Reflection

I have a friend called Ian Howie-Willis who is an historian and author and also a lay preacher at his Uniting Church in Canberra. In our correspondence he always includes a prayer or thought related to my MND. This is from a sermon he gave recently.

“Lord Jesus, you never pretended to your disciples that following you would be easy. You warned them that in following you they must take up their crosses daily, experiencing the difficulties that a life lived with you and for you will bring. Help us to bear our burden joyfully, knowing that our reward will be to enjoy a new and more fulfilling life with you. Help us, too, to live our Christian lives more effectively, helping others so that through our love of serving you they, too, will experience your love and seek to follow you themselves. Amen.”

July 8, 2018 - 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, 'Son of man, I am sending you...'" EZEKIEL 2:2-3

God asks each of us to do some special work for Him. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. However, do we listen to God when He calls? Do we get up on our feet and use our talent to do the work He asks of us? Remember, God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called.

CATHOLIC DEVELOPMENT FUND

At a time where people are disillusioned more than ever with banks, the CDF Community Fund offers a prudent alternative to support key development projects that benefit the broader Catholic community. At the same time they can also earn an attractive rate of interest on their investment.

Father James "Jim" Wall established the Melbourne Funds movement over 60 years ago, originally for the purpose of raising capital to build schools during the post war population boom. The CDF now loans money to a wide range of Catholic organisations.

The CDF Community Fund has now been established in response to new Government regulations which have imposed restrictions on the operation of accounts for customers, including mandatory disclosure requirements. Across Australia a number of CDFs have joined together in a new partnership.

Brochures explaining more are available in the foyer of the Church.
