

THE CATHOLIC PARISH OF MENTONE - PARKDALE

SAINT PATRICK - SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year C) : 29th September 2019

Making It Real Genuine human encounter in our digital world

Anxious Lawyer
Today 12:36pm

Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?

What is written in the Law? What is your reading of it?

You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.

You have answered right, do this and life is yours.

Luke 10:25-28

The lawyer's challenge sounds a lot like some of the online discussions that take place on Facebook or Twitter. Often the aim is to undercut an opponent, to win an argument or gain the approval of those who are gathered online. It seems the lawyer was more interested in tripping Jesus up in the presence of the disciples than he was in the subject of eternal life. Jesus goes to the heart of the matter, drawing the lawyer to the great commandment to love our God and our neighbour.

'And who is my neighbour?' the lawyer asks. Jesus makes his answer real in the parable of the Good Samaritan. It is not the priest or the Levite who come to the aid of the man dying at the side of the road. They pass by. It is the Samaritan who breaks down all divisions and tends to the wounded man and sees him back to health.

Jesus
Today 12:45pm

Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the bandits' hands?

The one who showed pity towards him.

Go, and do the same yourself.

Luke 10:36-37

Jesus does not give a long list of rules and regulations, or a customised etiquette for how we should behave towards one another. He calls us first to something deeper – a way of living and a presence in this world that brings God's love to each and every person we meet.

The hallmark of our discipleship can be seen in how we make that love real in our relationships, how we serve our most vulnerable sisters and brothers, and how we break down divisions that undermine human dignity and the solidarity of our communities.

Where do we encounter our neighbour? Increasingly it is online.
