

Gospel Acclamation See Apoc 1:8

*Alleluia, alleluia!
 Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
 to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
 Alleluia!*

Gospel Jn 16:12-15

Whatever the Father has is mine. The Spirit will receive what I give and tell you about it.

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSA

Both the first reading and the psalm response celebrate the marvels of creation and the marvelous creator who brought them into being. Proverbs states that God created all of these things through Wisdom. While later theology will identify Wisdom with both the Word of God, the second person of the Trinity, and the Holy Spirit, the third person, the reading itself does not suggest this.

Paul credits God with our justification through faith. Justification or salvation is accomplished by God through our Lord Jesus Christ. The love of God is poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. Paul does not clearly state that the love of God that we receive through the Holy Spirit sanctifies us, but one could certainly understand it in this way.

John's theology resembles very closely that of Paul. In it, Jesus reveals the intimate connection between himself and the Father as well as himself and the Spirit. The Spirit continues the mission of Jesus, neither adding anything to his teaching nor omitting anything from it.

While this is a feast that glorifies the central mystery of our faith, a mystery that is based on the way the three divine persons relate to each other, the readings all address ways that God relates to us. If we concentrate, as the texts for today suggest that we do, on all of the ways that our Triune God has blessed us, we may be more inclined to cry out with the psalmist: 'O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!'

First Reading Prv 8:22-31

Wisdom was born before the earth was made.

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:

The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded,
 before the oldest of his works.
 From everlasting I was firmly set,
 from the beginning, before earth came into being.
 The deep was not, when I was born,
 there were no springs to gush with water.
 Before the mountains were settled,
 before the hills, I came to birth;
 before he made the earth, the countryside,
 or the first grains of the world's dust.
 When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there,
 when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep,
 when he thickened the clouds above,
 when he fixed fast the springs of the deep,
 when he assigned the sea its boundaries
 - and the waters will not invade the shore -
 when he laid down the foundations of the earth,
 I was by his side, a master craftsman,
 delighting him day after day,
 ever at play in his presence,
 at play everywhere in his world,
 delighting to be with the sons of men.

1. When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
 the moon and the stars which you arranged,
 what is man that you should keep him in mind,
 mortal man that you care for him? (R.)
2. Yet you have made him little less than a god;
 with glory and honour you crowned him,
 gave him power over the works of your hand,
 put all things under his feet. (R.)
3. All of them, sheep and cattle,
 yes, even the savage beasts,
 birds of the air, and fish
 that make their way through the waters. (R.)

Second Reading Rom 5:1-5

To God through Christ in the love which is poured out through the Spirit.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 8:4-9. R. v.2

*(R.) O Lord, our God,
 how wonderful your name
 in all the earth!*

PARISH NEWS

NO 9.15AM MORNING MASS: Tuesday 14 June-Friday, 17 June

There will be no Morning Mass at St Peter's Church from Tuesday, 14th June until Friday, 17th June due to the annual Clergy Conference(our visiting Priests will be attending the Conference).

There will be Mass Tues-Fri at St John Bosco's Church, Niddrie commencing at 9.00am. St Martin de Porres Church, Avondale Heights are having a Communion Service Tuesday-Friday at 9.15am.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL WINTER APPEAL – 18/19 JUNE Members of the local St Vincent de Paul Group continued to assist families in need during the difficulties of the last two years. Those in need are still in our community and members respond with assistance as best we can. The Parishes (St Peter's and St Martin's) and Schools have been wonderful partners making this possible. You can continue to assist those in need within our community by donating to the Vinnies Winter Appeal on-line at <https://donate.vinnies.org.au/winter-appeal>, or by making donations into the boxes provided in the Churches. (Our SVDP donations box is located permanently at the back of the Church near where the Audio Visual equipment is kept.)

Last year, sixty households were provided with a total of $36,000 in assistance including a more inclusive Christmas (your donated toys and gifts) for fifty children.

Most of our funding comes from Vinnies Stores - volunteers (sorting of donations or sales) are urgently required as are all donations of high quality clothing, homewares and electrical goods. Donations may be made directly at our Ascot Vale and Niddrie stores. New members to assist with Home Visits are always welcome.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)

Are you interested in becoming a Catholic or do you know someone who is? Are you a person in search of the meaning of life? Are you a Christian wishing to find out more about the Catholic Church? Are you a Catholic looking for an adult appreciation of your faith? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the normal process by which the Catholic Church welcomes new members, and we will walk with you on your journey of discovery. This journey of discovery begins with a time of discernment and Enquiry, continues through a period of Catechumenate, reaches its highpoint at the celebration of Easter, and concludes with a period of further deepening of and living the Christian faith. There will be a series of Enquiry Nights for those interested in learning more about becoming a Catholic. They will take place on Tuesdays 12th, 19th & 26th July at 7.30pm in the Parish Centre Meeting Room. For further info, please contact Mrs Teresa Paradowski on 9337 3103.

NATIONAL REFUGEE WEEK 19/6/22-25/6/22 PRAYER SERVICE Catholics across Australia are invited to participate in a special Refugee Week prayer service, which will be streamed online on the evening of Monday 20 June. The prayer service is being jointly hosted by the Australian Catholic Migrant and Refugee Office and the Office for Justice, Ecology and Peace. The theme for Refugee Week 2022 is Healing. As the Refugee Council of Australia explains, 'healing can occur through storytelling, through community and also through realisation of our intrinsic interconnectedness as individuals.' The online prayer service will engage these elements by gathering the Catholic community, telling stories through the medium of video and praying together as sisters and brothers in Christ. Bishop Vincent Long OFMConv, will lead the online prayer service. Details: <https://socialjustice.catholic.org.au/2022/05/23/refugee-week-prayer-service/>
