FATHER MICHAEL'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends

I am impressed by the manner in which the stressed families affected by the bushfires have expressed their gratitude for the efforts made to protect and assist them.

On a less dramatic key, I wish to express my thanks for your kindness over the Christmas season.

Our liturgical celebration was enhanced by staff and many volunteers – all the 'players' in the liturgy itself and the 'working bees' in the grounds stand out. Our office staff should receive the thanks of all of us at this busy time.

Thank you to all who contributed to the 'Christmas Offering' that has amounted so far to $2,825.40. Your generosity ensures that the clergy expenses of our parish are met as well as enabling me to support other parish priests and retired priests through the levy upon the presbytery collection.

By your words and cards received, I feel strengthened in my presence with you. I will remember the gifts that others were able to give: I've enjoyed a special Christmas diet now; I'll put gifts in cash to good use when I take my holiday.

May each family of our parish community continue to walk in Christ's way of loving union with God and our neighbour.

Happy New Year!

Michael
