Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time — Year A

2nd August 2020

Returning to Stage 3 restrictions

In returning to Stage 3 restrictions, sadly, STM Church will need to be closed again to Mass and private prayer; and the numbers allowed for funerals and weddings will be severely limited.

Baptisms in a restricted zone are to be postponed, unless there is an urgent and grave pastoral need. (Can. 857; 860).

Funerals held in a restricted zone will be limited to 10 people plus those required to conduct the funeral.

Wedding s will be limited to five people, including the celebrant.

Except for the exemptions noted regarding Weddings and Funerals, all public Masses, Liturgies and communal devotions (whether indoors or outdoors) are temporarily suspended until 19 August 2020, or until further notice.

“Now is a time for attentiveness to the care of one another. In the face of our own despondency and fears, our fatigue and anxieties, may we learn to hold firm in faith and hope, and experience sustaining moments of love. As the writer of the Letter to the Hebrews encouraged: Let us be concerned for each other, to stir a response in love and good works. (Heb 24:10)” - A message from Archbishop Peter A Comensoli

Community Corners

Like lots of you I am sure, I have baked myriads of biscuits and home cooked meals and the freezer has never looked better. Curtains have been dry cleaned throughout the house. I have potted bulbs and even now, their little green leaves are pushing up through the soil. We are usually in Queensland enjoying warmer weather, but the surprise has been how beautiful the changing Seasons have been. Autumn colours were a delight and June and July have gifted us with many beautiful and crisp days. Home has been our safe haven and we have much to be grateful for. Love to all. Tom and Maree Shelton.

Homily

We love reading biblical texts that seem to have been written for us because they address our deepest longings and anxieties. The scriptural readings for this weekend tell us about God's love and generosity for all. Also, the scriptures invite us to come to God who can satisfy every of our desire.

Mother Teresa generously committed her life to caring for the poorest of the poor. On one occasion Mother Teresa made a visit to a Hindu family who she knew have been without food for several days. Mother Teresa handed to this Hindu family a small quantity of rice. But, to Mother Teresa's amazement, this Hindu family without a moment's hesitation divided the rice into two. Then they took half of it to the family next-door, which happened to be a Moslem. Surprised by the Hindu family's kind gesture, Mother Teresa asked, "how much will you have left over? Aren't there enough for yourselves?" The Hindu family replied, "but they have not been eaten for days either". What a heart of gold- an exemplar of Christian charity and generosity!

The Gospel account about the feeding of the multitude is an example of God's love and generosity for us, even though we are not always worthy of such kindness. In the Gospel, Jesus' generosity is seen not only in the abundance of food that he provides for the starving people, but also in the time and commitment he has for them. Jesus puts aside his plans in order to attend to the needs of the crowd. (Having heard about the death of John the Baptist [his cousin], Jesus wanted to withdraw to a quiet place to deal with his lost and grief. Yet, moved by compassion, Jesus gave himself fully to the throng of people who were waiting for him.). Fr Flor McCarthy sdb says, "generosity is not always about giving things, it is also about the giving of ourselves, of our time, of our gifts etc. It is a lot easier to give away material things, but the giving of oneself is never easy." Jesus gives himself totally to the crowd in the biblical texts and to us. Like Jesus, we too, can be generous in giving ourselves, our time, and our gifts to others: our family, our parish community, and those who are less fortunate.

When we take our attention back to the second reading we learn more about the love and kindness God has for all. Sometimes, when bad things happen to us, we feel that God no longer loves us, or he has abandoned us. However, St Paul says to us, there is no need for us to feel like that. Paul assures us that there is nothing can separate us from the love of God. Paul speaks out of his own personal experience. We know that Paul endured many trials and hardship – yet, Paul continued to experience the faithfulness God has for him. In his letter Paul enumerates possible obstacles between us and God. But, the thing is God does not put any barrier between us and himself. When God sent his Son into the world – he made himself closer to us. The irony is, we are the people who created the unnecessary barrier between us and God.

In the first reading we hear an invitation from God – come to me and I will give you fulfilment. Money and power cannot bring fulfilment to our deepest longing and desire. But, God can! Therefore, let us have the courage to turn to God who loves us dearly.

Let us pray that the Holy Spirit will help us to imitate the generosity of Christ and removes from our heart any obstacle that we have placed between God and ourselves!.
