

THE CATHOLIC PARISH OF MENTONE - PARKDALE

SAINT PATRICK - SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year C) : 17th November 2019

FATHER MICHAEL'S MESSAGE

This week, the best response to the High Court's decision will be to read the message from Archbishop Comensoli.

Our nation's tradition of rule by law ensures the best possible outcome in maintaining respect for truth and justice.

Our Christian and human duty is to have a priority in our concern for survivors of injustices and abuse. They deserve to be heard with respect just as the High Court has accorded the same to Cardinal Pell.

Walking this tightrope appears to me to be integral at this time to our fulfilling our mission as Christ's holy people. Let's stay watchful in prayer and charity.

We proclaim a crucified Christ
1Cor.23

STATEMENT FROM MOST REVEREND PETER A COMENSOLI ARCHBISHOP OF MELBOURNE

LEAVE TO APPEAL GRANTED

The High Court has today allowed Cardinal George Pell leave to appeal his conviction and sentence.

Ours is a country that highly values the rule of the law, even when different personal views are held. As this case comes to its concluding phase, many questions remain for the High Court to consider.

Catholics in Melbourne have also experienced much distress, and I acknowledge the women and men, religious and clergy of the Archdiocese who remain dedicated to the care, respect and safety of all in our communities.

I encourage and welcome anyone abused as a child or as a vulnerable person within the Catholic Church to come forward. I renew my commitment to work with them for their healing, recovery and well-being. I also recommit the Archdiocese of Melbourne to a culture that listens, and protects children and vulnerable people now and into the future.

We now await the process of the Appeal and I will be making no further comment until its conclusion.

AUSTRALIAN CATHOLIC YOUTH FESTIVAL

The Australian Catholic Youth Festival, started in 2013, is Australia's largest gathering of Catholic young people who want to share and celebrate their faith.

"Why should I attend the Festival?"

Firstly, there is a sense of community. Often for students in our schools, the faith community is limited to the bounds of school and parish life.

Secondly, the festival is an exploration of the mystery of faith. Once immersed in the life of the festival many young pilgrims report a feeling of wonder they haven't understood before.

Thirdly, there is the experience that the festival can strengthen the concept of the whole person. The Festival is an extension of Catholic education, holistic education, developing the academic and physical, artistic and spiritual attributes of young people. With constant academic pressures these days the spiritual aspects of a young person's development can sometimes be overlooked. This Festival seeks to light a flame for young people and help them ask questions about their spirituality in a place surrounded by a shared faith.

At 11:00am Mass next Sunday, 24th November, a number of our parishioners will be commissioned to represent our parish.

KNIGHTS OF THE SOUTHERN CROSS

All KSC members, family members, friends and parishioners are invited to the 9:15am Mass at St Patrick's Mentone on Wednesday 20th November, in memory of deceased members of the Order of the Knights of the Southern Cross.

2020 Columban Calendars are now available in St John Vianney's and St Patrick's piety stalls for $9 each.
