see the ministry of Jesus in its different aspects: the preaching in the temple, the healing of the sick, the consoling words given to the suffering, the expulsion of unclean spirits like in today's Gospel reading. There is time for everyone: a word, a kind gesture, a healing action, a comforting presence. Jesus has even time to pray from where He finds the strength to love and carry on his mission. Looking at Jesus' activities in one day we are called to see how we use our time. Time is precious and it is to be used wisely producing many fruits. There is the saying: "Laziness is the mother of all vices". For us Christians not using well the gift of time is also the refuse of a gift. As life givers time is indeed a gift to be used to give life becoming contemplative in actions. As described by the evangelists, a day in the life of Jesus is full of good deeds. As we begin the second month of 2021, a good resolution could be to use well our time in spreading God's kingdom. Let us not be consumed by time but let us consume well our time in making a difference in the world with the joy of the Gospel.

sguardo, una parola o un'attenzione gualsiasi. Non trascura neanche la sua crescita spirituale trovando anche il tempo per la preghiera, senza la quale tutte le opere hanno un valore solo umano. Dovremmo imparare gualcosa! Sembra sempre che il tempo ci sommerga, ci travolga con le tante cose da fare - forse manca l'equilibrio per poterle affrontare tutte nel modo adeguato. A questa ricerca interiore, spirituale ci spinge la lettura della cosiddetta "giornata di Cafarnao". Dunque, ci viene oggi da pensare intensamente all'uso del tempo. Il tempo è come un prezioso contenitore che il buon Dio ci ha donato e che dobbiamo riempire ogni giorno con le nostre buone azioni; guando il contenitore rimane vuoto o si riempie di cattiverie, è la vita che resta vuota o diventa malvagia. I saggi hanno detto che l'ozio è il padre dei vizi. Per il cristiano significa anche disprezzo di un dono, disprezzo della vita, lasciarsi consumare dal tempo senza imparare a viverlo fruttuosamente. La giornata di Gesù è piena e feconda di bene e la nostra com'è?.

GIORNATA DI GESÙ: LA San Marco, all'inizio del suo Vangelo riunisce alcuni episodi della vita di Gesù nell'arco di una sola giornata. Vi è un motivo preciso in guesta scelta narrativa. L'intento di San Marco è mostrarci l'opera di Gesù in tutti i suoi aspetti: dalla predicazione nel tempio, dalla cura agli ammalati, nel dire parole di conforto ai sofferenti, dal cacciare i demoni, come nel vangelo di oggi. Per tutti riesce a riservare parte del suo tempo e a tutti dedica uno Nome dolcissimo, nome d'amore, tu sei rifuaio al peccatore Fra i cori angelici è l'armonia: Ave Maria, ave Maria!

Nel fosco esilio, fulgida stella, sei nostra gioia, Vergine bella. Ascolta il grido dell'alma mia Ave Maria, ave Maria.
