Dear Parishioners,

With our young pilgrims sweltering in 40°C+ temperatures in Malta and us experiencing near freezing temperatures in Melbourne we might wonder who should be showing sympathy to whom? Over the last week nearly 600 young people from our Archdiocese have left for World Youth Day. May we keep them all in our prayers that the inspiration of faith they will experience will bring many blessings to the Church in Melbourne for years to come.

Yours in Christ,
Fr Anthony Girolami.
