ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Hear the word of the Lord, O nations; declare it to the distant lands: Behold, our Saviour will come; you need no longer fear.

READING: Is 35:1-10

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Let the wilderness and the dry-lands exult, let the wasteland rejoice and bloom,
let it bring forth flowers like the jonquil,
let it rejoice and sing for joy.
The glory of Lebanon is bestowed on it,
the splendour of Carmel and Sharon;
they shall see the glory of the Lord,
the splendour of our God.
Strengthen all weary hands, steady all trembling knees and say to all faint hearts,
'Courage! Do not be afraid.
'Look, your God is coming,
vengeance is coming,
the retribution of God;
he is coming to save you.'
Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
the ears of the deaf unsealed, then the lame shall leap like a deer and the tongues of the dumb sing for joy;
for water gushes in the desert,
streams in the wasteland,
the scorched earth becomes a lake,
the parched land springs of water.
The lairs where the jackals used to live become thickets of reed and papyrus.
And through it will run a highway undefiled which shall be called the Sacred Way;
the unclean may not travel by it,
nor fools stray along it.
No lion will be there nor any fierce beast roam about it, but the redeemed will walk there,
for those the Lord has ransomed shall return.
They will come to Zion shouting for joy, everlasting joy on their faces;
joy and gladness will go with them and sorrow and lament be ended.

The Word of the Lord.R. Thanks be to God.PSALM: Our God will come to save us!ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia!*Behold, the king will come, the Lord of earth: and he will set us free. Alleluia!GOSPEL: Lk 5:17-26A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus was teaching one day, and among the audience there were Pharisees and doctors of the Law who had come from every village in Galilee, from Judaea and from Jerusalem. And the Power of the Lord was behind his works of healing. Then some men appeared, carrying on a bed a paralysed man whom they were trying to bring in and lay down in front of him. But as the crowd made it impossible to find a way of getting him in, they went up on the flat roof and lowered him and his stretcher down through the tiles into the middle of the gathering, in front of Jesus. Seeing their faith he said, 'My friend, your sins are forgiven you.' The scribes and the Pharisees began to think this over. 'Who is this man talking blasphemy? Who can forgive sins but God alone?' But Jesus, aware of their thoughts, made them this reply, 'What are these thoughts you have in your hearts? Which of these is easier to say, "Your sins are forgiven you" or to say "Get up and walk?" But to prove to you that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins', – he said to the paralysed man – 'I order you: get up, and pick up your stretcher and go home.' And immediately before their very eyes he got up, picked up what he had been lying on and went home praising God.

They were all astounded and praised God, and were filled with awe, saying, 'We have seen strange things today.'

TUESDAY OF THE SECOND WEEK OF ADVENT

Mass of the Day

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Behold, the Lord will come, and all his holy ones with him; and on that day there will be a great light.

READING: Is 40:1-11

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

'Console my people, console them' says your God.

'Speak to the heart of Jerusalem and call to her that her time of service is ended, that her sin is atoned for,

that she has received from the hand of the Lord double punishment for all her crimes.'

A voice cries, 'Prepare in the wilderness a way for the Lord.

Make a straight highway for our God across the desert.

Let every valley be filled in,
every mountain and hill be laid low, let every cliff become a plain,
and the ridges a valley;
then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all mankind shall see it;

for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.'
A voice commands: 'Cry!'

and I answered, 'What shall I cry?'
—'All flesh is grass and its beauty like the wild flower's.

The grass withers, the flower fades
when the breath of the Lord blows on them.
(The grass is without doubt the people.)

The grass withers, the flower fades,
but the word of our God remains for ever.'

Go up on a high mountain, joyful messenger to Zion.

Shout with a loud voice, joyful messenger to Jerusalem.

Shout without fear,
say to the towns of Judah,
'Here is your God.'

Here is the Lord coming with power, his arm subduing all things to him.

The prize of his victory is with him, his trophies all go before him.

He is like a shepherd feeding his flock, gathering lambs in his arms, holding them against his breast and leading to their rest the mother ewes.

The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

PSALM: The Lord our God comes in strength.

ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia!

The day of the Lord is near: he comes to save us.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mt 18:12-14

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Tell me. Suppose a man has a hundred sheep and one of them strays; will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hillside and go in search of the stray? I tell you solemnly, if he finds it, it gives him more joy than do the ninety-nine that did not stray at all. Similarly, it is never the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost.'

The Gospel of the Lord

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: The Just Judge will bestow a crown of righteousness on those who eagerly await his coming.

WEDNESDAY OF THE SECOND WEEK OF ADVENT

Memorial of St Ambrose

(Alternative Readings used)

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: In the midst of the Church he opened his mouth, and the Lord filled him with the spirit of wisdom and understanding and clothed him in a robe of glory.

FIRST READING: Eph 3:8-12

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

I, who am less than the least of all the saints, have been entrusted with this special grace, not only of proclaiming to the pagans the infinite treasure of Christ but also of explaining how the mystery is to be dispensed. Through all the ages, this has been kept hidden in God, the creator of everything. Why? So that the Sovereignities and Powers should learn only now, through the Church, how comprehensive God's wisdom really is, exactly according to the plan which he had had from all eternity in Christ Jesus our Lord. This is why we are bold enough to approach God in complete confidence, through our faith in him.

The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

PSALM: For ever I will sing and goodness of the Lord.

ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my own sheep, and mine know me. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Jn 10:11-16

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus said:

'I am the good shepherd:
the good shepherd is one who lays down his life for his sheep.

The hired man, since he is not the shepherd and the sheep do not belong to him, abandons the sheep and runs away as soon as he sees a wolf coming, and then the wolf attacks and scatters the sheep;
this is because he is only a hired man and has no concern for the sheep.

I am the good shepherd;
I know my own
and my own know me just as the Father knows me and I know the Father;
and I lay down my life for my sheep.
And there are other sheep I have that are not of this fold, and these I have to lead as well.
They too will listen to my voice,
and there will be only one flock,
and one shepherd.'

The Gospel of the Lord

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: He who ponders the law of the Lord day and night will yield fruit in due season.

THURSDAY OF THE SECOND WEEK OF ADVENT

The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: I rejoice heartily in the Lord, in my God is the joy of my soul; for he has clothed me with a robe of salvation, and wrapped me in a mantle of justice, like a bride adorned with her jewels.

The Glory to God in the highest is said.

FIRST READING: Gen 3:9-15. 20

A reading from the book of Genesis

After Adam had eaten of the tree the Lord God called to him, 'Where are you?' he asked. 'I heard the sound of you in the garden,' he replied. 'I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.' 'Who told you that you were naked?' he asked. 'Have you been eating of the tree I forbade you to eat?' The man replied, 'It was the woman you put with me; she gave me the fruit, and I ate it.' Then the Lord God asked the woman, 'What is this you have done?' The woman replied, 'The serpent tempted me and I ate.'

Then the Lord God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this,

'Be accursed beyond all cattle, all wild beasts.

You shall crawl on your belly and eat dust every day of your life.

I will make you enemies of each other:

you and the woman, your offspring and her offspring. It will crush your head and you will strike its heel.'

The man named his wife 'Eve' because she was the mother of all those who live.

The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvellous deeds.

SECOND READING: Eph 1:3-6. 11-12

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ.

Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determining that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ, for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved. And it is in him that we were claimed as God's own, chosen from the beginning, under the predetermined plan of the one who guides all things as he decides by his own will; chosen to be, for his greater glory, the people who would put their hopes in Christ before he came.

The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia!

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you; blessed are you among women. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Lk 1:26-38

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

The angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the House of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. He went in and said to her, 'Rejoice, so highly favoured! The Lord is with you.' She was deeply disturbed by these words and asked herself what this greeting could mean, but the angel said to her, 'Mary, do not be afraid; you have won God's favour. Listen! You are to conceive and bear a son, and you must name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his ancestor David; he will rule over the House of Jacob for ever and his reign will have no end.' Mary said to the angel, 'But how can this come about, since I am a virgin?' 'The Holy Spirit will come upon you' the angel answered 'and the power of the Most High will cover you with its shadow. And so the child will be holy and will be called Son of God. Know this too: your kinswoman Elizabeth has, in her old age, herself conceived a son, and she whom people called barren is now in her sixth month, for nothing is impossible to God.' 'I am the handmaid of the Lord,' said Mary 'let what you have said be done to me.' And the angel left her.

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Thus says the Lord, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:

I, the Lord, your God, teach you what is good for you, I lead you in the way that you must go.

If only you had been alert to my commandments, your happiness would have been like a river, your integrity like the waves of the sea.

Your children would have been numbered like the sand, your descendants as many as its grains.

Never would your name have been cut off or blotted out before me.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL: Mt 11:16-19

A reading from the holy gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus spoke to the crowds: 'What description can I find for this generation? It is like children shouting to each other as they sit in the market place:

"We played the pipes for you, and you wouldn't dance; we sang dirges, and you wouldn't be mourners."

'For John came, neither eating nor drinking, and they say, "He is possessed." The Son of Man came, eating and drinking, and they say, "Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners." Yet wisdom has been proved right by her actions.'

The Gospel of the Lord

SATURDAY OF THE FIRST WEEK OF ADVENT

Mass of the Day

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Come and show us your face, O Lord, who are seated upon the Cherubim, and we will be saved.

READING: Sir 48:1-4. 9-11

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

The prophet Elijah arose like a fire, his word flaring like a torch.

It was he who brought famine on them, and who decimated them in his zeal.

By the word of the Lord, he shut up the heavens, he also, three times, brought down fire.

How glorious you were in your miracles, Elijah!

Has anyone reason to boast as you have? – taken up in the whirlwind of fire, in a chariot with fiery horses;

designated in the prophecies of doom

to allay God's wrath before the fury breaks, to turn the hearts of fathers towards their children, and to restore the tribes of Jacob.

Happy shall they be who see you, and those who have fallen asleep in love.

The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Lord, make us turn to you, let us see your face and we shall be saved.

ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia! Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths; all people shall see the salvation of God. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mt 17:10-13

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

As they came down from the mountain the disciples put this question to Jesus, 'Why do the scribes say that Elijah has to come first?' 'True' he replied; 'Elijah is to come to see that everything is once more as it should be; however, I tell you that Elijah has come already and they did not recognise him but treated him as they pleased; and the Son of Man will suffer similarly at their hands.' The disciples understood then that he had been speaking of John the Baptist.

The Gospel of the Lord

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Behold, I am coming soon and my recompense is with me, says the Lord, to bestow a reward according to the deeds of each.
