

THE CATHOLIC PARISH OF MENTONE - PARKDALE

SAINT PATRICK - SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B: 4 November 2018

FATHER MICHAEL'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends

I would like to prolong the celebration of the Solemnity of All Saints and the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed by offering you some quotations from the letter on holiness, Guadete et exultate (Rejoice and be glad), published by Pope Francis in April this year.

The selection appeared in THE CATHOLIC HERALD. I have arranged the quotes according to some themes.

THE HOLINESS OF THE CHURCH

- "Holiness is the most attractive face of the church."

- "The saints are not odd and aloof, unbearable because of their vanity, negativity and bitterness. The Apostles of Christ were not like that."

JESUS'S RECIPE FOR HOLINESS

- "Jesus explained with great simplicity what it means to be holy when he gave us the Beatitudes (Mt 5:3-12; Lk 6:20-23)."

- "This holiness to which the Lord calls you will grow through small gestures."

- "We are all called to be holy by living our lives with love and by bearing witness in everything we do, wherever we find ourselves."

- "In this call to recognize him in the poor and the suffering, we see revealed the very heart of Christ, his deepest feelings and choices, which every saint seeks to imitate."

LOVING GOD, LOVING OUR NEIGHBOUR

- "It is true that the primacy belongs to our relationship with God, but we cannot forget that the ultimate criterion on which our lives will be judged is what we have done for others."

- "Thanks be to God, throughout the history of the church it has always been clear that a person's perfection is measured not by the information or knowledge they possess, but by the depth of their charity."

HOLINESS OF FAMILY

- "I like to contemplate the holiness present in the patience of God's people: in those parents who raise their children with immense love, in those men and women who work hard to support their families, in the sick, in elderly religious who never lose their smile."

- "We are frequently tempted to think that holiness is only for those who can withdraw from ordinary affairs to spend much time in prayer. That is not the case."

- "I do not believe in holiness without prayer, even though that prayer need not be lengthy or involve intense emotions."

PATIENCE, TOLERANCE, FORGIVENESS AT THE HEART OF HOLINESS

- "The saints do not waste energy complaining about the failings of others; they can hold their tongue before the faults of their brothers and sisters and avoid the verbal violence that demeans and mistreats others."

- "Giving and forgiving means reproducing in our lives some small measure of God's perfection, which gives and forgives superabundantly."

- "We need to think of ourselves as an army of the forgiven. All of us have been looked upon with divine compassion."

DISCERNING OUR PATH TO HOLINESS

- "The important thing is that each believer discern his or her own path, that they bring out the very best of themselves, the most personal gifts that God has placed in their hearts, rather than hopelessly trying to imitate something not meant for them."

- "Discernment is not about discovering what more we can get out of this life, but about recognizing how we can better accomplish the mission entrusted to us at our baptism."

- "In times when women tended to be most ignored or overlooked, the Holy Spirit raised up saints whose attractiveness produced new spiritual vigor and important reforms in the church."

HOLINESS WITH JOY

- "Do not be afraid of holiness. It will take away none of your energy, vitality or joy."

- "Christian joy is usually accompanied by a sense of humor."

A WARNING

- "We should not think of the devil as a myth, a representation, a symbol, a figure of speech or an idea. This mistake would lead us to let down our guard, to grow careless and end up more vulnerable."

- "The devil does not need to possess us. He poisons us with the venom of hatred, desolation, envy and vice. When we let down our guard, he takes advantage of it to destroy our lives, our families and our communities."

PEACE

- "A community that cherishes the little details of love, whose members care for one another and create an open and evangelizing environment, is a place where the risen Lord is present, sanctifying it in accordance with the Father's plan."

- "Let us ask the Holy Spirit to pour out upon us a fervent longing to be saints for God's greater glory, and let us encourage one another in this effort."

Two young saints for modern families are Blessed Chiara Bodano (1971-1990) and Venerable Carlo Acutis (1991-2006). A Google search will lead you to be inspired by their simple testimony of faith and by their joyful practice of holiness.

Let's all continue to walk in the way of holiness in each of our thoughts, words and deeds.

- "The saints surprise us, they confound us, because by their lives they urge us to abandon a dull and dreary mediocrity."

PLENARY COUNCIL 2020 part 2

What can we expect of God and of ourselves?

Advent is a time of anticipation. Children easily anticipate the time for family celebrations. They are pretty surprising as well in the way they look forward to the birth of Christ. We readily identify with their anticipation.

Advent also looks forward in an act of pure faith to the completion of all God's comings among us at the end of time. Injustices must be set right, otherwise this world is devoid of sense. Our minds and hearts revolt that injustice could win out. Only God can put an end to evil. He will come as merciful saviour and as merciful judge. So Advent is our chance to look forward to this aspect of God's being among us (Emmanuel means 'God among us')

The Parish Advisory Group will be inviting every group of our parish and of our schools to devote some of their meeting time in November-December to tackling the first question on the Plenary Council's agenda.

This can be a spiritual preparation for Christmas. If we make this small contribution to the future of God's People in Australia, we will be showing our faith that God continues to be at work, bringing our lives, our human history and our Church to their destiny in his embrace.

Pope's Intentions:

November 2018

In Service of Peace

That the language of love and dialogue may always prevail over the language of conflict

Vocation View

Love of God and love of neighbour are not mutually exclusive, but rather are mutually enriching.

Demonstrate the love you have for God by acting in service to your neighbour in Christ.

Please pray for Vocations

In 2001, the Commonwealth and Victorian Governments introduced legislation that deals with the manner in which public and private sector organisations may record, use, store and disclose information, including health information, collected from individuals. This parish is committed to upholding and implementing the Privacy Principles set out in legislation. A copy of the Parish Policy is available by contacting the Parish Office.

Merciful Father, hear our prayer and console us.

As we renew our faith in Your Son, whom You raised from the dead, strengthen our hope that all our departed brothers and sisters will share in His resurrection, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
