THE CATHOLIC PARISH OF MENTONE - PARKDALE

SAINT PATRICK - SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

St Mary of the Cross (Mackillop): Year B: 8 August 2021

After months of quiet in the City of Melbourne, the 150-year-old bells of St Patrick's Cathedral rang with glee on Saturday 31 July for the episcopal ordination of the Most Reverend Martin Ashe and the Most Reverend Anthony John Ireland, Melbourne's newest auxiliary bishops.

The pandemic has posed many challenges for the city's public events, and Saturday's ordination Mass was no different with attendees capped at 100 following an earlier easing of restrictions in Victoria. Albeit a smaller crowd, there was a palpable sense of joy throughout the cathedral as two of Melbourne's most respected and senior priests joined the College of Bishops. Archbishop Peter A Comensoli led the Mass which was broadcast live to Community TV Channel C31 and the Archdiocesan YouTube Channel. (<http://www.youtube.com/archmelb>)

Also present were Most Reverend Terence Curtin (Auxiliary Bishop of Melbourne), Most Reverend Gregory Bennet (Bishop of the Diocese of Sale), Most Reverend Denis Hart (Archbishop Emeritus of Melbourne), Most Reverend Paul Bird CSsR (Bishop of the Diocese of Ballarat), Most Reverend Hilton Deakin (Bishop Emeritus of Melbourne), Most Reverend Les Tomlinson (Bishop Emeritus of Sandhurst), Very Reverend Joseph Caddy (Vicar General of Melbourne) and other concelebrating priests.

In his homily, Archbishop Comensoli said that of the promises a bishop makes, what stands out is their call to be 'courageous missionary disciples' sent to proclaim 'the name and saving life of Jesus Christ to all those who are open to hearing this joyful message ... it is what Fr Martin and Mgr Tony are called to today, to live out faithfully in their lives.'

'Here, in these men of God, may the name and life of Jesus Christ find a firm foothold, that the Spirit of the Lord given to them today might flow out into the lives of God's people.'

An integral part of an episcopal ordination is the laying of hands where, in silence, each of the bishops present confers upon the Bishops-elect the grace to be good and wise shepherds. It is this simple action and accompanying prayer that enters the elect into the unbroken succession of the Apostles, who by the power of the Holy Spirit receive the fullness of Holy Orders and the authority to teach, govern and sanctify.

Both bishops were visibly moved by the occasion as they each offered their thanks and prayers to those present and watching online.

'The seed the faith, and the reality of God's love, found a place in my heart as a little child. And my mother and father's faith was an important part of this ... My mother is with us today through live streaming. I say hello to you, particularly. To be standing before you, as a bishop here in Melbourne is an acknowledgement of where it all began. My gratitude to God for that is part of my journey.'

Bishop Ireland also expressed his gratitude and paid special tribute to the many parishioners he has served over the years.

'I have seen dedicated service, loyal love for the Church and passionate devotion to Jesus Christ. To live and work among you is truly inspiring.

'In particular, I wish to thank the people of St Gregory's Doncaster, which has been my home and mission for the last 12 years. Many of you would have loved to have been in the cathedral today. I thank you for all the messages that you have sent assuring me that you are with us in spirit and in prayer, and virtually Bishop Ireland explained that his wooden crozier was a gift from the people of St Gregory's, and in a special way represents the parish church which he now leaves.

'My predecessor Fr Michael Sheehy built the church and everything is in wood,' he said. 'And so the crozier that has been presented to me by the Parish of Gregory's depicts [this] and will be with me for the rest of my life.'

The Communion to the Housebound

Rose Garden

Many of the roses in the garden at the front of St Patricks are in serious decline. It is proposed that new roses be planted to refresh the garden and Parishioners are invited to donate toward the cost of replacement roses. You may wish to donate in the memory of a loved one or for prayers that have been answered. A contribution can be made by placing your donation in a sealed envelope with your name, the word "Rose garden" and placing that envelope on the collection plate. Donations will be accepted until the 22nd of August.

HYMNS

Entrance Hymn

From Penola's Plains

Loving God, we give You thanks this day as gladly we rejoice, that a woman's life should so proclaim a love that heard Your voice.

Now inspired by her example, may we strive to seek Your face, so that in our rugged homeland the poor will find a place.

Here with Mary of the Cross we pray your truth may guide our way, that our open hearts may hear your call to follow you each day.

Let our praise now fill this joyful space as loudly we proclaim that in Mary's life we see the faith that glorifies Your name. For her heart knew Your compassion at the plight of children poor. so she mustered all her courage and saw her future call.

Trusting firm in you she ventured forth, her eyes upon your cross. From Penola's plains to all the world her arms reached out in love.

Holy Spirit gift of love divine, with you we dare to dream. May Your wisdom come to lead us on where justice reigns supreme. Now may Mary's love inspire us, and the cross still lead us on. Give us hearts that never waver 'til victory is won.

Let our lives show forth your tender love, compassion warm and bold. Help us bring Good News to all the world, Your Spirit Love unfold.

Offertory Hymn

Come down, O love divine

Come down, O love divine, Seek now this soul of mine, And visit it with your own ardour glowing; O Comforter, draw near, Within my heart appear, And kindle it, your holy flame bestowing.

O let it freely burn, Till earthly passions turn To dust and ashes in its heat consuming; And let your glorious light Shine ever on my sight, And clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

Let holy charity My outward vesture be, And lowliness become my inner clothing; True lowliness of heart, Which takes the humbler part, And for its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.

And so the yearning strong, With which the soul will long, Shall far surpass the power of human telling; For none can guess its grace, Till we become the place Wherein the Holy Spirit makes its dwelling.

Communion Hymn Saturday 6pm only

In faith and hope and love

In faith and hope and love with joyful trust we move towards our Father's home above.

Christ, our star, our map, our road To the Father's high abode. Ant.

Christ, our bread along the way; Christ, our rescue when we stray. Ant.

Christ, our shelter, Christ our friend, Our beginning and our end. Ant.

Christ, our hope and our reward; Our redeemer and our Lord. Antiphon

Recessional Hymn

Immaculate Mary, we praise God in you

Immaculate Mary, we praise God in you: his pow'r and his mercy, his grace giv'n to you.

Ave, Ave, Ave, Maria. Ave, Ave, Maria.

Predestined for Christ by eternal decree, God willed you both virgin and mother to be. Refrain

To you by an angel, the Father made known the grace of his Spirit, the gift of his Son. Refrain

Most blest of all women, you heard and believed; most blest in the fruit of your womb then conceived. Refrain

The angels rejoiced when you brought forth God's Son; your joy is the joy of all ages to come. Refrain
