SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

Every Saturday

◆ 5.00pm - 5.20pm at Mary Immaculate

◆ 5.30pm - 5.50pm at St. Bernadette's

or weekdays by appointment with Parish Priest

"To live is to change, and to be perfect is to have changed often ... However, true change is always a response to the mystery of God and never simply a response to changing circumstances, intellectual inquiry or social pressure."

"Fear not that thy life shall come to an end, but rather that it shall never have a beginning."

"Learn to do thy part and leave the rest to Heaven."

"I sought to hear the voice of God and climbed the topmost steeple, But God declared: 'Go down again - I dwell among the people'."

"If we insist on being as sure as is conceivable... we must be content to creep along the ground, and can never soar."

"Faith is illuminative, not operative; it does not force obedience, though it increases responsibility."

"We should always conduct ourselves towards our enemy as if they were one day to be our friend."

"Regarding Christianity, ten thousand difficulties do not make one doubt."

"The voice of the whole Church will in time make itself heard."

May the Lord, support us all the day long, until the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in thy mercy, grant us a safe lodging, a holy rest, and peace at the last. Amen.

ANNUAL ALL SOULS' DAY MEMORIAL MASS

Our Annual All Souls' Day Memorial Requiem Mass provides us with an opportunity to remember loved ones, family and friends whose funerals took place in our parish within the past year, as well as remembering those who have died outside our parish during the year.

All are invited to attend the Requiem Mass on All Souls' Day, Saturday 2nd November, at 10.30am in Mother of God Church followed by refreshments. If you wish to include names of those whose funerals were held outside of the Parish please advise the Parish Office no later than Thurs 24th October. ivanhoe@cam.org.au or 9499 1515. If able a plate of morning tea would be appreciated.

MEMORIAL BOOKS

Memorial books are available in each church for the month of November. Parishioners are invited to write names of those who have died in the past year. Past names or anniversaries written in previous years are still recorded in these books so need not be re-entered.

PARISH WORKING BEE

Many thanks to all who turned up to our Parish Working Bee to clean up the grounds and garden around the Parish Office (Joe Bona, Pia Boutsakis, Elizabeth Craven, Robyn Edebohls, Robert Erbacher, Merle Gilbo, Sue and Pat Kelly, Terry McKinley, Sue Moorhen, Hanh Nguyen, Michael Rocco). A great job done - and a great morning tea!

PARISH EXCURSION - SUNDAY 27TH OCTOBER

Reserve the Date! After the success of our last excursion to the Islamic Museum, our next Parish excursion is to the Eastern Rite Melkite Catholic Church in Fairfield to attend their evening Mass - the celebration of the Divine Liturgy of Saint John Chrysostom.

5.00pm Meet at our Parish Office for a brief introduction to the Eastern Rites of the Catholic Church.

5.30pm Travel together (sharing cars) to St. Joseph's Melkite Catholic Church, 40 Gillies St. Fairfield, for Mass at 6.00pm. After Mass we will share pizza for dinner.

Register your attendance on sheet in the church foyer.

PARISH CLIMATE ACTION GROUP

Responding to Pope Francis' call for immediate action to mitigate global warming and avoid committing "a brutal act of injustice on the poor and future generations"

You can purchase Pope Francis' Laudato Si On Care for Our Common Home or the cheaper inspiring summary, Care for Our Home: an Australian Group Reading Guide to Pope Francis' Laudato Si from Garratt publishing (sales@garrattpublishing.com.au or phone 8545 2911)

LIFESTYLE TIP FOR THE WEEK: Remember the 5 R's: REFUSE what you don't need. REDUCE what you do need. REUSE what you can. RECYCLE what you cannot refuse, reduce or reuse. ROT (compost) the rest. (from Zero Waste Homes)

The website for the Australian Religious Response to Climate Change (arrcc.org.au) publishes good information, including details of its inaugural national conference, November 8-10 in Canberra. The Climate Council (climatecouncil.org.au) is another excellent website to consult.

Next meeting of the Parish Climate Action Group: Thurs Oct 17, 11.30am, Parish Office. All interested parishioners most welcome.

1ST READING 2 Kings 5:14-17

A reading from the second book of Kings

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram and a mighty warrior, obeyed Elisha: he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.

Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; Naaman came and stood before Elisha and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel; please accept a present from your servant."

But Elisha said, "As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing!"

Naaman urged Elisha to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, "If not, please let two mule-loads of earth be given to your servant; for your servant will no longer offer burnt offering or sacrifice to any god except the Lord."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Sing a new song to the Lord for he has worked wonders. His right hand and his holy arm have brought salvation. R.

The Lord has made known his salvation; has shown his justice to the nations. He has remembered his truth and love for the house of Israel. R.

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Shout to the Lord all the earth, ring out your joy. R.

2ND READING 2 Timothy 2:8-13

A reading from the second letter of Paul to Timothy

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David - that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained.

Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful - for he cannot deny himself.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

For all things give thanks to God, because this is what he expects of you in Christ Jesus. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Luke 17:11-19

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

+ Glory to you, O Lord.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee.

As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

When Jesus saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan.

Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?"

Then Jesus said to the Samaritan, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

The Gospel of the Lord:

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Lord, hear us:

Lord, hear our prayer.

SCRIPTURAL CONTEXT

- ON THE BORDERS

When Jesus encounters the ten men, he is travelling along the border between Galilee and Samaria. The level of distrust between the Jews of Galilee and the Samaritans were deep and abiding. The land that fell between the two countries was sparsely populated and mostly barren. That Jesus should encounter the men in this environment is not surprising for these men literally and metaphorically were at the border of society. Not welcome in any town, the men roamed the very edges of society. They lived their whole lives on the borderline – welcome nowhere and belonging nowhere.

◇ In what way can the 'leprosy' of the story be applied as a metaphor for today?

◇ Who is forced to live on the borders of our country / society?

◇ How are we Christ to them?

Our readings are from the New Revised Standard Version © 1989 Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches (USA). Used by permission.
