

4 ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Blessed be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love.

A reading from the Book Proverbs (8:22-31)

The Wisdom of God cries aloud, the Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of old. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth; before he had made the earth with its fields, or the first of the dust of the world. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master workman; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the sons of men. This is the Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm:

Response: How great is your name, O Lord our God, through all the earth!

When I see the heavens, the work of your hands, the moon and the stars which you arranged, what is man that you should keep him in mind, mortal man that you care for him? R./

Yet you have made him little less than a god; with glory and honour you crowned him, gave him power over the works of your hand, put all things under his feet. R./

All of them, sheep and cattle, yes, even the savage beasts, birds of the air, and fish that make their way through the waters. R./

Entrance: Living God

Sing praises to the living God, Glory Alleluia. Come, adore the living God, Glory Alleluia. Though sun and moon may pass away, His word will ever stay. His power is for evermore, Glory Alleluia.

Chorus:
Glory to the Trinity,
The undivided unity,
The Father, son, and Spirit one,
From whom all life
goodness come.

To the living God we sing, Glory Alleluia. Let our love and praises ring, Glory Alleluia. To his sons He always gives His mercy and His love. Praise Him now forever more, Glory Alleluia. (chorus)

Offertory:

Take my life and let it be

Take my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee; Take my moments and my days, Let them flow in ceaseless praise, Let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Take my hands, and let them move At the impulse of Thy love; Take my feet and let them be Swift and beautiful for Thee, Swift and beautiful for Thee.

Take my will, and make it Thine; It shall be no longer mine. Take my heart; it is Thine own; It shall be Thy royal throne, It shall be Thy royal throne.

A reading from the Letter of St Paul to the Romans (5:1-5)

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in our hope of sharing the glory of God. More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, the God who is, and who was, and who is to come. Alleluia! (Apoc 1:8)

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St John (16:12-15)

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have yet many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you. The Gospel of the Lord.

A Circle of Love

Today we celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity – three divine persons in one God. Together with the mystery of the Incarnation, the Trinity represents a major tenet of the Christian faith. In the first reading the Book of Proverbs offers images of God the Creator. St. Paul to the Romans (2nd reading) presents God the Father as source and goal of life; Jesus the Son of God who in his humanity redeemed our wounded human life; the Holy Spirit who comes from the Father and the Son to affirm and continue in us this new life. The Gospel reveals the inner circle of community of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit now taking us into its dynamic divine life. This is the fundamental mystery of our faith from which all others derive. The Church has professed this since its beginning on Pentecost day. St. Paul uses it as a special greeting to the community of believers: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you". (2 Cor. 13:13) We have all come to accept the mystery of the Holy Trinity even though we will never be able to comprehend it fully. The doctrine of the Holy Trinity is valuable because it proclaims bravely and vigorously that there are mighty and wondrous things happening in us, it reawakens in us a sense of wonder and awe, and energizes us to affirm the excitement of human life and love: our life is not limited to the drudgery of every day situations, but is a mystery in constant fulfilment in time and then in eternity through the love of God. By his will and power, our life is in God and thus we enter in the circle of love that is the eternal life of the Trinity. Rather than a cold and fossilized-in-time affirmation of faith, in our affirmation of faith in the Trinity we enter into the surge of life that by the force of God's love expands from Him to us and to all living beings. Caught in this circle of love then we understand the commandment of Jesus: Love one another as I loved you. Or again: "As the Father loves me so I love you: remain in my love". This is something we should think about whenever we make the sign of the cross.

Un circolo di amore

Oggi celebriamo il mistero della Ss. Trinità – tre persone divine ma un unico Dio. Con il mistero dell'Incarnazione, la Trinità rappresenta una delle più importanti verità della nostra fede. La prima lettura dal libro dei Proverbi offre diverse immagini di Dio creatore. Nella seconda lettura San Paolo, scrivendo ai Romani, parla di Dio come colui che adempie la speranza della nostra vita; di Cristo che ci ha fatto il dono della grazia di essere accolti da Dio; dello Spirito Santo che riversa su di noi l'amore divino. Il Vangelo rivela la vita intima di Dio come comunità trinitaria che ora si è rivelata a noi con un dinamismo che ci attrae dentro questo circolo di vita trinitaria. Questo è il mistero fondamentale della nostra fede dal quale deriva ogni suo altro aspetto e verità. L'affermazione di Dio Uno e Trino appare fin dal giorno della Pentecoste. San Paolo afferma questo mistero nel saluto che dà alle comunità cristiane: "La grazia del Signore nostro Gesù Cristo, l'amore del Padre e la comunione dello Spirito Santo sia con tutti voi" (2Cor. 13:13) In fede accettiamo la rivelazione di questo mistero anche se non potremo mai comprenderlo a fondo. La verità della Ss. Trinità è di grande importanza perché proclama con forza che la presenza di Dio nella nostra vita è dinamica, riaccende stupore e meraviglia nel nostro animo e dona energia e vigore al desiderio di vivere nell'amore: la nostra vita non si appesantisce nelle ansietà e incertezze di ogni giorno, ma continuamente si rinnova nel tempo e nell'eternità nell'amore di Dio. Per la volontà e potere di Dio la nostra vita vive in Dio e così entriamo nel circolo dell'amore eterno della Trinità. Anche la nostra fede non rimane fossilizzata nel tempo o solo un atto di fede che non trasforma, ma ci fa entrare nella forza rinnovatrice di Dio e che da Lui si espande su di noi e sul mondo intero. Presi in questo turbine di amore allora comprendiamo il comandamento di Gesù: "Amatevi gli uni gli altri come io vi ho amati". E ancora: "Come il Padre ha amato me così io ho amato voi: rimanete nel mio amore". Su questo noi dobbiamo riflettere ogni volta che facciamo il segno della croce.

We Care – Responding to the Voluntary Assisted Dying Act. From the earliest times, Christ's followers have set themselves apart by their care of the vulnerable (Acts 4:34). On 19 June 2019, the Voluntary Assisted Dying Act (VAD) comes into effect. It legalises euthanasia and assisted suicide. Despite what the law may say, our Christian tradition affirms that every life, including those of the sick and suffering, is sacred. Euthanasia and assisted suicide are never part of end of life care. Pope Francis has encouraged ordinary Catholics everywhere to resist euthanasia and to protect the old, the young and the vulnerable from being cast aside in a "throw-away culture." We are called to follow Christ by accompanying people with compassion, sharing hope not fear. The Bishops of the Catholic dioceses of Melbourne, Ballarat, Sale and Sandhurst, echoing Pope Francis, have published a pastoral letter including practical guidance on ways we can be conscientious objectors to euthanasia. Copies of the letter are available in our parish and online: www.cam.org.au/euthanasia Please read and share it.
