Any parishioner who cannot attend Mass due to illness and would like to receive Communion is asked to contact the parish office.

Last of All?

Jesus tells his disciples that if anyone wants to be first, they must make themselves last of all and servant of all. This is as challenging to us today as it was to the disciples and early Christians. Our world seems to revolve around position, status and power—whoever has the most toys wins! But what Jesus advocated was a leadership based on being of service to others. Being powerful simply means you are in a position to help even more people. By putting yourself last, instead of first, gives respect, dignity and power to others rather than to yourself.

What's Happening in St Mary's Parish?

Vision Statement "To be a vibrant Christian community engaging with the world"

PARISH BULLETIN NOTICES Please note—The deadline for notices this coming week will be Tuesday 25th September due to Friday being a public holiday. Thank you for your cooperation. Parish Office.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD In this increasingly busy world, it is important for children to find quiet, prayerful time for reflection on their faith. Given this, a Children's Liturgy of the Word Group is being formed to give children the opportunity to have this silent space away from distractions for prayer and to gain knowledge of the gospel. We are looking for anyone with a desire to help children to come forward and help run the liturgy sessions during Mass time. Training will be provided and you would be working in pairs. If you are interested please email Jacinta.bright@cam.org.au or contact the Parish Office.

PROJECT COMPASSION APPEAL Dear people of the Archdiocese of Melbourne, I wish to thank you very sincerely for the wonderful and generous response you gave to the Caritas Australia Project Compassion 2018 appeal 'For a Just Future'. The Catholic community of Melbourne donated $1,514,019 to the appeal – a major contribution to supporting the poorest of the poor in the over 25 countries where Caritas Australia supports programs. Across Australia the appeal raised around $10.8 million, money that will make a real difference in lifting people out of poverty, and giving many the opportunity to build secure lives, free from poverty and hunger. Since the end of the Project Compassion 2018 campaign Caritas Australia has continued, with your generous help, to provide assistance to those areas hit by disasters like the flooding in Kerala, India, and Typhoon Manghkut in the Philippines, as well as ongoing development work. Again, thanks for your help in enabling Caritas Australia to be the gospel in action. (Deacon) Jim Curtain, Caritas Australia Diocesan Director, Archdiocese of Melbourne

ST MARY'S PARISH LIBRARY Many thanks to those who generously donated copies of Melbourne Catholic to the Library. 2017 and 2018 are now complete. We are just missing a few from 2016, and would be grateful for copies.. Thank you. Library Committee.

WANTED: A carpenter or a person with carpentry skills to construct a replacement IT cabinet for the church. The current one has served us well, but new equipment needing to be installed does not fit the one in the church now. A replica of the one at St. Thomas church is required. I am happy to discuss price for its construction. Please contact the parish office. Fr. Steven.

SOCIAL JUSTICE NEWS—HOMELESSNESS IN AUSTRALIA PSALM 9:18

Social Justice Sunday is 30th September. For 2018/2019, the Australian Bishops' Social Justice Statement is called:

There will always be some who are poor and in need, and so I command you to be generous to them"

In the Social Justice Statement for 2018/2019

'A place to call home: making a home for everyone in our land'.

We are reminded that safe and secure housing is a human right, asserted both by the Church's social teaching and by the Declaration of Human Rights. -

On Social Justice Sunday there will be a leaving collection for St Vincent de Paul Society' work. The money will be used to support families struggling to make ends meet and so we will help keep them from becoming homeless.

The Statement is available from the piety stall (for a gold coin) and can be downloaded at

The Greatest Prayer by John Dominic Crossan 226.9606 CRO The Lord's Prayer is the only prayer that we have from Jesus himself. Very often we recite this prayer not giving too much attention to what we are actually saying. When was the last time you really ever thought of "hallowed be Thy name" or "lead us not into temptation"? Well, if you are interested in learning more about the Lord's Prayer in an easy to read friendly volume then look no further. *Borrow from our library. Pope Francis @Pontifex Let us deal with climate change through international cooperation:

each person's choices have repercussions on the life of everyone.

First Reading Wis 2:12, 17-20

Let us condemn him to a most shameful death.

The godless say to themselves,

'Let us lie in wait for the virtuous man,
since he annoys us
and opposes our way of life, reproaches us for our breaches of the law
and accuses us of playing false to our upbringing.

Let us see if what he says is true,
let us observe what kind of end he himself will have.

If the virtuous man is God's son,
God will take his part
and rescue him from the clutches of his enemies.

Let us test him with cruelty and
with torture,

and thus explore this gentleness of his
and put his endurance to the proof.

Let us condemn him to a shameful death
since he will be looked after – we have his word for it.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 53:3-6. 8. R. v.6

(R.) The Lord upholds my life.

1. O God, save me by your name;
by your power, uphold my cause.
O God, hear my prayers;
listen to the words of my mouth. (R.)
2. For proud men have risen against me, ruthless men seek my life.
They have no regard for God. (R.)
3. But I have God for my help.
The Lord upholds my life.
I will sacrifice to you with willing heart
and praise your name for it is good. (R.)

Second Reading Jas 3:16-4:3

Justice is the harvest of peacemakers from seeds sown in a spirit of peace.

Wherever you find jealousy and ambition,
you find disharmony, and wicked things of every kind being done; whereas the wisdom that comes down from above is essentially something pure; it also makes for peace,
and is kindly and considerate; it is full of compassion and shows itself by doing good; nor is there any trace of partiality or hypocrisy in it. Peacemakers, when they work for peace, sow the seeds which will bear fruit in holiness.

Where do these wars and battles between yourselves first start? Isn't it precisely in the desires fighting inside your own selves?
You want something and you haven't got it; so you are prepared to kill. You have an ambition that you cannot satisfy; so you fight to get your way by force. Why you don't have what you want is because you don't pray for it; when you do pray and don't get it,
it is because you have not prayed properly,
you have prayed for something to indulge
your own desires.

Gospel Acclamation See 2 Thes 2:14

Alleluia, alleluia!

*God has called us with the gospel
to share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.*

Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 9:30-37

*The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of humanity
... All who wish to be first must make themselves the servants of all.*

After leaving the mountain Jesus and his disciples made their way through Galilee;
and he did not want anyone to know,
because he was instructing his disciples;
he was telling them, 'The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men; they will put him to death; and three days after he has been put to death he will rise again.'
But they did not understand what he said
and were afraid to ask him.

They came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the road?'
They said nothing because they had been arguing which of them was the greatest. So he sat down, called the Twelve to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all.'
He then took a little child, set him in front of them, put his arms round him, and said to them, 'Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in my name, welcomes me;
and anyone who welcomes me welcomes
not me but the one who sent me.'

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate

Jesus was well aware of the constant temptation for the leaders amongst his followers to be conditioned by the surrounding social and political structures. So, when he became aware that his disciples were disputing 'who is the greatest', he decided to teach them a lesson by engaging in some counter-cultural street theatre.

Jesus saw a young boy on the edge of the crowd and beckoned him into the middle of his group of disciples. This was not because of some sentimental idea that all kids are little innocents, but because in his society, children were absolutely at the bottom of the social scale. Jesus moved an utter nobody from the margins of society to the centre, challenging his disciples to change their perspective.

This challenge is made to all of us. We must identify those on the margins, some of whom we have quite literally dis-located like indigenous communities or asylum seekers, and bring them into the centre of our concern. There may be pain, personal and social, in changing perspective.

We might pause for a moment to pray for a new way of seeing, for perseverance in re-locating someone in the centre of our concerns, for the graceful insight that in welcoming that person we have welcomed Christ.
