PENTECOST SUNDAY 9th June 2019 - Issue No: 20

REFLECTION

Inner peace

One fine Sunday morning, as I always do whenever the weather permits, I walk to church and arrive at least half an hour early. I sit on my usual seat and started to listen to some soothing music. This is a very special time for me, one of the "me" times when I am totally relaxed, no immediate tasks to finish and no cares in the world.

A familiar face says hello, sits beside me and starts to chat. I was not pleased but being inside the house of the Lord, I chose to be patient and not show my annoyance. The tete-a-tete with the woman was not disappointing. It however proved a valuable point: silence is better than unnecessary chatter. To make matters worse, as soon as she saw another friend, whose company she preferred compared to mine, she excused herself hurriedly to sit beside them. It did not worry me one bit. I was relieved if anything else but more vexed that the Mass was about to start and I lost valuable time.

Small talk never impressed me. Small talk leads to gossip. I prefer to meditate before the Mass. It is one of the most honest conversations I have with the Lord. It is one of those rare moments that I can truly be myself without judgement from the world.

I came across a valuable quote on the internet: "If they treat you like an option, leave them like a choice." I gave this message or at least my face did the very next opportunity.

REQUIEM FUNERAL

Concetta (Connie) Di Pilla
SPJE Church
Thur 13th June,
10.30am

Celebrant: Fr. Joseph Amal

June 9, 2019 - Pentecost Sunday

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (John 14:26)

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions.
