Any parishioner who cannot attend Mass due to illness and would like to receive Communion is asked to contact the parish office.

Open to Compassion

When Isaiah described the signs by which the Messiah would be recognised, he identified those people who were isolated from society by their physical afflictions. He portrayed a Messiah who released them from those afflictions and allowed them to re-enter society. That is what Jesus did time and time again. In the healing of the deaf and dumb man, Jesus called on all those around him to also be opened—that their hearts may be opened to compassion. Jesus calls to us through today's gospel to also be open to compassion and open to the needs of those around us.

UPCOMING EVENTS AT THE CAMPION RETREAT CENTRE - Campion Centre of Ignatian Spirituality is a place of hospitality, rest, welcome and prayer. We offer programs and retreats, which are steeped in the spirituality of Saint Ignatius of Loyola (1491-1556). Ignatian spirituality is about finding God in all things. To put this in other words, this means finding purpose, meaning, light and joy in everything that crosses my path of life. Relationships, events, my feelings, what happens to me are all vehicles for God to lead me towards a richer life.

- ◆ Fri 14 Sep, 7pm—Sun 16 Sep, 3pm—Prodigal Son Retreat. Ann Priestly RSM, Annmaree Sutton -Using this parable of mercy, we can see ourselves as God's prodigal children and we can come to understand more deeply our actions, reactions and emotions as we grow in our desire for an intimate relationship with God.
- ◆ Sunday 7 Oct, 10am-3pm Come & See—A prayer day by Christian Life Community Group. Recognising need for stillness and silence in our crowded life, this day offers time and space to discern how God is speaking to us in our lives.
- ◆ Tuesday 9 October 10am—4pm; Treasuring our Later Years. A reflection day with Nicole Rotaru RSM. Ageing offers opportunities to be awake to the new chances and possibilities offered daily.
- ◆ Fri 12 Oct, 7pm-Sun 14 Oct, 3pm; Women's Spirituality weekend by Jacinta Bright and Terry Fanning. This weekend for women will honour and celebrate your life so far and will help you to find meaning in the next part of your journey. Drawing from stories of women in scripture we reflect on our own life and discern where God might be leading us.
- ◆ Friday October 26, 9.30am-3.30pm; Ignatian Ministry in the 21st Century. Andy and Sarah Otto. A presentation for youth ministers, chaplains and spiritual directors. This workshop explores how those ministering to young adults can use social media and the web to attract interest and promote spiritual events for those unconnected to a church or faith tradition.

Exploring the Word -Be Opened! 'Sometimes I should stop rushing around and realise that I rarely hear birds singing.'

We are all so busy. Our minds stay pretty focused on the new task or appointment. And we miss the birds. And we may miss other cries as well – the cries of people who need us.

"Be opened!" Jesus commands in this week's Gospel. He restores a man's hearing and gives him the power to speak. I wonder what that man heard after that. I bet he heard the sighs of lonely people who needed his time. I bet he stopped and sat with them. I bet he heard pleas of hunger from poor people. I bet he stopped and fed them. I bet he heard the cries of people who were rejected or suffering. I bet he stopped and embraced them.

Many people in our families, our schools, our jobs, and our world need our ears opened. Many don't want our advice. They just want us to listen without judgement while they talk about what hurts. Others need us to stand up with and for them at school or in our community. They need us to listen closely to understand their problems. Others, like parents and mentors, are crying to offer us advice for life. They need us to listen to their wisdom without getting defensive.

Do we hear the cries or advice as we go through life? Or do we rush so quickly that we miss them? This week, each day, ask Jesus to open your ears so you can listen closely. People will come across your path who need you to listen, or to whom you need to listen.

First Reading Is 35:4-7

Then the ears of the deaf shall be opened and the tongues of the dumb speak.

Say to all faint hearts,
 'Courage! Do not be afraid.
 'Look, your God is coming,
 vengeance is coming,
 the retribution of God;
 he is coming to save you.'
 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
 the ears of the deaf unsealed,
 then the lame shall leap like a deer
 and the tongues of the dumb sing for joy;
 for water gushes in the desert,
 streams in the wasteland,
 the scorched earth becomes a lake,
 the parched land springs of water.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 145:7-10. R. v.1

(R.) Praise the Lord, my soul!

or:

(R.) Alleluia!

1. It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever,
 who is just to those who are oppressed.
 It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
 the Lord, who sets prisoners free. (R.)
2. It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind,
 who raises up those who are
 bound down,
 the Lord who loves the just,
 the Lord, who protects the stranger. (R.)
3. The Lord upholds the widow and orphan,
 but thwarts the path of the wicked.
 The Lord will reign for ever,
 Zion's God, from age to age. (R.)

Second Reading Jas 2:1-5

Has not God chosen the poor of the world to inherit the kingdom?

My brothers, do not try to combine faith in Jesus Christ, our glorified Lord, with the making of distinctions between classes of people. Now suppose a man comes into your synagogue, beautifully dressed and with a gold ring on, and at the same time a poor man comes in, in shabby clothes, and you take notice of the well-dressed man, and say, 'Come this way to the best seats'; then you tell the poor man, 'Stand over there' or 'You can sit on the floor by my foot-rest.' Can't you see that you have used two different standards in your mind, and turned yourselves into judges, and corrupt judges at that?

Listen, my dear brothers: it was those who are poor according to the world that God chose, to be rich in faith and to be the heirs to the kingdom which he promised to those who love him.

Gospel Acclamation Mt 4:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus preached the Good News of the kingdom

and healed all who were sick.

Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 7:31-37

He makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.

Returning from the district of Tyre, Jesus went by way of Sidon towards the sea of Galilee, right through the Decapolis region. And they brought him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they asked him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, put his fingers into the man's ears and touched his tongue with spittle. Then looking up to heaven he sighed; and he said to him, 'Ephphatha,' that is, 'Be opened.' And his ears were opened, and the ligament of his tongue was loosened and he spoke clearly. And Jesus ordered them to tell no one about it, but the more he insisted, the more widely they published it. Their admiration was unbounded. 'He has done all things well,' they said 'he makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.'

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate

As we began to welcome the Gospel, we made the sign of the Cross on our foreheads, on our lips and over our hearts. It is meant to be accompanied by the thought: 'May the Gospel be in my mind, on my lips, and in my heart.' It wouldn't be enough to mentally recite that little prayer. We have to do something physical.

Jesus could not have been more physical than in the story of today's Gospel. He stuck his fingers in the man's ears and touched the man's tongue with spittle, saying the Aramaic word 'Ephphatha', 'Be opened'.

Our Lord could have healed this man with a simple prayer. But he acknowledged the sheer physicality of the person to be cured. We are not angels, but ensouled bodies and that is how our Lord particularly related to this man in need of healing.

It is in the sacrament of Baptism that we imitate the Ephphatha incident in today's Gospel. At one stage, the priest lightly touches the ears and then lightly touches the mouth of the person being baptised. This brings the baptised person into a community formed by hearing and speaking the Word in faith.

We could take a moment to recall the Ephphatha dimension of our baptism. Take your thumb and lightly touch your ears (a parent could do this for an infant) making a prayer along the lines of our baptism: 'The Lord Jesus made the deaf hear and the mute speak. May He again touch my ears to receive His Word and my mouth to proclaim His faith to the glory and praise of God the Father. Amen.'
