Jesus' Call

What do you do when Jesus calls?

What is the appropriate response to Christ?

This is the question that four young fishermen faced one morning along the shores of Galilee.

And it is a question that we must still face today. Jesus continue to issue his call to us through the preaching of the gospel and the drawing power of the Holy Spirit. When Jesus calls you, what will you do? How will you respond?

To the parishioners of St. Patrick's and St Kevin's,

Soon we will enter into season of Lent. Lent is a time specially set apart by the Holy Mother Church for the spiritual renewal of her daughters and sons. Therefore, it's our responsibility to plan ahead in time for spiritual activities that will specifically help our parishioners. In order to achieve spiritual renewal, we need separate liturgy committees for both parishes. Therefore, could I kindly request for volunteers approximately 5 each preferably men and women.

Thank you and God bless your generosity.

- Fr Siby

THURSDAY ADORATION AFTER MASS

REVISED ROSTER FOR READERS

The Revised Roster for Readers will be published next week and will take effect on the weekend of 6-7 February 2021.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

O sing a new song to the Lord; sing to the Lord, all the earth. In his presence are majesty and splendour, strength and honour in his holy place.

FIRST READING Jonah 3:1-5, 10

The word of the Lord was addressed to Jonah: 'Up!' he said 'Go to Nineveh, the great city, and preach to them as I told you to.' Jonah set out and went to Nineveh in obedience to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was a city great beyond compare: it took three days to cross it. Jonah went on into the city, making a day's journey. He preached in these words, 'Only forty days more and Nineveh is going to be destroyed.' And the people of Nineveh believed in God; they proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least. God saw their efforts to renounce their evil behaviour. And God relented: he did not inflict on them the disaster which he had threatened.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 24
(R.) Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Lord, make me know your ways.
Lord, teach me your paths.
Make me walk in your truth, and teach me:
for you are God my saviour. (R.)

Remember your mercy, Lord,
and the love you have shown from of old.
In your love remember me,
because of your goodness, O Lord. (R.)

The Lord is good and upright.
He shows the path to those who stray,
he guides the humble in the right path;
he teaches his way to the poor. (R.)

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

Brothers, our time is growing short. Those who have wives should live as though they had none, and those who mourn should live as though they had nothing to mourn for; those who are enjoying life should live as though there were nothing to laugh about; those whose life is buying things should live as though they had nothing of their own; and those who have to deal with the world should not become engrossed in it. I say this because the world as we know it is passing away.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
The kingdom of God is near: believe the Good News!
Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mark 1:14-20

After John had been arrested, Jesus went into Galilee. There he proclaimed the Good News from God. 'The time has come' he said 'and the kingdom of God is close at hand. Repent, and believe the Good News.'

As he was walking along by the Sea of Galilee he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net in the lake – for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you into fishers of men.' And at once they left their nets and followed him.

Going on a little further, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John; they too were in their boat, mending their nets. He called them at once and, leaving their father Zebedee in the boat with the men he employed, they went after him.
