THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR C - 30 OCTOBER 2022

Reflection

The change of seasons is always an opportune time to marvel at the magnificence of the natural world of which we are a part. Its colours, its textures, its smells all reflect the limitless imagination of the creator. Perhaps the most marvellous feature of the world is the interconnectedness of all the elements of which it consists. Somehow the spirit of the creator is manifested through each and every aspect of this universe. And we are part of it all. The universe may be as a grain in the balance or a drop of morning dew, but each grain and each drop contains within it the possibilities of the future.

Offering hospitality is a profound social act. When we offer hospitality, we invite another into our world, into our lives. We shift our attention from our own cares and concerns to the needs and comfort of the other. By the act of hospitality we transform strangers into friends and intimates, just as Jesus did with Zacchaeus. The hospitality that Jesus offers dissolves all constraints. Relationships disregard the biased measures of propriety, forging bonds of reconciliation and issuing everyone an invitation to intimacy. The hospitality that Jesus offers recreates the world from one of insider versus outsider to one of universal inclusivity. Sinners become friends, the lost are found, and all are restored to the rightful place as children not merely of Abraham but of God. The creativity of the creator is matched by the compassion of the re-creator.

REMEMBRANCE BOOK

Please add the names of your loved ones who have died in the last year (from November 2021 to October 2022) into the Remembrance Book which is in the church.

On Wednesday, 2nd November (All Souls Day) and on Sunday 6th November, we will remember our dearly departed loved ones.

PRAYER FOR ALL SAINTS DAY
Tuesday, 1st November 2022

God, source of all holiness,
 You have enriched your church
 with many gifts in the saints.
 Direct, O Lord, our actions
 by Your holy inspirations,
 And carry them on
 by Your gracious assistance,
 That every prayer
 and work of ours
 may always begin with You,
 And through You
 be happily ended.
 Amen

PRAYER OF COMMEMORATION OF
 ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED
(All Souls Day) Wednesday, 2nd November 2022

Merciful Father,
 Hear our prayer and console us.
 As we renew our faith in Your Son, whom you raised from the dead, strengthen our hope that all our departed brothers and sisters will share in His resurrection, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

*Eternal Rest grant unto them, O Lord,
 And let perpetual light shine upon them.
 May they rest in peace.*

Archbishop Peter A. Comensoli is inviting young people, ages 16-35, across the Archdiocese to journey with him to Lisbon, Portugal for World Youth Day in 2023.

This is a life-changing opportunity for our youth to experience their Catholic faith with more than a million young people from around the world.

There are six information sessions at Regional Youth Gatherings around Melbourne this month to help parish leaders, priests, parents and of course young people learn more about this opportunity.

SOCIETY OF ST VINCENT DE PAUL'S FLOOD APPEAL

Archbishop Peter A. Comensoli is requesting our parish communities to contribute to the Society of St Vincent de Paul's Flood Appeal.

Contributions can be made by:

1. Calling 13 18 12
2. Visiting <https://donate.vinnies.org.au/appeals-vic/vinnies-vic-flood-appeal-2022>
3. Via our local IGA where the purchase of a token supports the recovery of Victorians devastated by these recent floods.

Let us pray for all who are impacted by the floods as well as the volunteers and emergency workers assisting them in their needs at this challenging time.

Please contact the parish office for information on Tel: (03) 9568 7365.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Forsake me not, O Lord, my God; be not far from me! Make haste and come to my help, O Lord, my strong salvation.

FIRST READING: Wis 11:22-12:2

A reading from the book of Wisdom

In your sight, Lord, the whole world is like a grain of dust that tips the scales, like a drop of morning dew falling on the ground.

Yet you are merciful to all, because you can do all things and overlook men's sins so that they can repent.

Yes, you love all that exists, you hold nothing of what you have made in abhorrence, for had you hated anything, you would not have formed it.

And how, had you not willed it, could a thing persist, how be conserved if not called forth by you?

You spare all things because all things are yours, Lord, lover of life, you whose imperishable spirit is in all.

Little by little, therefore, you correct those who offend, you admonish and remind them of how they have sinned, so that they may abstain from evil and trust in you, Lord.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God!

PSALM: 144:1-2. 8-11. 13-14. R. see v.1

I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God!

SECOND READING: 2 Thes 1:11—2:2

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

We pray continually that our God will make you worthy of his call, and by his power fulfil all your desires for goodness and complete all that you have been doing through faith; because in this way the name of our Lord Jesus Christ will be glorified in you and you in him, by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

To turn now, brothers, to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and how we shall all be gathered round him: please do not get excited too soon or alarmed by any prediction or rumour or any letter claiming to come from us, implying that the Day of the Lord has already arrived.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, Alleluia!

God loved the world so much, he gave his only Son, that all who believe in him might have eternal life. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Luke 19:1-10

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus entered Jericho and was going through the town when a man whose name was Zacchaeus made his appearance; he was one of the senior tax collectors and a wealthy man. He was anxious to see what kind of man Jesus was, but he was too short and could not see him for the crowd; so he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus who was to pass that way. When Jesus reached the spot he looked up and spoke to him: 'Zacchaeus, come down. Hurry, because I must stay at your house today.' And he hurried down and welcomed him joyfully. They all complained when they saw what was happening. 'He has gone to stay at a sinner's house' they said. But Zacchaeus stood his ground and said to the Lord, 'Look, sir, I am going to give half my property to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody I will pay him back four times the amount.' And Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because this man too is a son of Abraham; for the Son of Man has come to seek out and save what was lost.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord, Jesus Christ!

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, O Lord.
