Teach us to Pray

While it may sound like stating the obvious, any relationship needs communication if it is to grow and develop. I not only need to speak to the other person, I also need to take time to listen to what the other person has to say to me. This communication takes patience and perseverance.

Jesus understood this at a deep level. Several times in the gospels we read that he went off to a quiet place where he prayed. He often prayed before he spent time with people or after he was teaching and healing. He realised deeply where his strength came from.

His disciples saw him praying and eager to follow his example asked him to teach them how to pray as John prayed. But Jesus cannot do this; he can only teach to them pray as he himself prays. So in sharing with them the 'Our Father', he also shares with them the very personal relationship he has with God the Father. This is his gift to them and to each of us.

Prayer is not so much about saying lots of words as about creating and maintaining a close friendship with our loving God. Prayer is as much about listening to God as it is talking to God! Prayer is a very dangerous thing to do! When we pray we are not trying to change God, it is about being open to God changing us! Every time we pray the 'Our Father' we pray 'may your kingdom come on earth as it is in heaven.' This means that we are ready to build and promote God's kingdom, not our own.

When we pray and precisely because we pray we are called to turn our eyes to our brothers and sisters who are in need. Archbishop Oscar Romero, who was martyred in El Salvador said, 'The guarantee of one's prayer is not saying lots of words. The guarantee of one's prayer is very easy to know: how do I treat the poor? – because that is where God is. What you do to them, you do to God. The way you look at them is the way you look at God.' As we pray this week, let us ask for the strength to be open to God touching our hearts, changing our lives and changing how we treat each other.

A REFLECTION - 17th Sunday of Year B

“Where can we buy bread for the people to eat?”

The great crowds persisted in following - perhaps even hounding Jesus, to see & listen, perhaps even healed; Jesus' celebrity came at a cost to the disciples' comfort & quiet, who wanted to “rest with him a while” & learn from his gracious wisdom & encouraging common sense. But, once again, their principal learning, would be in “deeds not words”. In by Mark proclaiming the Good News last week, we were reminded forcibly of the compassion of Jesus, seeing the people as “sheep without a shepherd”, abandoned by their official shepherds of the Temple: he would be their true Shepherd. Remember that the Church of Mark was experiencing persecution in their communities & synagogues & his writing was to encourage faithfulness to the Way that they had encountered & which gave them life & spirit & meaning. Mark's was the basic “Hang in there, I am with you always”.

Today's reading from the Fourth Gospel, known as John's & compiled about the turn of that first century. While persecution still persisted, now largely courtesy of the Empire, the followers were now drawn from across the variety of social, cultural, religious, philosophical & ethnic backgrounds; having largely fled Jerusalem before & after the destruction of the Temple in 70CE (CE=Christian Era=AD), they were now part of established communities or churches, especially in present day Greece, Turkey & Italy; all looking back to the Apostles & Paul as their source of enlightenment, they were still trying to sort out what it meant to be Jesus followers, People of the Way, who would come to called Christians through that next century; & still persecuted for their belief in Jesus as their Saviour, rejecting the gods of the Empire, while embracing women & men from every race, religion & social status; “No longer Jew or Greek, slave or free, male or female, you are all one in Christ Jesus”. Jesus is Lord & makes it all worthwhile, despite everything that is going on or being done to you. Perhaps food for our thought & prayer!

This reading, part of the Johannine Eucharistic reflection & teaching, is again about the person & personality of this Risen Jesus, still in their midst: ‘where two or three gather in my name’, “Do this in memory of me”. Again the story is about the compassion of Jesus, revealing in himself the Compassion of God, but here it emphasises his practicality & generosity, “Give them to eat”, “There were twelve baskets left over from the meal of five barley loaves”. Ours is a Big God who wants each of us to be big of heart, mind & spirit in deepest hope. Not so easy in time of Pandemic, as it had not been through First Century Persecution. So, as for the first readers of John, Jesus is our compassionate, generous, ever-present & encouraging answer.

PARISHIONERS NOT RECEIVING NEWSLETTER

We have recently had a change to NBN and also internet provider with the Catholic Archdiocese.

It appears a number of parishioners are not receiving the newsletter weekly.

This problem has been caused by Bulk Emails thru the Archdiocese server.

Alternatively you can access the newsletter via the parish website.

If you are one of these can you please contact me by email or phone so I can keep track on how many emails that are not getting out.

Thank you Adriana De Leo (03) 9723 4275

New Child Safe Standards are coming to better protect children and young people from abuse.

The Victorian Government has announced that the new Standards will commence on 1 July 2022, giving organisations time to plan, prepare and comply.

The eleven new Standards will replace Victoria's current seven standards and principles.

Key changes include new requirements:

- to involve families and communities in organisations' efforts to keep children and young people safe
- for a greater focus on safety for Aboriginal children and young people
- to manage the risk of child abuse in online environments
- for greater clarity on the governance, systems and processes to keep children and young people safe.

New Lights Throughout the Church.

Partially paid for with a business grant from the state government for upgrading existing lights to more energy efficient LED's.
