

A Reading from the book of Genesis (14:18-20)
 Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing: 'Blessed be Abram by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.' And Abram gave him a tenth of everything. The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm:
Response: You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

The Lord's revelation to my Master: "Sit on my right: I will put your foes beneath your feet." R/

The Lord will send from Zion your sceptre of power: rule in the midst of all your foes. R/

A prince from the day of your birth on the holy mountains; from the womb before the daybreak I begot you. R/

The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change. "You are a priest forever, a priest like Melchizedek of old." R/

A reading from the First Letter of S. Paula to the Corinthians (11:23-26)
 This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death. The word of the Lord.

Gospel acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I am the living bread which has come down from heaven, says the Lord. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever. Alleluia!

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St Luke (9:11-17)

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing. It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets. The Gospel of the Lord.

Communion Antiphon: Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord. (Jn 6:57)

Homily notes: Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) Year C

(Fr Brendan Byrne SJ, The Australian Catholics, 9 June 2022)

The Eucharist is meant to be the way in which the post-Easter community continues to experience and celebrate the hospitality of God, a pledge and foretaste of the banquet of the final Kingdom.

THEME OF HOSPITALITY

The same theme of hospitality is central to the Gospel: Luke's account of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes (9:11-17). (The significance of this tradition in the early Church is clear from the fact that it occurs no less than six times across the full range of the gospels: twice in both Matthew and Mark; once in Luke and John). The twelve apostles, in genuine concern for the well-being of the crowd, make a practical suggestion. It's time to send the people home so that they can find food and lodging for the night. Jesus throws back at them a stark challenge: "Give them something to eat yourselves". In other words, "You provide them with the hospitality they need". They are aghast at the suggestion. In human terms hospitality on such a scale is impossible. But Jesus is going to make them ministers of the hospitality of God.

The people are made to sit down in groups – a clear signal that they are about to be fed. Then, invoking heaven (to show the divine source), blessing and breaking the loaves and fishes (the language has clear echoes of the Eucharistic narrative), he miraculously makes it possible for the Twelve to feed the entire crowd – not merely adequately but so abundantly that, even after all had eaten, each the distributors had a basket full of broken pieces left over. God is never niggardly in hospitality; on the contrary, overflowing abundance is its sign and mark.

FORESHADOWING THE EUCHARIST

It is significant that in the provision of the loaves and fish Jesus himself does not deal directly with the crowd. He leaves the distribution left entirely to the disciples. Jesus is apprenticing them to be ministers of the hospitality of God when, after his ascension, he is physically removed from the scene. The episode, then, clearly foreshadows the Christian Eucharist – the rite in which the Church will experience and celebrate God's hospitality until the time of his return.

Note dell'omelia: Corpo e Sangue di Cristo (Corpus Domini) Anno C

(Fr Brendan Byrne SJ, The Australian Catholics, 9 June 2022)

L'Eucaristia vuole essere il modo in cui la comunità post-orientale continua a sperimentare e celebrare l'ospitalità di Dio, pegno e presagio del banchetto del Regno finale.

TEMA DELL'OSPITALITÀ

Lo stesso tema dell'ospitalità è centrale nel Vangelo: il racconto di Luca della moltiplicazione dei pani e dei pesci (9, 11-17). (Il significato di questa tradizione nella Chiesa primitiva è chiaro dal fatto che essa si verifica non meno di sei volte in tutta la gamma dei vangeli: due volte in Matteo e Marco; una volta in Luca e Giovanni). I dodici apostoli, nell'autentica sollecitudine per il benessere della folla, danno un suggerimento pratico. E' tempo di mandare le persone a casa in modo che possano trovare cibo e alloggio per la notte. Gesù lancia loro una dura sfida: "Date loro qualcosa da mangiare". In altre parole, "Voi offrite loro l'ospitalità di cui hanno bisogno". Sono stupefatti dal suggerimento. In termini umani l'ospitalità su tale scala è impossibile. Ma Gesù sta per renderli ministri dell'ospitalità di Dio.

Le persone sono fatte sedere in gruppi - un chiaro segnale che stanno per essere nutriti. Poi, invocando il cielo (per mostrare la fonte divina), benedendo e spezzando i pani e i pesci (il linguaggio ha chiari echi della narrazione eucaristica), egli rende miracolosamente possibile per i Dodici nutrire l'intera folla - non solo in modo adeguato ma così abbondante che, anche dopo che tutti avevano mangiato, ognuno dei distributori aveva un cesto pieno di pezzi rotti rimasti. Dio non è mai avaro nell'ospitalità; al contrario, la sovrabbondanza è il suo segno e segno.

PREFIGURARE L'EUCARISTIA

È significativo che nella fornitura dei pani e dei pesci Gesù stesso non si occupi direttamente della folla. Lascia la distribuzione lasciata interamente ai discepoli. Gesù li sta informando di essere ministri dell'ospitalità di Dio quando, dopo la sua ascensione, viene fisicamente rimosso dalla scena. L'episodio, quindi, prefigura chiaramente l'Eucaristia cristiana - il rito in cui la Chiesa sperimenterà e celebrerà l'ospitalità di Dio fino al suo ritorno.

Entrance

GOD WE PRAISE YOU

God, we praise you!
 God, we bless you!
 God, we name you sovereign Lord!
 Mighty King whom angels worship,
 Father, by your church adored:
 all creation shows your glory,
 heaven and earth
 draw near your throne
 singing 'Holy, holy, holy,
 Lord of hosts, and God alone!'
 True apostles, faithful prophets,
 saints who set their world ablaze,
 martyrs once unknown, unheeded,
 join one growing song of praise,
 while your church
 on earth confesses
 one majestic Trinity:
 Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
 God, our hope eternally.
 Jesus Christ, the King of glory,
 everlasting Son of God,
 humble was your virgin mother,
 hard the lonely path you trod:
 by your cross is sin defeated,
 hell confronted face to face,
 heaven opened to believers,
 sinners justified by grace.

Offertory

BREAD FOR THE WORLD

Refrain
Bread for the world:
a world of hunger.
Wine for all peoples:
people who thirst.
May we who eat,
be bread for others.
May we who drink,
pour out our love.
 Lord Jesus Christ,
 you are the bread of life,
 broken to reach and heal
 the wounds of human pain.
 Where we divide your people,
 you are waiting there,
 on bended knee
 to wash our feet
 with endless care. (refrain)
 Lord Jesus Christ,
 you are the wine of peace,
 poured into hearts once broken
 and where dryness sleeps.
 Where we are tired and weary,
 you are waiting there
 to be the way which beckons us
 beyond despair. (refrain)

GIFT OF FINEST WHEAT

Chorus:
You satisfy the hungry heart
with gift of finest wheat,
come give to us O saving Lord,
the bread of life to eat.
 As when the shepherd
 calls his sheep,
 they know and heed his voice;
 so when You call
 Your family Lord,
 we follow and rejoice.
 With joyful lips we sing to You,
 Our praise and gratitude,
 that You should count us
 worthy Lord,
 to share this heavenly food.
 Is not the cup we bless and share,
 the blood of Christ outpoured?
 Do not one cup, one loaf declare
 Our oneness in the Lord?
 The mystery of Your presence Lord,
 No mortal tongue can tell;
 Whom all the world cannot contain
 Comes in our hearts to dwell.

Prayer to Blessed Scalabrini Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini, with the heart of a bishop and the zeal of an apostle you gave yourself completely to all. You listened to the cries of migrants, spoke in their name, defended their rights. You found sustenance in the Eucharist solace in the cross of Jesus, comfort in Mary, Mother of the Church. Through your intercession may God, who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit grant peace to all humanity, protect those who cross seas and borders sustained by hope, bless us and our loved ones and grant us the grace that we entrust to your fatherly love. Amen.
Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be to the Father for the canonization of Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini.

Offertorio: MISTERO DELLA CENA
Mistero della Cena è il Corpo di Gesù. Mistero della Croce è il Sangue di Gesù. È questo pane e vino è Cristo in mezzo ai suoi Gesù risorto e vivo sarà sempre con noi.
Mistero della Chiesa è il Corpo di Gesù. Mistero della pace è il sangue di Gesù. Il pane che mangiamo fratelli ci farà. Intorno a questo altare l'amore crescerà.

Comunione: SEI TU SIGNORE IL PANE
Sei tu Signore il pane, tu cibo sei per noi. Risorto a vita nuova, sei vivo in mezzo a noi. Nell'ultima sua cena, Gesù si dona ai suoi: prendete pane e vino, la vita mia per voi. Mangiate questo pane: chi crede in me vivrà, chi beve, il vino nuovo, con me risorgerà. È Cristo il pane vero, diviso qui fra noi: formiamo un solo corpo e Dio sarà con noi. Verranno i cieli nuovi, la terra fiorirà. Vivremo da fratelli, la Chiesa è carità.
