Our Partnered Parishes respectfully acknowledge the Wurundjeri people who are the traditional custodians of this land and we pay respect to the Elders past and present.

PARTNERED PARISHES NEWS

The Partnered Parishes THINK AND BREATHE Child Safety – KEEP CHILDREN SAFE.

With the return of families at our Masses and as our toilets are out of view, parental supervision of your children is required while using the facilities.

From time to time, behaviour management strategies may be required to:

ensure a safe, positive and effective environment, ensure the safety and wellbeing of children and young people, manage disruptive behaviour.

Clergy, employees and volunteers must use fair, respectful and age and developmentally appropriate strategies. The child or young person is to be provided with clear direction and be given an opportunity to redirect their behaviour in a positive manner.

A MESSAGE FROM Fr STEVEN RIGO

Dear Parishioners,

As you may be aware, I have been away on vacation and travelling quite near, through Western Victoria and South Australia and have spent some time on Kangaroo Island with friends. I have also spent some time with family and have completed my vacation with a week at Bright with my mother. I am due back for the first weekend of July.

Earlier in June I also participated in the annual Melbourne Clergy Conference at Cape Schanck together with Martin Tanti and over 145 priests, deacons and diocesan staff.

The title of the Conference for this year was: "Exploring the Dimensions of Mission - Understanding Our Call".

Several interesting presenters and workshop leaders engaged us in exploring the central point that our reason for being Church is to continue the mission of Jesus Christ who liberates us to extend the love of God for the world. We are all called by our baptism to work collaboratively with one another to go out and make disciples, remembering that Christ remains with us to empower us for this task.

I look forward to exploring the ways we can do this together.

Steven.

GREENSBOROUGH CONFERENCE ST. VINCENT DE PAUL 2022 WINTER APPEAL

This year's Appeal will be officially launched on the weekend of 2/3 July. As the price of food increases and we have to watch what we buy, we are mindful of those in our community who always have to watch what they spend on food as their income is so limited. That is where we at the Greensborough Vinnies Conference come in, providing food vouchers to tide our families over until their next pay day. We are therefore seeking the kind assistance of the St Mary's and St. Thomas' Community to give what you can afford to enable us to purchase these vouchers and other basic essentials.

- Appeal envelopes will be provided on the ends of the seats and at the back of the Church - they can then be placed in the 2nd Collection on the above weekend or soon after.
- Credit card donations can be arranged by calling 03 9895 5959 and stating you are donating to the Greensborough Conference
- Donations can be made online via vinnies.org.au – please make sure you include Greensborough in the 'Comments/Conference Name' section

UPDATED COVID-19 GUIDELINES 22nd APRIL

IT IS NOT MANDATORY TO WEAR A FACE MASK IT IS ONLY RECOMMENDED.

Close contacts of positive cases are to wear face coverings indoors, and to avoid "sensitive" or group settings. It is still recommended to wear a Face Covering when social distancing cannot be maintained over a period of time.

It is recommended that those who distribute Holy Communion continue to wear a Face Covering and sanitise their hands before doing so.

In accordance with the guidelines from the Archdiocese, Hand Sanitiser is still available in our Churches.

All Catholics in Melbourne continue to be dispensed from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass until further directed by the Archbishop.

TODAY IS ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER SUNDAY AND THE START OF NAIDOC WEEK

National NAIDOC Week celebrations are held across Australia in the first week of July each year (Sunday 3 July to Sunday 10 July), to celebrate and recognise the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. NAIDOC Week is an opportunity for all Australians to learn about First Nations cultures and histories and participate in celebrations of the oldest, continuous living cultures on earth.

Message from NATSICC (National Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council):

"Every year on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday, Catholics from across Australia come together to acknowledge and celebrate the gifts of Australia's First Peoples. This year our theme challenges us all into action. The Harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few. Get up! Stand up! Show up! As you help us celebrate this special day on the Liturgical Calendar, we ask you to listen to us, stand with us and walk with us on our journey for change. Your support is vital to help us in amplifying our messages to our leaders to generate meaningful change! It is our dream that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and non-Indigenous Catholics come together in every Catholic Parish and School in this great Southern land as one people in Christ."

PLENARY COUNCIL

The 4 year journey of the Plenary Council will culminate next week when the 277 members gather in Sydney. We're invited to continue to surround the members with prayer.

"The key document that will guide the work of the second assembly is the Framework for Motions, which was published in early June. It contains about 30 motions that all Council Members will discern and vote on.

The outcome of the votes will be announced during the assembly. See www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au Livestream: All Masses during the second assembly will be livestreamed. The Opening Mass on Sunday 3rd July will be at 5pm.

Monday 4th-Thursdays 6th July Masses will be celebrated at 6.00 pm. Friday 8 July Mass will be at 7.30 am.

The Closing of the Plenary Council Mass will be on July 9 at 10.30 am.

"The opening session each day will also be livestreamed" beginning each morning at 8.30 am on Monday 4th-Thursdays 7th July.

On Friday 8 July the opening session will begin about 9.10 am.

"The livestream will be accessible on the Plenary Council website's home page www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au and the Plenary Council YouTube channel

In addition to watching the livestreamed Masses, parishes and other Catholic communities around the country can celebrate Masses and other liturgies using the same prayers, readings and hymns as those being used at the Plenary Council.

Share Your Prayer and Hopes

Visit www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au to send a message of prayer and support to the Plenary Council members.

Plenary Council Prayer

*Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost
Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.
O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council.
Give us the courage to tell our stories and speak boldly of your truth.
Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.
Lead your Church into a hope-filled future,
that we may live the joy of the Gospel.
Through Jesus Christ our Lord,
bread for the journey from age to age. Amen.
Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us.
St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.*

COVID-19 IMPLICATIONS FOR THE CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF MELBOURNE

INFORMATION UPDATED: 23 JUNE 2022, 12.00PM

We welcome the opening up of our places of worship and opportunities for gathering but remain mindful and respectful that many in our community remain feeling cautious.

All Catholics in Melbourne continue to be dispensed from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass until further directed by the Archbishop. We continue to carry the happy obligation to keep Sunday holy, whether we can attend Mass or not, and can do so by any kind of prayer with members of our household and parish, reading holy scripture, and encouraging one another in our faith. Face coverings remain optional within Places of Worship, workplaces, primary schools, early childhood or retail settings.

There are no longer vaccination requirements at Places of Worship nor any requirement for organisers to check vaccination status for attendee, workers or volunteers at Places of Worship and for associated parish activities.

It should be noted that the Archdiocese and each parish must continue to have an up-to-date COVIDSafe Plan.

Sanitising hands before distribution of Holy Communion is still recommended.

Holy Water stoups may be filled, but care should be seen that the water is changed regularly.

Holy Communion may be distributed to the faithful under both species (i.e., the Sacred Host and Precious Blood).

It is an essential requirement to isolate for seven days following a COVID-19 diagnosis.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT ST THOMAS

Contactless Payments: We are now able to allow electronic transfer of funds through the purchase of a Square Tap Machine.

☐ Square

Parishioners will be able to 'tap and go' for the Presbytery and Parish collections. There are instructions in the Church or you can ask for help.

This will enable those who want to have less reliance on cash to be able to keep supporting the Parish and our Priests.

ST THOMAS FEAST DAY 3rd July

Thomas the Apostle also known as Didymus ("twin"), was one of the Twelve Apostles of Jesus according to the New Testament. Thomas is commonly known as "Doubting Thomas" because he initially doubted the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

At the Last Supper, when Jesus tells his disciples that he is about to leave them and that they know the way where he is going,

Thomas cries out, "Lord we do not know where you are going; and how can we know the way?" Jesus replies "I am the way...No one goes to the Father save through me."

Thomas who had not died with Jesus after all, was away when Jesus appeared to the rest.

'Unless I see in his hands the mark of nails, and put my finger in the place of the nails, and put my hand into his side I will not believe.'

Only Jesus could convince him, and he came specially to give him the proof he demanded: 'Bring your finger here and see my hands; and put forth your hand and place it in my side; and be not unbelieving, but believing.' Thomas needed no more and burst into great cry: 'My Lord and my God.' Thomas would not be left out again.

Jesus said to Thomas: 'have you believed because you have seen? Blessed are they who have not seen and yet believe.'

St Thomas doubt helps us more than the faith of others. Faith is above reason, but reason leads to faith, for the things men see and touch point beyond themselves.

When the feast of Saint Thomas was inserted in the Roman calendar in the 9th century, it was assigned to 21 December.

St Jerome mentioned the apostle on 3 July, the date to which the Roman celebration was transferred in 1969, so that it would no longer interfere with Advent.

LECTIONARY ART REFLECTION BY JENNY CLOSE.

The 'Lord of the harvest' sends out disciples to spread the good news of the Kingdom in this reading from Luke's gospel. The yield of his harvest is high, but there are problems recruiting workers to bring in the crop. Perhaps this is because the work of a disciple is demanding and ultimately dangerous.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

3 July 2022

First Reading Is 66:10-14

I will send toward Jerusalem peace like a river.

Rejoice, Jerusalem,
be glad for her, all you who love her!
Rejoice, rejoice for her,
all you who mourned her!

That you may be suckled, filled,
from her consoling breast,
that you may savour with delight
her glorious breasts.
For thus says the Lord:

Now towards her I send flowing
peace, like a river,
and like a stream in spate
the glory of the nations.

At her breast will her nurslings be carried and fondled in her lap.
Like a son comforted by his mother
will I comfort you.
And by Jerusalem you will be comforted.

At the sight your heart will rejoice,
and your bones flourish like the grass.
To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 65:1-7. 16. 20. R. v.1

(R.) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

1. Cry out with joy to God all the earth,
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise.
Say to God: 'How tremendous your deeds! (R.)
2. 'Before you all the earth shall bow;
shall sing to you, sing to your name!
Come and see the works of God,
tremendous his deeds among men. (R.)
3. He turned the sea into dry land, they passed through the river dry-shod.
Let our joy then be in him;
he rules for ever by his might. (R.)
4. Come and hear, all who fear God.
I will tell what he did for my soul.
Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer
nor withhold his love from me. (R.)

Second Reading Gal 6:14-18

The marks I carry on my body are those of Jesus Christ.

The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God.

I want no more trouble from anybody after this;
the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation Col 3:15. 16

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts,
and the fullness of his message live within you.

Alleluia!

Gospel Lk 10:1-12, 17-20 (or shorter form Lk 10:1-9)

Your peace will rest upon him.

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road. Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, "Peace to this house!" And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, "The kingdom of God is very near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say, "We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near." I tell you, that on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with that town.'

The seventy-two came back rejoicing. 'Lord,' they said, 'even the devils submit to us when we use your name.' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you. Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven.'

Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSA

Although the gospel is a report of ministerial commissioning, it contains elements of discipleship in general. Most obvious is the disciples' dependence on Jesus. They are not independent missionaries; they are followers. Furthermore, there is a communal dimension of discipleship. While there is certainly a personal relationship between Jesus and each disciple, discipleship itself is not a singular privilege that one hugs to oneself to the exclusion of others.

Disciples minister to the needs of others, whatever those needs may be and with whatever abilities the disciple may possess. There are various kinds of healing: a friendly smile, a word of gratitude, a soothing touch. We can teach the lessons of life in classrooms, in playrooms, in kitchens, in boardrooms. There are many ways that we can cast out the demons that hold our world by the throat; demons of poverty and oppression, demons of addiction and slavery, demons of disdain and neglect, demons of hatred and violence. If they are not cast out by us, then by whom?

The life of discipleship is not an unmixed blessing. Because disciples are marked by the sign of the cross, they must expect suffering. Because they do not live according to the standards of the world, disciples will be judged as fools. Some of them will be subjected to even greater suffering. Still, the disciple proclaims that true fulfilment is only found in God! In reality, it is the world that is upside down, not the life of discipleship. And it is the cross that sets things right.
