Jumping Into The Unknown

We may be skilled at carpentry, painting, drawing, gardening, computers, or fishing. Part of this expertise is that sense of knowing when it is best to engage in the craft or what circumstances need to be there. One cannot be pushed to play the piano or the violin if one is not in the mood for it. Still, one must be ready to engage in ones craft even if circumstance or timing is not there.

In the Gospel, Jesus (a carpenter, not a fisherman) intervenes in the lives of fishermen, Peter and companions, who have had a bad night at fishing. These fishermen may be irritated that someone who is not of their trade is dictating what they should do when they know it will be futile. Yet, Peter puts his expertise aside and gives Jesus the benefit of the doubt. Somehow, Peter senses that even if this man (Jesus) is not a fisherman, he has shown wonderful signs in their presence: he is not an ordinary person foolishly challenging them. And so the miracle happens, and Peter can only be shaken deeply so as to realize, as in the case of Isaiah before the heavenly court (cf Is 6:5), that he is a sinful man before an all-powerful and holy God! We are so used to relying on human training and expertise that we find it difficult to trust in something adventurous and unsure. This way we fail to see that there could be various other ways to realize our goals besides what we know. We miss the sense of adventure and surprise that every leap of faith usually brings. With God we do not venture into the unknown, for God will surely lead us in the right path to our glorious destiny. This is what Peter deeply learns by the experience.

February 10 2019 - 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?' 'Here I am,' I said, 'send me!'" (Isaiah 6:8)

Every day, in little ways and in big ways, God asks, "Whom shall I send?" Whether it is someone to take on a new ministry, to give a friendly smile to a stranger or say a word of encouragement to a friend, God constantly provides opportunities to help someone in need. The next time you hear God calling, have the courage to walk through the door and say "Here I am, Lord."

BENDIGO BANK GRANT AWARDED TO ST VINCENT de PAUL MOOROOLBARK CONFERENCE

Recently, the Mooroolbark branch of the Bendigo Bank awarded a grant of $5000 to St Vincent de Paul, to ensure that underprivileged children in the Mooroolbark area, are able to partake in community sporting teams.

The costs associated with sport participation can be prohibitive for many families. The cost of setting a child up in a sport, is around $350. Many of the families who call on us for assistance are either one income families, or relying on welfare. In either situation it is impossible to meet such costs.

Research shows that the ricochet effect of involvement in sport, is that all areas of the community benefit. Happy children have much more chance of staying at school, finishing their education, and of becoming gainfully employed adults. Teaching a child to wisely use his leisure time, is an important first step, in having him grow into an engaged community member.

We are so pleased that Bendigo Bank agreed with our assessment and saw the worth in supporting our project so generously.

A great way to show our appreciation, would be to use the services of our local branch of the Bendigo Bank. We trust that some parishioners, will take the opportunity to enquire into their services and rates, and perhaps become customers of the bank in the future.

Jan Phippard (S V de P President) and Jan Reilly receive the cheque for $5000, generously donated by the Mooroolbark Branch of the Bendigo Bank.

St Vincent de Paul English Classes for Migrants—Volunteers Needed.

St Vincent de Paul is running English Classes for migrants. (See the poster attached to this newsletter.) In our role of service to people in our community, we are becoming increasingly aware of the loneliness and isolation that people experience because of not being able to speak the language. Leaving your homeland and loved ones must be difficult enough, without the added burden of not being able to communicate with those around you.

We urgently need volunteers to help. While a teaching background would be an advantage, it is not absolutely, necessary. The aim is to have enough volunteers so that it doesn't have to be a weekly commitment.

Classes are on Monday mornings and Wednesday nights. At this stage the greater need is for help on Wednesday nights, but you would be most welcome for either session.

Also, if you have neighbours or friends who need English, please let them know that our classes are about to begin.

If you are able to help, in any way, call Jan Reilly on 0414 763 801.
