ADULT FAITH FORMATION

After a very well received Basic Introduction to the Bible short course we will be offering other opportunities in the near future for Adult Faith Formation. We all deserve and need a mature adult understanding of our faith, opportunities to discuss and ask questions. This also builds up our communities and nurtures Christian friendship in an often critical and morally permissive world.

We are inclined to have four short courses each year (may six weeks each) and welcome suggestions for themes or speakers. Proposals so far include: spirituality, church teaching, personal support, church history, relationships, Bible studies, the Saints, Question & Answer and much more. Please share your thoughts with Fr Paul, Carlo or the Parish Office as we want to make sure that we are responding to your needs.

WEEKEND MASS TIMES

6pm Vigil Mass (St Kevin's), 9am Family Mass (St Patrick's)
10:30am Family Mass (St Kevin's), 5pm Youth Mass (St Patrick's)

RECONCILIATION TIMES

9:45am Saturdays (St Patrick's)
5:30pm Saturdays (St Kevin's)

PARISH STEWARDSHIP PROGRAM 2018

Our Parish Stewardship Program begins next week – commencing with our Welcome Weekend. The Program recognises that ‘Parishes are the Heartbeat of the Church’ and will challenge us to reflect on what it means to be a member of our parish community. We encourage you to be actively involved – read the materials, listen to the speakers and follow the Program on our parish Facebook: facebook.com/celticparishes. Reflect, pray about and discuss the themes and topics with your family, friends and fellow parishioners. All parishioners are warmly invited to a special forum as part of the Program – ‘Our Future’ Forum to be held at Rovira House on Tuesday 19th June at 7:30 pm. This is a great opportunity to make your contribution to the discussion. You will hear about the values we hold dear, our recent achievements and the priorities we have for the future. Please mark this date in your calendar and choose to attend a session time that suits you. Full Program details will be available on the dedicated Facebook page which will be updated regularly throughout the Program. Together we pray for the success of the Program.

CHAPLAINCY FUND APPEAL - SUNDAY, 27TH MAY

Last weekend, we conducted the annual Chaplaincy Sunday Appeal in the Archdiocese of Melbourne. There was a special collection in all parishes for the purpose of supporting the vital work of our Catholic Chaplains. Within the prison system and across the broader community, Chaplains also advocate for alternatives to incarceration and promote the development and understanding of Restorative justice. Thankyou to those who have donated to this important Appeal. For those who still wish to donate, you can return the envelope with your donation to the parish in the coming weeks or send it directly to the Archdiocese. Donations raised are directed towards Chaplains who work with people who are in custody, young people in the youth justice facilities, patients and their families in hospital, people living with HIV/AIDS and Seafarers.

Compendium

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

“The Holy Spirit changes hearts”

90. Did the incarnate Son of God have a soul with human knowledge? The Son of God assumed a body animated by a rational human soul. With his human intellect Jesus learned many things by way of experience; but also as man the Son of God had an intimate and immediate knowledge of God his Father. He likewise understood people’s secret thoughts and he knew fully the eternal plans which he had come to reveal.

91. How did the two wills of the incarnate Word cooperate? Jesus had a divine will and a human will. In his earthly life the Son of God humanly willed all that he had divinely decided with the Father and the Holy Spirit for our salvation. The human will of Christ followed without opposition or reluctance the divine will or, in other words, it was subject to it.

92. Did Christ have a true human body? Christ assumed a true human body by means of which the invisible God became visible. This is the reason why Christ can be represented and venerated in sacred images.

93. What does the heart of Jesus exemplify? Jesus knew us and loved us with a human heart. His Heart, pierced for our salvation, is the symbol of that infinite love with which he loves the Father and each one of us.

In his homily on Pentecost Sunday delivered before thousands of the faithful gathered in St Peter's Basilica, Pope Francis focused on the action of the Holy Spirit expressed in the Scripture readings from the Acts of the Apostles, St Paul's letter to the Galatians, and St John's Gospel. The Spirit transforms the hearts of the timid disciples from fearful men, “huddled behind closed doors”, to bold men who “bear witness to Jesus” (John 15:27), the Pope said. His action frees hearts, impels service, guides people in new directions, and makes “the lukewarm thrill to new dreams. That is what it means to change hearts”, Pope Francis said.

Pope Francis suggests that since the Holy Spirit provokes change that we turn to Him for a “powerful ‘jolt’ ” when “we are in need of real change”. He is “the power of God” and the “giver of life”. “How good it would be for us each day to feel this jolt of life! To say when we wake up each morning: ‘Come, Holy Spirit, come into my heart, come into my day’ ”, the Pope said.

The Holy Spirit “penetrates the most unimaginable situations”, Pope Francis continued. He does so today just as he did in the Acts of the Apostles.

You just know that your name is safe in their mouth.”

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Blessed be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love.

FIRST READING (Deut 4:32-34, 39-40)

Moses said to the people: 'Put this question to the ages that are past, that went before you, from the time God created man on earth: Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything ever heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you heard it, and remain alive? Has any god ventured to take to himself one nation from the midst of another by ordeals, signs, wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors? All this that the Lord your God did for you before your eyes in Egypt.' 'Understand this today, therefore, and take it to heart: The Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other. Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today so that you and your children may prosper and live long in the land that the Lord your God gives you for ever.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Psalms 32:4-6, 9, 18-20, 22)

(R.) Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. (R.)

With his word the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all the stars. He spoke; and they came to be. He commanded; they sprang into being. (R.)

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. (R.)

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. (R.)

SECOND READING (Rom 8:14-17)

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well:

heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

GOSPEL (Mathew 28:16-20)

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS

*Exodus 24:3-8, Hebrew 9:11-15,
Mark 14: 12-16, 22-26*
