Dear Parishioners,
The prayer of blessing over the Easter fire moves our hearts to grow in a greater desire to be on fire with our faith. What greater inspiration do we need than to acknowledge Our Lord who died for us so he could bring to fulfilment all the promises Our Heavenly Father made to his people. We are the people of God and we are the recipients of the life of the Resurrection.

I would also like to thank all who have been involved in our liturgical celebrations, our choirs, musicians, actors in our Stations of the Cross, grade six children and teachers involved in the passion play, our readers, extraordinary ministers of communion, our servers, seminarians and those who decorated our church, particularly Sr Anh.

On behalf of the parish staff I extend to all of you and your families a happy and holy Easter.

Yours in the Risen Christ, Fr Anthony Girolami.

WARNING:
Some people have received a scam email seemingly from Fr Anthony asking for financial assistance. If you receive an email like that please delete it.
