A Miracle of Sharing

Some scripture scholars suggest that the real miracle of the feeding of the multitude was not so much a multiplication of meagre resources by Jesus but rather a personal response by individuals within the crowd. It is suggested that upon seeing the willingness of Jesus (and the small boy whose food it was) to share the small amount of food available, everyone dug into their pockets and pulled out the small amount of food they also had and shared it with one another. The miracle was a breaking through from selfishness and isolation to a spirit of sharing and community.

A BROKEN CHURCH IN A BROKEN WORLD - A REFLECTION DAY In response to comments made in the recent parish survey, and through various other interactions, revealing feelings of disappointment, shock, humiliation and anger at the revelations of the Royal Commission into Institutional Abuse, noticing also a certain malaise in the Church and sensing a mixture of concern and desperate hope for what our Church might become in the future, in a world which seems to be increasingly fearful and divided – this reflection day invites us to honour and name feelings like shame, concern or fear, and despair or hope as important insights and to be open to the Spirit who is already at work in the mess. How might we cooperate with God in transforming the Church so that we become the Body of Christ; a broken Body in a broken world?
Sat Aug 4; 10.00am -3.30pm; at St Thomas the Apostle church, North Greensborough. Facilitator: Jacinta Bright our Pastoral Associate and also a Spiritual Director. SUPPORT NEEDED for Asylum Seekers Many have been receiving an allowance of $45 per day while waiting for their application decision. They were not allowed to work. The Government has changed that. It has started to send letters to many, saying that in four weeks time their allowance will be stopped and they must find work. Many will be unable to do so. The Asylum Seeker Resource Centre will now have greater demands on their services. Can you please help with Food and Toiletries? Ellen Smiddy - 9435 5145. Social Justice Group INITIATIVES INVOLVING CHILDREN AT MASS—One of the actions to arise from responses given in the Parish Survey and other conversations, either from parents of young children wanting a connection to Mass but not quite getting there, or from others who miss the presence of young families at Mass, is to provide a special ministry for young families. If you are interested in assisting, please contact the Parish Office. One initiative we will start with is to create a special place for children in our music ministry.

Music: At first we will trial this initiative twice a month; once at 6.30pm Mass on a Saturday and once at 10.00am Mass on a Sunday. Children will be asked to come over near the choir and musician's area and to take one of the musical instruments provided in the box and help make the final hymn as joyful as possible, by joining in the music. The dates for this coming month of August are Saturday night the 4th of August at 6.30pm and on Sunday the 12th of August at 10.00am.

Children's Liturgy of the Word we have tried earlier to introduce Children's Liturgy of the Word, but for some reason it didn't continue. We would love to provide this experience for children. It involves the children going into another room, just before the readings, with leaders who would explore what the readings are in a way that children understand, using activities and other various means. The children then return to the parents in the church after the Liturgy of the Word. We would really like to introduce this ministry again, but we need adults who would be interested in helping us. Mary Ryan from the Archdiocese is very happy to come out and help us get set up and to provide training. I am hoping we could introduce Children's Liturgy of the Word at the same Masses in which we have the children's music and that we have enough volunteers to have a roster so that maybe you would only be needed once a month – or more if you would like. If you would like to help, please contact Jacinta Bright at the parish office – Jacinta.bright@cam.org.au or 9435 1543.

Take Home Gospel Activity Sheets for Children have been provided in previous times and over a long time, but this practice was stopped as no one took the sheets. Following a request, we will try it again, giving a two months trial. Perhaps this notice will alert parents that they are there. These will be available on the table in between the internal glass doors into the church.

Is there more to life than this? Who is Jesus? Why Did Jesus Die? Have you wondered about the meaning of life? Join us for a journey of discovery exploring this and many of the big questions. Church Gathering space, 7.00pm this Tuesday commencing with a light meal, followed by short video and small group discussion. To assist with catering, please contact Jo Giudice on 0411 045 572 to register or just turn up. You will be made welcome.

ST. IGNATIUS LOYOLA (FEAST DAY 31 JULY) born 1491 into a Spanish family of minor nobility. As a young man he was inflamed by ideals of courtly love and knighthood and dreamed of doing great deeds. In 1521, while recuperating from a grave battle wound, Ignatius experienced a conversion. Reading the lives of Jesus and the saints made him happy and brought desires to do great things. He realized these feelings were clues to God's direction for him. Over the years, Ignatius became expert in the art of spiritual direction. He collected his insights, prayers, and suggestions in his book the Spiritual Exercises, one of the most influential books on the spiritual life ever written.

SOME IMPORTANT INSIGHTS:

We are very well aware of the diminished numbers joining us to celebrate the Eucharist on a Sunday. These numbers have been dropping for a long time now. We often have suggestions about how to attract young people back to Mass, but any such initiatives would be superficial and have no long lasting effect unless we listen to not only what our young people are saying, but also to what many people in the Church are saying much the same today.

In 2015, Australian Catholic University surveyed 5000 young people, asking them two questions. The responses indicate that young people want a Church of integrity, joy and love.

Surely, this is how Jesus called his followers to be, for each other and the world.

What were the four things that young people were looking for in the Church?

- A compassionate community, especially for the poor.
- A listening church, especially to their experience of the world.
- A welcoming, inclusive and joyful community.
- A community that practices what it preaches

What came in as the five major blocks to belonging to the Church and participating in it?

- The sexual abuse of children by clergy: hypocrisy.
- The lifeless liturgies and poor preaching they experience.
- Lack of women's leadership
- Negative attitudes to sexuality (including homophobia & celibacy)
- The image of God: how could a good and loving God allow suffering in the world?

We may or may not agree with these points. The important thing is that we are under no illusion as to the importance of taking stock and this means listening whole heartedly to the Holy Spirit in our own hearts and the hearts of others, who speak boldly and in love. This time in history is vital for the Church and we need each other to engage in the work of the Holy Spirit.

The eight great calls of Pope Francis to the Church

- Obedience (Obedire: to listen to God, the actual situation, the tradition of the church, other experts informed conscience)
- Love: "Character is what you do when no one is looking"
- Compassion
- Care of the earth
- Humility
- Gratitude
- Forgiveness
- Joy

Soul Sisters Presents

THE WHITE HELMETS—PLEASE NOTE CORRECT DATE –THURSDAY 2ND AUGUST

A short documentary set in Aleppo, Syria and Turkey in early 2016. As the violence intensified, The White Helmets follows three volunteer rescue workers as they put everything on the line to save civilians affected by the war, all the while wracked with worry about the safety of their own loved ones. Moving and inspiring, The White Helmets is both a snapshot of the harrowing realities of life for ordinary Syrians who remain in the country, and a humbling portrait of the power of the human Spirit.

In Aleppo, the most important thing to remember is that all life is precious. The White Helmets search for survivors among the wreckage as bombs continue to fall. These ordinary men are extraordinary heroes

As daily airstrikes pounded civilian targets in Syria, a group of indomitable first responders risked their lives to rescue victims from the rubble. Oscar nominated director, Orlando Von Einsiedel, follows the perilous work of volunteers who braved falling bombs to rescue civilians from the carnage of Syria's civil war.

When: Thursday 2nd August

Time: 7pm

Venue: St Mary's Church Gathering Space

We look forward to viewing this video, enjoying wine, cheese, conversation, friendship and an insight into the selflessness and compassion and courage of these people.

A BRIEF OVERVIEW OF ST MARY'S PARISH COUNCIL MEETING HELD ON JULY 12TH 2018

On July 12th 2018, Our Parish Pastoral Council convened. Kristel Roxas led our opening prayer as we listened and reflected on the Word of God through John 14: 15-31 The Promise of the Holy Spirit. Nine of us gathered for a full agenda, which invoked lively discussion. There were three main focus areas for the evening:

- ◆ the Australian Plenary Council 2020,
- ◆ Our response to the NE link project and further discussion, and
- ◆ Reflection on responses to the recent Parish survey.

The Plenary Council 2020 – the council identified a number of council members who will meet in the short term to brainstorm options for engaging and listening to our community. How will we best elicit our community's answers to the question, "What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?" It's also worth subscribing to the Plenary website for updates:-

<http://plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au>

North East link project - The PPC identified the importance of coordinated response from St Mary's to the North East Link Authority. The council determined that the Strategic Planning Committee (SPC) might be best positioned to do this. Kristel Roxas will take this to the next SPC meeting for discussion.

Parish Survey responses - Prior to the meeting, all council members received a copy of collated responses to the recently completed Parish survey. There was considerable discussion on the content, themes and what's next? With newly appointed councilors present, we continue to discern our next steps.

And finally to mention, our PPC Deputy Chairperson was nominated and appointed – Lauren Hartigan. Thanks Lauren.

Sue Hollowood. On behalf of St Mary's PPC.

First Reading 2 Kgs 4:42-44

They will eat and have some left over.

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing Elisha, the man of God, bread from the first-fruits, twenty barley loaves and fresh grain in the ear. 'Give it to the people to eat,' Elisha said. But his servant replied, 'How can I serve this to a hundred men?' 'Give it to the people to eat' he insisted 'for the Lord says this, "They will eat and have some left over."' He served them; they ate and had some over, as the Lord had said.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 144:10-11, 15-18. R. v.16

(R.) The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

1. All your creatures shall thank you,
O Lord,
and your friends shall repeat their blessing.
They shall speak of the glory of your reign
and declare your might, O God. (R.)
2. The eyes of all creatures look to you and you give them their food in due time.
You open wide your hand,
grant the desires of all who live. (R.)
3. The Lord is just in all his ways and loving in all his deeds.
He is close to all who call him,
who call on him from their hearts. (R.)

Second Reading Eph 4:1-6

There is one body, one Lord, one faith, one baptism.

I, the prisoner in the Lord, implore you to lead a life worthy of your vocation. Bear with one another charitably, in complete selflessness, gentleness and patience. Do all you can to preserve the unity of the Spirit by the peace that binds you together. There is one Body, one Spirit, just as you were all called into one and the same hope when you were called. There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, and one God who is Father of all, through all and within all.

Gospel Acclamation Lk 7:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people.

Alleluia!

Gospel Jn 6:1-15

He distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted.

Jesus went off to the other side of the Sea of Galilee – or of Tiberias – and a large crowd followed him, impressed by the signs he gave by curing the sick. Jesus climbed the hillside, and sat down there with his disciples. It was shortly before the Jewish feast of Passover.

Looking up, Jesus saw the crowds approaching and said to Philip, 'Where can we buy some bread for these people to eat?' He only said this to test Philip; he himself knew exactly what he was going to do. Philip answered, 'Two hundred denarii would only buy enough to give them a small piece each.' One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said, 'There is a small boy here with five barley loaves and two fish; but what is that between so many?' Jesus said to them, 'Make the people sit down.' There was plenty of grass there, and as many as five thousand men sat down. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks and gave them out to all who were sitting ready; he then did the same with the fish, giving out as much as was wanted. When they had eaten enough he said to the disciples, 'Pick up the pieces left over, so that nothing gets wasted.' So they picked them up, and filled twelve hampers with scraps left over from the meal of five barley loaves. The people, seeing this sign that he had given, said, 'This really is the prophet who is to come into the world.' Jesus, who could see they were about to come and take him by force and make him king, escaped back to the hills by himself.

Reflection by Greg Sunter

In the readings for Ordinary Time, we take a break from the sequence of readings from the Gospel of Mark for a few weeks and this week's reading begins a diversion into chapter 6 of the Gospel of John. The whole of John 6 is an extended discourse that explores the image of Jesus as the Bread of Life. The chapter and the discourse begin with this week's miraculous feeding of the multitude. As this event occurs in each of the four gospels there is a compelling argument that there is some basis in fact or, at the very least, that the metaphoric image of Jesus feeding a crowd was an enduring one in Christian communities.

Jesus is described as testing the disciples, asking them where they might be able to purchase bread for the crowd. Phillip is overwhelmed at the thought of spending a fortune on enough bread for more than 5,000 people. A small boy nearby had a few loaves of bread and a couple of fish. Jesus took the bread and fish, gave thanks and then had the disciples begin to distribute the food. When everyone had eaten their fill, the disciples collected twelve hampers of leftovers. Some commentators suggest that the twelve baskets represent the twelve tribes of Israel – indicating that the message of Jesus will be enough to feed and sustain the whole of Israel. Having witnessed this miracle the people have a sudden insight into who they think Jesus might be – the promised Messiah come to free them from their Roman oppressors. Wary of the crowd's mistaken understanding of what the Messiah is to be, Jesus literally heads for the hills to avoid being made a political figurehead for the people.
