PUBLIC LECTURE: SEPARATING SACRAMENTAL & SECULAR MARRIAGE: A PROPOSAL

Wednesday 2 July, 6:30pm - 8pm. With rising divorce and separation rates, problems over annulments and the clamour for gay marriage, some would see the institution of marriage as under threat. Within this conflict one solution to at least some of the problems would be to separate sacramental marriage from secular marriage. In this talk Prof Griffiths will explore just what this might mean. Paul Griffiths is the Warren Professor of Theology at Duke University. His main intellectual interests and topics of publication include: post-1950 Catholic philosophical theology questions arising from religious diversity; Augustine; and Gupta-period Indian Buddhist thought. The most recent book is Song of Songs: A Commentary and his current project has the working title: Contracting Intimacy: A Theology of Sex, Marriage, and the Law. Mercy Lecture Theatre, Australian Catholic University, 115 Victoria Pde, Fitzroy RSVP: Monday 30 June Contact: Joel.hodge@acu.edu.au

St. Vincent de Paul Parish Prayer

Loving God, through St Vincent de Paul, we seek your guidance and constant protection, for our parish community.

Gathered together as your people, we come as we are, to live out the Gospel message, in a faithfilled, welcoming and caring community.

Grant us your help in our weakness, that we may proclaim to all, your abundant goodness.

We praise and thank you for your gifts given freely, to share with one another.

May we never lose faith in you and always strive to live, in a spirit of strength and gentleness.

On our journey, may we be an example of your love, to those we meet.

Loving God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
may you always watch over us in all we do.

Amen

St Peter & St Paul

What a contrast we find in these two Apostles.

Peter, a fisherman, invited to follow Jesus, took up the invitation extended by his brother Andrew, who said 'I think we have found the Messiah'. Peter a strong man was also as human as any. As we know, he denied Jesus, under the pressure of being persecuted. He doubted on many occasions and yet through all these weaknesses through his humanity he loved Jesus. Peter was entrusted with the responsibility of leading the Church when Jesus returned to heaven.

Paul, was a terror. He was invited to change from persecutor to teacher and preacher. Paul also had his failings and was always quick to acknowledge these. With veracity he spread the message of Christianity determined to bring the Good News to the pagans. He also encouraged through his many letters, that we must love the Lord, 'with all our heart, mind, soul and above all strength.

We can learn from the example of both these men, through our own weakness and failure, in our humanity, the strength and love of God who also invites us to know, we are not alone.

Entrance Antiphon: These are the ones who, living in the flesh, planted the Church with their blood; they drank the chalice of the Lord and became the friends of God.

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord set me free from all my fears.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia! You are Peter, the rock on which I will build my Church; the gates of hell will not hold out against it. Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon: Peter said to Jesus; You are Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus replied: You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church.

Visits are undertaken by two volunteers together for a short stay on a regular basis to provide continuity and build a positive relationship with the person being visited. This group is now looking for extra volunteers to assist with visits so if you are willing to commit an hour of your time on a regular basis and feel you would be suited to helping out in this way please send an email to John Grant – principal@svstrathmore.catholic.edu.au Parish office – Strathmore@cam.org.au or leave a message at the Parish office on 93791488. Likewise if you know of an elderly person that may benefit from this program please let us know so we can assist where possible.
