REFLECTION

The Gospel this weekend concludes with the simple words: "After this he said, 'Follow me.'" In many ways, today's Gospel reading is the story of our Church. It is the story of discipleship and us acting. In the midst of the ordinary, we catch nothing.

But then, we recognise Jesus and we find that nothing is ever the same again.

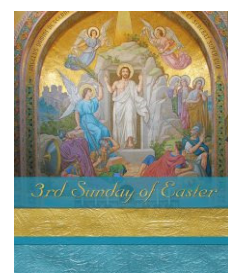

We find a huge haul not of fish, but of all who believe in Christ. And no matter what size the haul of believers, the faith of our community is never broken. There is room for all of us in our Church and this weekend, we welcome all our Year 4 students who will make the commitment to their personal faith, as they prepare for the Sacrament of First Eucharist

It does not matter who we are, who we love, with what we struggle with and what we've done wrong, there is room for all of us. Being caught in God's love, we are fed and we are nourished. We are invited to break our fast, and feast on the food of eternal life which Jesus gives us. Jesus entrusts us to the care and protection of Peter.

Jesus is not concerned with whether Peter says the right prayers, or whether he desires to become a fisherman again.

Jesus is only concerned with whether Peter loves him. With that same love, he will tend the flock of Christ's followers.
