

THE CATHOLIC PARISH OF MENTONE - PARKDALE

SAINT PATRICK - SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B: 11th November 2018

FATHER MICHAEL'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends

This Sunday's Gospel reading about the total commitment and generosity of a poor widow in contrast to the exploitative demands of the Temple authorities coincides with an address last Wednesday in Rome by Pope Francis on the Seventh Commandment. It provides a challenging perspective, drawing on Scripture and the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

"Dear Brothers and Sisters, good morning!

There is no culture in which theft and abuse of goods is licit. However, it's worthwhile to open oneself to a broader reading of this Word in the light of Christian wisdom.

Let us listen to what the Catechism says: 'In the beginning God entrusted the earth and its resources to the common stewardship of mankind to take care of them, master them by labour and enjoy their fruits. The goods of creation are destined for the whole human race' (Catechism n. 2402), 'even if the promotion of the common good requires respect for the right to private property and its exercise' (n. 2403).

The world is rich in resources to ensure the primary goods to all. If there is hunger on earth, it's not because there is a lack of food! Rather, because of the demands of the market, sometimes it is destroyed; it's thrown away. What is lacking is a free and farsighted entrepreneurship, which ensures adequate production, and solidary planning, which ensures an equitable distribution. All wealth, to be good, must have a social dimension.

In this perspective, the positive and broad meaning appears of the Commandment to 'not steal.' 'The ownership of any property makes its holder a steward of Providence' (n. 2404). In fact, if I'm unable to give something, it's because that thing possesses me, has power over me and I'm a slave of it.

We have heard so many times what the people of God says: 'The devil enters by the pockets.' It begins with love of money, the hunger to possess; then vanity follows: 'Ah, I'm rich' and I boast about it; and, in the end, pride and arrogance. This is the devil's way of acting in us. But the door of entry is the pockets.

Christ Himself, though He was God, 'did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied Himself' (Philippians 2:6-7) and He enriches us with His poverty (Cf. 2 Corinthians 8:9).

Dear brothers and sisters, once again Jesus Christ reveals to us the full meaning of Scripture. 'Not to steal' means: love with your goods. Take advantage of your means to love as you can. Thank you."

Regarding another kind of theft, a warning has been sent to parishes about a forthcoming exhibit at Melbourne Showgrounds, "BODY WORLDS Vital".

1) Display of human remains is inconsistent with views held by many religious groups. The precise source of the human bodies is undisclosed, though it appears to be in China. The human remains in the exhibits should be given a proper burial on humanitarian grounds given strong evidence that they are not willing donors.

2) China has a deep-rooted tradition to preserve the entire body intact after death for burial, and almost no Chinese would donate their remains to hospitals, let alone to a human specimen factory.

3) The exhibition displays full body cadavers as well as human body parts, organs, without any information of source provided at the exhibit, and is misleadingly promoted in the name of education, science and art.

PLENARY COUNCIL 2020

part 3

What's at stake?

Pope Francis has written, 'A synod is the Church doing a mutual listening in which everyone has something to learn.' Step 1 from now until Ash Wednesday 2019 is simply this: listening to one another's heart and letting the Catholic bishops know what weighs down or enlivens our heart.

Step two will take the rest of 2019. All the contributions will be considered for their value for the future of the Church. We will be informed of progress.

Our multicultural, secularised, globalised nation is the ocean in which the Church, with its own patterns of change, has to row its boat. The Plenary Council seeks to "listen anew to the holy Spirit and to chart the Church's course into the future." (Australian Catholic Bishops Conference)

Our bishops are asking us to come to our meeting to share our response to this simple question: "WHAT DO YOU THINK GOD IS ASKING OF US IN AUSTRALIA AT THIS TIME?" Their second question flows from the first: "WHAT QUESTIONS DO YOU HAVE ABOUT THE FUTURE OF THE CHURCH?"

Entrance Hymn 6pm & 11am Mass

'We Love the Place, O God'

We love the place, O God
in which your honour dwells:
The joy of your abode;
all earthly joy excels.

We love the house of prayer:
for where Christ's people meet,
our risen Lord is there
to make our joy complete.

We love the word of life,
the word that tells of peace,
of comfort in the strife
and joys that never cease.

We love the cleansing sign of life through Christ our Lord,
where with the name divine
we seal the sons of God.
