Thank you

As we say thank you to Archbishop Hart for his seventeen years of leadership and his fifty one years of priesthood in Melbourne, we are grateful for his priestly example of a Good Shepherd in our midst. May this example inspire many others to be 'Good Shepherds' to their brothers and sisters in priesthood and consecrated life. Pray for vocations from our parish community.

GOSPEL

Mk 6:30-34

The apostles rejoined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. Then he said to them, 'You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while'; for there were so many coming and going that the apostles had no time even to eat. So they went off in a boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But people saw them going, and many could guess where; and from every town they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length.

Reflection on Gospel

OVERWHELMED WITH COMPASSION

The disciples return to Jesus full of enthusiasm for the success of their healing and teaching mission. At this early stage of his ministry, Jesus is still widely popular. But his popularity will soon fall away—and turn, eventually, to hostility.

Jesus knows that the disciples could well be carried away by all the enthusiasm their mission is generating. Probably for this reason he takes them to be alone with himself for a while. Earlier, we are told of his going away, after a full day of ministry, to a lonely place to pray (Mark 1:35). He seems to want to school the disciples in the same rhythm of ministry interspersed with rest and the prayerful communion with God that is the necessary source of capacity to heal and to teach.

The attempt to escape the crowds in a boat is not successful. The people go around the lake on foot and are there waiting for Jesus as soon as he disembarks.

So we are presented with the image of the Shepherd-Messiah overcome with compassion. We are invited to look out upon the people through his eyes: to see them as sheep without a shepherd—scattered, leaderless, and ignorant. His longing for rest and quiet has been overwhelmed by compassion for the people and a desire to instill new purpose and understanding through teaching them at some length.

As Pope Francis has not ceased to insist, the task of the Church is to be the instrument of the pastoral compassion of Jesus, looking out through his eyes upon those to whom it is sent.

From the Child Safety Officer - Child Safe Standard 3

"Screening, supervision, training and other human resources practices that reduce the risk of child abuse by new and existing personnel."

Everyone employed or volunteering at St Joseph's is expected to actively commit to ensuring the care, safety, and well-being of children in our Parish. Soon, we'll be asking all our volunteers who may come into contact with children to apply for a Working With Children Check. It's easy to do and completely free. We'll also be asking new volunteers to tell us about their background and experience, and will ensure they understand their responsibilities and our Code of Conduct before they start. Child safety training sessions for all volunteers will be held in the coming months - I'll provide more details closer to the dates.
