Dear friends, I warmly invite you all to come along to what will surely be a delightful and entertaining evening. St Kevin's will be hosting a much anticipated BOLLYWOOD NIGHT (see add on left) from 7pm on Saturday, 2nd June. It's a great opportunity to gather a few family and friends, make up a table and embrace this exciting fun cultural night.

Also, this Sunday night, after the 5pm Youth Mass at St Patrick's, our Emmaus Young Adults (18-35) will gather for a feast of food, friendship, and engagement. This evening's feature will be an open discussion with Joan & Chris White from the St Vincent de Paul Society about the genuine needs and circumstances of the people in our local community. This will surely be a moving and eye-opening event.

Finally, could I ask you to pray for our up and coming Stewardship Program: PARISH LIFE: Faith/Community/Future. We pray that our good God will renew and transform our Parishes of St Kevin's and St Patrick's to be vibrant communities of faith, hope and love which engage and welcome all - especially those most in need.

How blessed we are not to be alone and to have faith in Jesus, a faith that gives true purpose in our lives.

God bless. Fr Paul

CHAPLAINCY FUND APPEAL - SUNDAY, 20TH MAY

Give hope by giving generously to Chaplaincy Sunday.

The Melbourne Catholic Archbishop's Charitable Fund will be conducting its annual Chaplaincy Sunday Appeal in parishes to support the vital work of Catholic Chaplains in our community this coming Sunday. Our focus for 2018 is Prison Chaplaincy. The relationship and collaboration between prisoners and Chaplains whilst they are in prison is vital to restoring them back onto the road again to re-join society. Chaplains will be supporting people who are in custody, young people in the youth justice facilities, patients and their families in hospital, people living with HIV/AIDS and Seafarers.

PARISH FACEBOOK PAGE OFF TO A GREAT START

When you're next surfing online don't forget to check out our Facebook Page: facebook.com/celticparishes. You will surely find something there of inspiration and engagement. Please like/love the posts and share it far & wide.

A SPECIAL WORD OF THANKS...

To the many, many, many generous and hidden souls in our parishes who quietly and humbly serve in countless ways to make what we do a blessing to each other and to the honour of God — THANK YOU!!!

Compendium

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

87. In what way is Jesus Christ true God and true man?

Jesus is inseparably true God and true man in the unity of his divine Person. As the Son of God, who is "begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father," he was made true man, our brother, without ceasing to be God, our Lord.

88. What does the Council of Chalcedon (in the year 451) teach in this regard?

The Council of Chalcedon teaches us to confess "one and the same Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, perfect in his humanity, true God and true man, composed of rational soul and body, consubstantial with the Father by his divinity, and consubstantial with us by his humanity, 'like us in all things but sin' (Hebrews 4:15), begotten from the Father before all ages as to his divinity, and in these last days, for us and for our salvation, born of Mary, the Virgin and Mother of God, as to his humanity."

89. How does the Church set forth the Mystery of the Incarnation? The Church confesses that Jesus Christ is true God and true man, with two natures, a divine nature and a human nature, not confused with each other but united in the Person of the Word.

"Nothing seems tiresome or painful when you are working for a Master who pays well."
St Dominic Savio

Our "destiny" is to live in friendship with Jesus"

We have received our friendship with Jesus by "lot", that is by "destiny", not by "chance", and our vocation is precisely to remain friends of the Lord.

Pope Francis made the exhortation in his homily at Mass Monday morning at the Vatican's Casa Santa Marta residence. The Pope based his reflection on the word "lot" that occurs a few times in the day's Mass readings and a prayer on the feast of St. Matthias, who was chosen by lot to fill the place of Judas Iscariot who betrayed Jesus. The Pope said we have received this gift of friendship with the Lord as our destiny, and our vocation is to live as His friends.

All Christians, the Pope said, have received this gift of friendship, which the apostles received to a "stronger" degree. It is a gift that the Lord always cherishes, faithful to this gift. Many times, however, the Pope explained, we are not so faithful and distance ourselves from Him "with our sins, with our whims" but Jesus is "faithful to His friendship". In the day's Gospel, he said, Jesus no longer calls us "servants" but "friends" and keeps His word until the end because He is faithful. The last word to Judas before his betrayal, the Pope recalled, was "friend" and not "get out" from Jesus.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole world and that which contains all things understands what is said, alleluia.

FIRST READING (Acts 2:1-11)

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech. Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome - Jews and proselytes alike - Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 103:1, 24, 29-31, 34)

(R.) Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth. Bless the Lord, my soul! Lord God, how great you are, How many are your works, O Lord! the earth is full of your riches. (R.)

You take back your spirit, they die, returning to the dust from which they came. You send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the earth. (R.)

May the glory of the Lord last for ever! May the Lord rejoice in his works! May my thoughts be pleasing to him. I find my joy in the Lord. (R.)

SECOND READING (1 Cor 12:3-7, 12-13)

No one can say, 'Jesus is Lord' unless he is under the influence of the Holy Spirit. There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose. Just as a human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit because all these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ. In the one Spirit we were all baptised, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as citizens, and one Spirit was given to us all to drink.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia!

GOSPEL (Jn 20:19-23)

In the evening of the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you. 'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.' After saying this he breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke of the marvels of God, alleluia.
