

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

A reading from the Book of Malachi 3:1-4 Thus says the Lord God: Lo, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me; And suddenly there will come to the temple the Lord whom you seek, And the messenger of the covenant whom you desire. Yes, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts. But who will endure the day of his coming? And who can stand when he appears? For he is like the refiner's fire, or like the fuller's lye. He will sit refining and purifying silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, Refining them like gold or like silver that they may offer due sacrifice to the Lord. Then the sacrifice of Judah and Jerusalem will please the Lord, as in the days of old, as in years gone by. This is the word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm:

Response: Who is this king of glory? It is the Lord!

Lift up, O gates, your lintels; reach up, you ancient portals, that the king of glory may come in! R.

Who is this king of glory? The Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord, mighty in battle. R.

Lift up, O gates, your lintels; reach up, you ancient portals, that the king of glory may come in! R.

Who is this king of glory? The Lord of hosts; he is the king of glory. R.

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews 2:14-18

Since the children share in blood and flesh, Jesus likewise shared in them, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the Devil, and free those who through fear of death had been subject to slavery all their life. Surely he did not help angels but rather the descendants of Abraham; therefore, he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every way, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest before God to expiate the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

This is the word of the Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! A light of revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel. Alleluia! Lk 2:32

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St Luke 2:22-40

When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, Mary and Joseph took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, just as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord, and to offer the sacrifice of a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons, in accordance with the dictate in the law of the Lord. Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, awaiting the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord. He came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to perform the custom of the law in regard to him, he took him into his arms and blessed God, saying: "Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel." The child's father and mother were amazed at what was said about him; and Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, "Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted—and you yourself a sword will pierce – so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." There was also a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was advanced in years, having lived seven years with her husband after her marriage, and then as a widow until she was eighty-four. She never left the temple, but worshiped night and day with fasting and prayer. And coming forward at that very time, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were awaiting the redemption of Jerusalem. When they had fulfilled all the prescriptions of the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him. The Gospel of the Lord.

We acknowledge the Wurundjeri people, the traditional owners and custodians of the land on which we stand. We pay our respects to them for their care of the land. May we walk gently on this land.

FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF JESUS IN THE TEMPLE

It was laid down by the Jewish Law that 40 days after the birth of a first born child the mother would seek purification by presenting herself with an offering to the temple and the child be consecrated to God, in remembrance of that night when the angle of God saved all the first-born of the Israelites from death and God freed the Jewish people from the slavery of Egypt. Mary and Joseph present Jesus with an offering of a pair of turtledoves and two young pigeons: the sacrifice of the poor. The Oriental Church celebrated this event since the early centuries. The Church of Rome and in the West introduced this Feast in the VI and VII centuries and later on it introduced a solemn procession with candles as an expression of purification from sins and thus offer to God a pure and holy sacrifice. The celebration, therefore, acquired a penitential character. At the centre of the celebration we see Jesus offered to God in anticipation of his obedient offering of himself on the cross for our salvation, and Mary his mother united to Jesus' mission of salvation which will bring her to Calvary at the foot of her son Jesus dying on the cross. The celebration of the Presentation is the beginning and forerunner of the sorrowful celebration on Good Friday and Christ's sacrifice for our salvation. The luminous aspect of this celebration is the realization of Simeon's prophetic words that this child: "Will be light to enlighten the pagans and the glory and the rising of many". Anna, dedicated to prayer in the temple, also glorified God saying that this child will bring deliverance: "to all who look forward to salvation". The celebration of the Eucharistic sacrifice to which we are participating today is the continuation in time and the realization of the sacrifice Christ is offering of himself for our salvation. The blessing of the candles symbolises the fact that we too must be "consumed" in a sacrifice of obedience to God and thus be united in the sacrifice of Christ to obtain the glory of our salvation.

FESTA DELLA PRESENTAZIONE DI GESU' AL TEMPIO

La Legge ebraica imponeva che 40 giorni dopo la nascita di un figlio primogenito la madre fosse purificata presentandosi al tempio con una offerta, e il figlio primogenito fosse consacrato a Dio che aveva salvato i promogeniti degli ebrei la notte che uscirono dalla schiavitù d'Egitto. Maria e Giuseppe presentano Gesù con l'offerta di una coppia di tortore e due colombe, l'offerta dei poveri. La Chiesa d'Oriente celebrava questa ricorrenza fin dai primi secoli. La Chiesa di Roma e dell'Occidente introdussero questa Festa nel VI e VII secolo e più tardi si introdusse una solenne processione illuminata da candele come espressione di purificazione dai peccati per offrire a Dio un sacrificio puro e santo dei fedeli. Perciò acquistò anche un'espressione penitenziale. Al centro della celebrazione vediamo Gesù offerto al Padre e anticipo della sua offerta obbediente sulla croce per la nostra salvezza, e la madre Maria che si unisce al mistero della missione del figlio che porterà anche lei sul Calvario ai piedi di Gesù morente in croce. La celebrazione della Presentazione diventa così l'inizio e un anticipo della dolorosa celebrazione del Venerdì Santo e il sacrificio di Cristo morto per la nostra salvezza. L'aspetto luminoso di questa celebrazione è la realizzazione profetizzata dal santo Simeone che questo bambino "Sarà luce per illuminare le genti e gloria di risurrezione per molti". Anna, dedicata alla preghiera nel tempio, anche lei "Si mise a lodare Dio" profetizzando che il bambino avrebbe portato la salvezza "a quanti aspettavano la redenzione di Gesurusalemme". La celebrazione del sacrificio eucaristico in cui ora partecipiamo è la continuazione nel tempo e la realizzazione dell'offerta che Cristo fa di sé stesso per la nostra salvezza. La benedizione delle candele diventi un richiamo che anche noi ci dobbiamo "consumare" in un sacrificio di obbedienza a Dio e così unirli al sacrificio di Cristo per ottenere la gloria della nostra salvezza.

Tu sei la mia vita, altro io no ho, tu sei la mia strada, la mia verità, Nella tua parola, io camminerò Finchè avrò respiro fino a quando tu vorrai Non avrò paura, sai, se tu sei con me. Io ti prego resta con me.
Credo in te Signore, nato da Maria, Figlio eterno e santo, uomo come noi, Morto per amore vivo in mezzo a noi Una cosa sola, con il Padre e con i tuoi, Fino a quando, io lo so, tu ritornerai, Per aprirci il Regno di Dio.
Tu sei la mia forza, altro io no ho. Tu sei la mi pace, la mia libertà. Niente nella vita ci separerà, So che la tua mano forte non mi lascerà So che da ogni male, Tu mi libererai E nel tuo perdono vivrò.

Fine: SANTA MARIA DEL CAMMINO
Mentre trascorre la vita, solo tu non sei mai Santa Maria del cammino, sempre sarà con te.
Vieni o Madre in mezzo a noi vieni Maria quaggiù cammineremo insieme a te verso la libertà.
