

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate

Jesus entered Jerusalem, not as a warrior in the tradition of King David as many had hoped for, but riding simply on a donkey. The disciples and the crowd applauded him, but they proved fickle in their support. On the other hand, Jesus remained steadfast in his commitment to non-violent revolutionary change of the religious and political systems so as to establish the reign of God. Why did he renounce marshalling human and angelic warriors to further his cause? First, Jesus embodied God-for-us, and God does not want the destruction of those he has created out of love. Second, Jesus had a premonition that an armed revolt would lead to the destruction of Jerusalem and the dispersal of the Jewish people (as occurred in 70AD). Third, another Gospel (Luke) recounts that as Jesus laboured up Mount Calvary he turned to some weeping women and said, 'Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, weep rather for yourselves and for your children.' He knew that they suffer grievously in armed uprising. This is seen in barbaric reality in our own time with women being tortured and raped in campaigns of terror, trafficked into sexual slavery, suffering the loss of sons, husband and lovers. We could take a moment to pray that the Church of the 21st century, successor of the pacifist Church of the first three centuries, may enter on a new period of reflection on these issues, grappling with the desire to protect the innocent, yet always challenged by the man on a donkey, Divine Prince of Peace.

Entrance Antiphon

Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Responsorial Psalm

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Gospel Acclamation

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Christ became obedient for us even to death, dying on the cross. Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Communion Antiphon

Father, if this chalice cannot pass without my drinking it, your will be done.

3 April 2020

Dear Parishioners,

In these difficult times when churches have been physically closed and Masses suspended, it is imperative to keep our spiritual lives strong and fulfilling. While we cannot attend Mass and receive Holy Communion we can and we must continue praying.

I invite you to join me in praying together as a community. The following are suggestions which you might like to take on-board at the moment:

- Morning Prayer & The Rosary at 9am in your home.
- The Angelus at 12 noon.
- The Divine Mercy chapel at 3pm, And Vespers (Evening Prayer of the Church) at 8pm.

While we are all staying at home and in isolation let us not be isolated, but connected to each other in prayer.

As long as it is possible, Masses will continue to be made available on our social media platforms. Palm Sunday will be pre-recorded and the link will be available on our parish website. You can Like us on the Facebook page. Those who watch on YouTube (St Peter's Church Keilor East -Youtube.com), kindly subscribe for the automatic reminder so that it will save our time in forwarding the link to you. St Patrick's Cathedral will live stream Masses Holy Week from Monday-Wednesday at 1.00pm, Holy Thursday Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper at 7.30pm and Good Friday – the Way of the Cross at 11am. Solemn Mass at 3pm will be telecast live on Channel 7 from St Mary's Cathedral, Sydney.

Many of you have asked about our Parish Collections for Stewardship and Priest Support. But perhaps now is a time contributing to both collections by direct debit or credit card. We are in the process of setting this up for our parish. Please call the Parish Office next Tuesday-Thursday if you would like us to send you a form to facilitate this.

Please be assured that I am praying for all of you, particularly at my Masses. While I cannot be close to you physically I hold all of you close to me in my heart and look forward to the time when we meet again.

Where was Noah when the Lord asked him to build an Ark? (at home). Where was Abraham when the Lord asked him to journey? (at home). Where was Moses when the Lord called him to free His people? (at home). Where were the Apostles when the Holy Spirit came to them? (at home). Who knows what next week may bring but the message is clear. Stay at home. That's where the Lord expects to find us.

Yours sincerely in Christ,

CARTAS AUSTRALIA: PROJECT COMPASSION 2020 "Go Further Together"
Message from Deacon Jim Curran, Diocesan Director of Caritas Australia, about the Project Compassion 2020 Appeal.

"We here at Caritas understand that many in our community will have financial concerns, worries about health, and worries about their future due to the COVID19 crisis. We do appreciate that many generous people who would normally give may no longer be in a position to do so. However through Project Compassion we support people and communities in countries that have nothing like the resources of Australia, where governments do not have the ability to provide social welfare payments or subsidise employees to keep people in work. Bearing in mind the uncertainty that we are all experiencing, we would still ask that, if you are able, you consider continuing to support Project Compassion as best you can. Thank you for your generosity in the past, and for whatever you feel able to give now."
Project Compassion Boxes and envelopes may be returned to the Parish Office or please wait until after restrictions are lifted before returning them.

A Prayer to St Joseph

St Joseph,

You were receptive to God working in your life.
Help us by your prayers at this time of trial.

You kept Jesus and Mary under your watchful care: may your prayers assist our local Church to respond to those in need.

You taught the Christ Child your trade and prayers: help us to follow his example of love.

You were part of God's plan for all humanity: assist us to be vigilant and responsible this day.

You spent your life in service:

May we be mindful of others, particularly the elderly and vulnerable, caring for them in these difficult days.

You trusted in the clear primacy of God over all history and every situation: help us to grow in faith and pray to the Father, Thy will be done.

Amen.

C The man is calling on Elijah.
N and one of them quickly ran to get a sponge which he dipped in vinegar and, putting it on a reed, gave it him to drink. The rest of them said:
C Wait! See if Elijah will come to save him.
N But Jesus, again crying out in a loud voice, yielded up his spirit.

All kneel and pause a moment.

N At that, the veil of the Temple was torn in two from top to bottom; the earth quaked; the rocks were split; the tombs opened and the bodies of many holy men rose from the dead, and these, after his resurrection, came out of the tombs, entered the Holy City and appeared to a number of people. Meanwhile the centurion, together with the others guarding Jesus, had seen the earthquake and all that was taking place, and they were terrified and said:

C In truth this was a son of God.
N And many women were there, watching from a distance, the same women who had followed Jesus from Galilee and looked after him. Among them were Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

When it was evening, there came a rich man of Arimathea, called Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus. This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Pilate thereupon ordered it to be handed over. So Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean shroud and put it in his own new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock. He then rolled a large stone across the entrance of the tomb and went away. Now Mary of Magdala and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the sepulchre. Next day, that is, when Preparation Day was over, the chief priests and the Pharisees went in a body to Pilate and said to him:

C Your Excellency, we recall that this impostor said, while he was still alive, 'After three days I shall rise again.' Therefore give the order to have the sepulchre kept secure until the third day, for fear his disciples come and steal him away and tell the people. 'He has risen from the dead'. This last piece of fraud would be worse than what went before.

N Pilate said to them:
O You may have your guards. Go and make all as secure as you know how.
N So they went and made the sepulchre secure, putting seals on the stone and mounting a guard.

The Gospel of the Lord.
 Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

N Pilate asked:
O Why? What harm has he done?
N But they shouted all the louder,
C Let him be crucified!
N Then Pilate saw that he was making no impression, that in fact a riot was imminent, so he took some water, washed his hands in front of the crowd and said:

O I am innocent of this man's blood. It is your concern!
N And the people, to a man, shouted back:
C His blood be on us and on our children!
N Then he released Barabbas for them. He ordered Jesus to be first scourged and then handed over to be crucified. The governor's soldiers took Jesus with them into the Praetorium and collected the whole cohort around him. Then they stripped him and made him wear a scarlet cloak, and having twisted some thorns into a crown they put this on his head and placed a reed in his right hand. To make fun of him they knelt to him saying:

C Hail, King of the Jews!
N And they spat on him and took the reed and struck him on the head with it. And when they had finished making fun of him, they took off the cloak and dressed him in his own clothes and led him away to crucify him.
 On their way out, they came across a man from Cyrene, Simon by name, and enlisted him to carry his cross. When they had reached a place called Golgotha, that is, the place of the skull, they gave him wine to drink. When they had finished crucifying him they shared out his clothes by casting lots, and then sat down and stayed there keeping guard over him. Above his head was placed the charge against him; it read: "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews." At the same time two robbers were crucified with him, one on the right and one on the left.
 The passers-by jeered at him: they shook their heads and said:

C So you would destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days! Then save yourself if you are God's son, come down from the cross!
N The chief priests with the scribes and elders mocked him in the same way, saying:
C He saved others; he cannot save himself. He is the King of Israel; let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him. He put his trust in God; now let God rescue him if he wants him. For he did say, 'I am the son of God'.

N Even the robbers who were crucified with him taunted him in the same way.
 From the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour, Jesus cried out in a loud voice:
J Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?
N That is: 'My God, my God, why have you deserted me?' When some of those who stood there heard this, they said:

Gospel Matthew 21:1-11

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

When they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find an ass tied, and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to me, if anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Lord has need of them,' and he will send them immediately". This took place to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet, saying:

"Tell the daughter of Zion,
 Behold, your king is coming to you,
 humble and mounted on an ass,
 and on a colt; the foal of an ass."

The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them; they brought the ass and the colt, and put their garments on them, and he sat thereon. Most of the crowd spread their garments on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. And the crowds that went before him and that followed him shouted,

"Hosanna to the Son of David!
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
 Hosanna in the highest!"
 And when he entered Jerusalem all the city was stirred, saying, "Who is this?" And the crowds said, "This is Jesus the prophet, from Nazareth in Galilee."

The Gospel of the Lord.
 Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

First Reading Isaiah 50:4-7

I did not cover my face against insult and I know I will not be ashamed.

The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue.
 So that I may know how to reply to the wearied he provides me with speech.
 Each morning he wakes me to hear,
 to listen like a disciple.
 The Lord has opened my ear.
 For my part, I made no resistance,
 neither did I turn away.
 I offered my back to those who struck me,
 my cheeks to those who tore at my beard;
 I did not cover my face
 against insult and spittle.
 The Lord comes to my help,
 so that I am untouched by the insults.
 So, too, I set my face like flint;
 I know I shall not be shamed.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 21:8-9, 17-20, 23-24, R. v. 2.

(R.) My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

1. All who see me deride me,
 They curl their lips, they toss their heads,
 'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him;
 let him release him if this is his friend.' (R.)
2. Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me,
 They tear holes in my hands and my feet,
 I can count every one of my bones. (R.)
3. They divide my clothing among them,
 They cast lots for my robe,
 O Lord, do not leave me alone,
 my strength, make haste to help me! (R.)
4. I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled,
 'You who fear the Lord give him praise:
 all sons of Jacob, give him glory.
 Revere him, Israel's sons.' (R.)

Second Reading Philipians 2:6-11

He humbled himself to become like us and God raised him on high.

His state was divine,
 yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God
 but emptied himself
 to assume the condition of a slave,
 and became as men are,
 and being as all men are,
 he was humbler yet,
 even to accepting death,
 death on a cross.
 But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names
 so that all beings
 in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim
 Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Phil 2:8-9

*Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ,
king of endless glory!
Christ became obedient for us even to death,
dying on the cross.*

*Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names.

Gospel Matthew 26:14 - 27:66

- N One of the Twelve, the man called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests and said:
- O What are you prepared to give me if I hand him over to you?
- N They paid him thirty silver pieces, and from that moment he looked for an opportunity to betray him. Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus to say,
- C Where do you want us to make the preparations for you to eat the passover?
- N He replied:
- J Go to so-and-so in the city and say to him, 'The Master says: My time is near. It is at your house that I am keeping Passover with my disciples.'
- N The disciples did what Jesus told them and was at table with the twelve disciples. And while they were eating he said:
- J I tell you solemnly, one of you is about to betray me.
- N They were greatly distressed and started asking him in turn,
- C Not I, Lord, surely?
- N He answered:
- J Someone who has dipped his hand into the dish with me, will betray me. The Son of Man is going to his fate, as the scriptures say he will, but alas for that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! Better for that man if he had never been born!
- N Judas, who was to betray him, asked in his turn,
- O Not I, Rabbi, surely?
- N Jesus answered:
- J They are your own words.
- N Now as they were eating, Jesus took some bread, and when he had said the blessing he broke it and gave it to the disciples and said:
- J Take it and eat; this is my body.
- N Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them saying:
- J Drink all of you from this, for this is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. From now on, I tell you, I shall not drink wine until the day I drink the new wine with you in the kingdom of my Father.
- N After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives. Then Jesus said to them,
- J You will all lose faith in me this night, for the scripture says: I shall strike the shepherd and the flock will be scattered. But after my resurrection I shall go before you to Galilee.

- N It was at this time that Jesus said to the crowds:
- J Am I a brigand, that you had to set out to capture me with swords and clubs? I sat teaching in the Temple day after day and you never laid hands on me.
- N Now all this happened to fulfil the prophecies in scripture.
- Then all the disciples deserted him and ran away. The men who had arrested Jesus led him off to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and elders were assembled. Peter followed him at a distance, and when he reached the high priest's palace, he went in and sat down with the attendants to see what the end would be. The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for evidence against Jesus, however false, on which they might pass the death-sentence. But they could not find any, though several lying witnesses came forward. Eventually two stepped forward and made a statement.
- O This man said, 'I have power to destroy the Temple of God and in three days build it up.'
- N The high priest then stood up and said to him:
- O Have you no answer to that? What is the evidence these men are bringing against you?
- N But Jesus was silent. And the high priest said to him:
- O I put you on oath by the living God to tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God.
- N Jesus answered:
- J The words are your own. Moreover, I tell you that from this time onward you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Power and coming on the clouds of heaven.
- N At this, the high priest tore his clothes and said:
- O He has blasphemed. What need of witnesses have we now? There! You have just heard the blasphemy. What is your opinion?
- N They answered:
- C He deserves to die.
- N Then they spat in his face and hit him with their fists; others said as they struck him:
- C Play the prophet, Christ! Who hit you then?
- N Meanwhile Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard and a servant-girl came up to him and said:
- O You too were with Jesus the Galilean.
- N But he denied it in front of them all, saying:
- O I do not know what you are talking about.
- N When he went out to the gateway another servant-girl saw him and said to the people there:
- O This man was with Jesus the Nazarene.
- N And again, with an oath, he denied it.
- O I do not know the man.
- N A little later the bystanders came up and said to Peter:
- C You are one of them for sure! Why, your accent gives you away.
- N Then he started calling down curses on himself and swearing:
- O I do not know the man.
- N At that moment the cock crew, and Peter remembered what Jesus had said, 'Before the cock crows you will have disowned me three times.'
- And he went outside and wept bitterly.

- When morning came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people met in council to bring about the death of Jesus. They had him bound, and led him away to hand him over to Pilate, the governor. When he found that Jesus had been condemned, Judas his betrayer was filled with remorse and took the thirty pieces of silver back to the chief priests and elders, saying:
- O I have sinned. I have betrayed innocent blood.
- N They replied:
- C What is that to us? That is your concern.
- N And flinging down the silver pieces in the sanctuary he made off, and went and hanged himself. The chief priests picked up the silver pieces and said:
- C It is against the Law to put this into the treasury. It is blood money.
- N So they discussed the matter and bought the potter's field with it as a graveyard for foreigners, and this is why the field is called the Field of Blood today. The words of the prophet Jeremiah were then fulfilled: And they took the thirty silver pieces, the sum at which the precious One was priced by children of Israel, and they gave them for the potter's field, just as the Lord directed me. Jesus, then, was brought before the governor, and the governor put to him this question:
- O Are you the king of the Jews?
- N Jesus replied:
- J It is you who say it.
- N But when he was accused by the chief priests and the elders he refused to answer at all.
- Pilate then said to him:
- O Do you not hear how many charges they have brought against you?
- N But to the governor's complete amazement, he offered no reply to any of the charges.
- At festival time it was the governor's practice to release a prisoner for the people, anyone they chose. Now there was at this time a notorious prisoner whose name was Barabbas. So when the crowd gathered Pilate said to them,
- O Which do you want me to release for you: Barabbas or Jesus who is called the Christ?
- N For Pilate knew it was out of jealousy that they had handed him over. Now as he was seated in the chair of judgement, his wife sent him a message.
- O Have nothing to do with that man; I have been upset all day by a dream I had about him.
- N The chief priests and the elders, however, had persuaded the crowd to demand the release of Barabbas and the execution of Jesus. So when the governor spoke and asked them:
- O Which of the two do you want me to release for you?
- N They said:
- C Barabbas.
- N Pilate said to them:
- O What am I to do with Jesus who is called Christ?
- N They all said:
- C Let him be crucified!
