Dear Parishioners,

Welcome back! From now on we are able to have 180 double vaccinated people at Mass. Bookings for Sunday Masses will be taken each week on Tuesdays at 10 am onwards. But not this week. Because Tuesday is Cup Day bookings will be taken from Thursday 4th November from 10 am onwards. Bookings are no longer required for weekday Masses for the fully vaccinated.

Extra Masses will be celebrated for people who are not double vaccinated or have an unknown vaccination status each Sunday at 7:30 am and each Friday at 7:30 am. This week on Tuesday, All Saints Day, another Mass for those unvaccinated will be celebrated at 7:30 am. The limit for these Masses is at 30 people, so bookings will be necessary for all of these smaller Masses which will be celebrated in the Church.

All prayer groups may return whether they have vaccinated or unvaccinated people provided they do not exceed 30 participants. The Chapel will be open for daily prayer from Tuesday to Sunday each week. Please follow the QR check in protocols whenever you enter the church or the chapel.

HOLY SOULS - The Church dedicates the Month of November to praying for our deceased loved ones. Our tradition reminds us our prayers for those who have died help them on their journey to the Lord's heavenly kingdom. Offering Mass is the greatest gift we can give them and it expresses our love for them. Holy Souls envelopes are available in the church foyer and the parish office. They can be returned at any time. Please remember we can have Masses offered for those we know and loved, or for souls that have nobody to pray for them.

God bless,

Fr. Anthony Girolami
