Dear Parishioners,

It was such a joy to have so many people participating in our Easter Ceremonies. I would like to thank all of the people who enabled our ceremonies to be celebrated with such dignity and reverence. Namely our readers, extraordinary ministers of communion, choir members, altar servers, altar society ladies, sacristans, musicians, list managers, welcomers and many more behind the scenes who gave invaluable service. Without all of these people who make very important contributions, our ceremonies would not be as beautiful as they always are or run so smoothly.

Regrettably we could not accommodate, at every ceremony, all who wished to attend, as our numbers are determined by Government COVID Regulations and so limits have been imposed upon us. As St Paul wrote to the Romans—"Christians must obey the governing authorities. Since all government comes from God." (Rom 13:1) Let us ensure we are good citizens and do our best to adhere to what will keep everybody safe.

May Easter Blessings continue for you,

Fr. Anthony Girolami
