14th Sunday of Ordinary Time : Year B: 4th July 2021

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Background on the Gospel Reading

This Gospel immediately follows upon last week's stories of the raising of Jairus's daughter and the healing of the woman with a haemorrhage. It sets the context of our Gospel readings for the next two weeks in which Jesus will extend the work of his ministry to his disciples.

Today's Gospel describes what many believe to have been the typical pattern of Jesus' ministry: teaching in the synagogue followed by acts of healing. In his hometown of Nazareth, the people are amazed by what they hear, but they also cannot comprehend how someone they know so well might move them so powerfully.

In this Gospel, we learn some interesting details about Jesus and his early life. Jesus' kinfolk know him to be a carpenter, an artisan who works in wood, stone, and metal. He probably learned this trade from his father. Mark describes Jesus as the son of Mary, which is an unusual designation. Adult males were more typically identified with the name of their fathers. It is unclear why Mark deviates from this custom.

This Gospel tells us that Jesus is hampered from performing miracles in Nazareth because of the people's lack of faith. Jesus is said to be surprised by this. He did not predict or foresee this rejection. In this detail we find a description of the very human side of Jesus.

This passage unfolds a continuing theme of Mark's Gospel: Who is Jesus? His kinfolk in Nazareth might know the carpenter, the son of Mary, but they do not know Jesus, the Son of God. Mark is foreshadowing Jesus' rejection by his own people, the people of Israel. He is also reflecting on and trying to explain the situation of the community for which he wrote. While many of the first Christians were Jewish, Christianity took hold and flourished in the Gentile community. Mark's community was mostly a Gentile community, who may have been experiencing persecution. By showing that Jesus himself was rejected, Mark consoles and reassures his first readers. He also prepares us to accept this possible consequence of Christian discipleship.

By virtue of our baptism, we share in the prophetic mission of Christ, the mission that positions us to be mouthpieces of God and to pronounce God's will and demand in every circumstance of life. Like every other state of life, this vocation is never without challenges. It is only the grace and power of God working in, with and through us that leads us through. May this grace and power never cease in our generation; Amen.

Hymns

Entrance Hymn

God has spoken by his prophets

God has spoken by his prophets, spoken his unchanging word, each, from age to age proclaiming God, the One, the righteous Lord. In the world's despair and turmoil one firm anchor holds us fast: God eternal reigns for ever, God the first, and God the last.

God has spoken by Christ Jesus, Christ, the everlasting Son, brightness of the Father's glory, with the Father ever One; spoken by the Word incarnate, God from God, ere time began, Light from light, to earth descending, God, revealed as Son of Man.

God is speaking by the Spirit, speaking to our hearts again, in the ageless Word declaring God's own message, now as then. Through the rise and fall of nations one sure faith yet standing fast: God still speaks, his word unchanging, God the first, and God the last.

Offertory Hymn

Lord of all hopefulness

Lord of all hopefulness Lord of all joy, whose trust, ever childlike, no cares can destroy, be there at our waking, and give us, we pray, your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.

Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith, whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the lathe, be there at our labours, and give us, we pray, your strength in our hearts, Lord, at the noon of the day.

Lord of all kindness, Lord of all grace, your hands swift to welcome, your arms to embrace, be there at our homing, and give us, we pray, your love in our hearts, Lord, at the eve of the day.

Recessional Hymn

(9am & 5pm only)

Go, make of all disciples

"Go, make of all disciples:" we hear the call, O Lord, that comes from you, our Father, in your eternal Word. Inspire our ways of learning through earnest, fervent prayer, and let our daily living reveal you ev'rywhere.

"Go, make of all disciples:" baptising in the name of Father, Son, and Spirit from age to age the same. We call each new disciple to follow you, O Lord, redeeming soul and body by water and the Word.

"God, make of all disciples." we welcome your command; "Lo, I am with you always:" we take your guiding hand. The task looms large before us; we follow without fear. In heav'n and earth your power shall bring God's kingdom here.
