MOVIE NIGHT: PRIDE

Friday 24 August, 7–10pm

Campion Centre of Ignatian Spirituality, 99 Studley Park Road, Kew

Realising that they share common foes in Margaret Thatcher, the police and conservative press, London-based gay and lesbian activists lend their support to striking miners in Wales in 1984. Based on a true story, this movie highlights the compassion and courage of the young activists in confronting injustice and persevering through rejection, prejudice and misunderstanding to gain acceptance, friendship and respect. What has been gained in the past three decades and what are the opportunities and challenges today? After enjoying the movie we will have some light refreshments followed by a reflective discussion.

REBUILDING AND RENEWAL AFTER THE ROYAL COMMISSION

Monday 27 to Wednesday 29 August

Wyselaskie Auditorium, Uniting Church Centre for Theology and Ministry, 29 College Crescent, Parkville

The University of Divinity presents this conference, titled 'Health and integrity in Church and ministry'. This conference aims to bring together a broad cross-section of voices—Church leaders, academics, people in religious and pastoral ministry and representatives of Church agencies—together with those who rarely get a voice, including survivors of abuse and their supporters, members of the laity, women, and Church reform groups. In order to promote a broad level of participation, attendance is free. Lunch and morning and afternoon tea will be provided. More than 30 expert speakers will attend and present.

PLENARY COUNCIL 2020 FINAL INFORMATION SESSION

Thursday 30 August, 7.30–9.30pm

St Francis Xavier, 86 Mayona Road, Montmorency

Since the official launch of the journey toward the Plenary Council 2020 earlier this year, many parishes have become engaged in the listening and dialogue process. Other parishes are seeking support to become involved in the process and about what resources are available. To assist parishes, the Archbishop's Office for Evangelisation has been hosting a number of information sessions throughout August. These sessions offer an overview of the Plenary process and ways that people can take part in this listening and dialogue phase. All are welcome to join us for the final session on Thursday 30 August.

Hosted by the Diamond Valley Deanery and Yarra Deanery.

CENTENARY CONCERTS AT THE BASILICA, CENTENARY ORGAN RECITAL: PROFESSOR WOLFGANG CHAPEK

Friday 31 August, 7.30pm

Basilica of Our Lady of Victories, 548 Burke Road, Camberwell

Camberwell's iconic Our Lady of Victories Basilica this year celebrates the centenary of its opening in October 1918. One of Melbourne's ecclesiastical and architectural gems, the Basilica was dedicated in honour of the fallen of the Great War (1914–1918). Professor Wolfgang Chapek is Professor of Organ at the University of Music in Vienna, Austria and one of Europe's leading organists and pedagogues. He is Principal Organist of the famous Augustine Church in Vienna, and a virtuoso concert career has seen him perform across Europe, Asia and North America. The Basilica's notable 1920 Magahy organ will be put through its paces in a dazzling concert. This is one performance you will not want to miss!

CARE OF CREATION: A QUIET PRAYER DAY

Saturday 1 September, 10am–3pm

Campion Centre of Ignatian Spirituality, 99 Studley Park Road, Kew

Pope Francis has joined with Patriarch Bartholomew of the Eastern Orthodox Church to declare 1 September each year as a World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation. This day offers 'individual believers and communities a fitting opportunity to reaffirm their personal vocation to the stewards of creations' (Pope Francis). Participants are invited to a quiet day of prayer to reflect again on our connection with Creation and the presence that is God in all of it. How are we being invited to live with Creation today?

PRAYER MORNINGS: TREASURING OUR LATER YEARS, BY NICOLE ROTARU RSM

Tuesdays 4, 18 and 25 September; 9, 23 and 30 October, 10.30am–12.30pm

Library, Campion Centre of Ignatian Spirituality, 99 Studley Park Road, Kew

These contemplative prayer mornings invite you to be awake to the new chances and possibilities offered daily. During our days together we will ponder themes that take on special significance in our later years: awakening to new possibilities in my life now; spirituality; what gives my life meaning; relationships; gratitude; death; and mystery. Our conversations will be a time of recognising the richness of our journey to 'now', the wisdom we have gained, our capacity to adapt to the changes occurring in us and a deepening of our awareness of God's presence.

FORUM FOR PARISHES: POPE FRANCIS' LAUDATO SI'

Saturday 15 September, 9am–1pm

Catholic Parish of Greater Box Hill, St Francis Xavier Church, 1087 Whitehorse Road, Box Hill

Since Pope Francis' encyclical was addressed 'to all people on the planet' in 2015, parishes have been challenged to put it into practice. How are we to achieve a change of heart, and how we are to treat each other better, especially those on the margins? You are invited to join other parishes to address what steps parishes can take to respond to the Pope's letter and improve our care for our common home, the Earth, what resources are available, and how parishes can help each other in responding to the Pope's call.
