The Catholic Parishes of St Francis Xavier & Our Lady Help of Christians

We acknowledge the Wurundjeri people who are the traditional custodians of this land and pay respect to the elders past, present and emerging of the Kulin Nation.

+ The Melbourne Cup, the Race that stops a Nation and truly the Sport of Kings.

The long weekend is now over - always the first weekend in November and many people have a comfortable smile still lingering as a 'local' wins a horse race that is certainly becoming harder to achieve because of the strong international contenders.

David Burke was the VRC chairman who took this famous race to the world in 1992, and since then, the Irish, the United Arab Emirates, Americans & Asians have shaken up the odds of an Australian horse being able to win this race against such a strong field. But, 'Vow and Declare' trained by Danny O'Brien - ridden by Jockey Craig Williams and owned by a tribe of locals from Gympie are still celebrating this wonderful win of the 159th Melbourne Cup. This win was the 'first' for all involved, and that is what I think makes this a very special story and a wonderful result! Only 2 horses out of the field of 24 were home grown - besides living in Eltham & Montmorency, I wish I was living in Gympie in the past week! What a local party.

+ Remembrance Day, at 11am on 11 November 1918, the guns on the Western Front fell silent after 4 years of continuous warfare. This was the first modern world conflict and had brought about the mobilisation of some 100 million people - in its day - from many countries and while the number of dead remains a mystery in its exact terms, the list is over 12 million. So, now we have just past the first 100 years - Centenary, yet we must continue to remember. Today, Remembrance Day recalls all those young women and men who have died in wars, not just the Great War or WWII, but every conflict since then and even in the theatre of war today! The 'red poppy' is a symbol of Remembrance and hope for a peaceful world with a positive future. Poppies are worn as a show of support for our Armed Forces community, those currently serving, veterans and their families. Not a bad reason for wearing a Poppy on Monday!

+ Today's Gospel - how to explain the reality of the Resurrection. Now that's an easy topic for Philosophers & Theologians, I think easier to back a winner in the Cup or avoid a religious war than to attempt to explain this reality! All three synoptic gospels pose this question - thus its importance. Easter Sunday expresses this Mystery the best as the human desire becomes fully alive! If we believe in God at all, than a concept that God is Eternal and thus as human beings we are somehow linked to this infinite Being is plausible. 'Finite Beings participating in the Infinite Being' that's Karl Rahner's view, and I love it. Jesus as the Son of God, is the first to show the way and ultimately this faith position is one that I can accept. So the last line of today's Gospel passage reads: "Now He is God, not of the Dead, but of the Living, for in Him all people are in fact alive." Luke: 20:38.

Remembrance Day

Monday 11 November 2019

In most ceremonies of remembrance there is a reading of an appropriate poem designed to help the listener understand the experiences of service people and their relatives in wartime.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place: and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

John McCrae (1872–1918)

FOR THE FALLEN

With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
England mourns for her dead across the sea.
Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit,
Fallen in the cause of the free.

Solemn the drums thrill: Death august and royal
Sings sorrow up into immortal spheres.
There is music in the midst of desolation
And a glory that shines upon our tears.

They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow.
They were staunch to the end against odds
uncounted,
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

They mingle not with their laughing comrades
again;
They sit no more at familiar tables at home;
They have no lot in our labour of the day-time;
They sleep beyond England's foam.

But where our desires are and our hopes profound,
Felt as a well-spring that is hidden from sight,
To the innermost heart of their own land they are known

As the stars are known to the Night;

As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain,
As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness,

To the end, to the end, they remain.

Parish Men's Night

SVDP are happy to assist the committee in promoting the Men's night on Friday 22 November. This year, all profits go to Hayden's Helping Hands. You may recall that Fr Michael interviewed Hayden at Mass a few weeks ago. Hayden, who started this Charity to primarily help the homeless, was a student at Holy Trinity a year or two back.

Thanks to the generosity of local traders we have plenty of auction items & raffle prizes ranging from a Shimano fishing rod, meal, gym/exercise, swim/slide, skate vouchers to Boutique wines from Gentle Annie.

To assist with catering arrangements, the committee have asked if we could take names of those planning to attend or alternatively call Guy Toomey 9435 8474 or Daniel Johnson 0412 306 875. Flyers about the event are available at our Christmas card stall. It's not too late to register your attendance for the event.

SVDP Christmas Cards

Have you thought about sending a charity Christmas card to your family & friends this Christmas? The new seasons & designs Christmas Cards are now available. Members of the St Vincent de Paul Society will again be outside Church before and after each Mass. We have maintained the price at $5 a packet.

Parishioners are reminded that assistance is always promptly available to the community by contacting 1800 305 330 between 10am and 3pm weekdays.

Collection of quality household goods/furniture can be arranged by calling 1800 621 349.

Philippines Outreach Visit

On Feb 21, 2020, a social outreach visit will leave for a special grass root visit to the Philippines. The trip is for 2 weeks. This will be to Manila, Cebu, Fr Shay Cullen & Val Smith-Orr where THE most amazing work takes place that we all need to be aware of. Issues such as poverty, human trafficking and child sexual abuse along with learning about positive programs to alleviate poverty are part of the learning & sharing. There are a couple of places still available if anybody is interested.

Kadasig Aid & Development runs a sponsorship program to educate children which is THE most positive way out of poverty. The cost is $260 per year. There are currently 8 children waiting. For information on either of these issues please contact Glenys Gayfer: papel-imports@bigpond.com or 0411 196 395.

The MARIAN Magazine

Everyone is looking forward to another issue of the MARIAN Magazine this Christmas, publishing the stories of Montmorency & Eltham parishioners. For quite some years now, the MARIAN magazine has been produced in Eltham three times per year, but of course, this year it will be a truly combined issue of all Monty & Eltham people.

I am looking for personal stories, poems, reflections, reports etc.

The writing in the MARIAN is not edited, changed or corrected, apart from that I have to make sure that it is within the law and not offensive (of course, I will help anyone if asked).

If anyone is willing to help me with the layout etc, I will be delighted. A great opportunity here for young people to add to their Folio or CV for later employment.

Please send your writing to the Parish Office (kate.kogler@cam.org.au). The deadline is 30 November.

Thank you, John Stuyfbergen

Parish meeting on the 'Listen and Discern' phase of Plenary Council 2020

In last week's Monty & Eltham we announced that a small group of parishioners had met with Fr. Terry in the Parish house to consider how we might respond to the Listen and Discern phase of preparations for the Plenary Council 2020. The group chose two of the themes or 'Callings' for the Church, outlined in the Reports on the first phase, for reflection and discussion in a parish meeting to which all are invited. The Callings were:

1. The Calling to be a Church that is: Inclusive, Participatory, and Synodal
2. The Calling to be a Church that is Joyful, Hope-filled, and a Servant community.

The group has devised an interesting agenda for the meeting, to include reflection on two relevant Gospel passages and discussion of how our Church might better realise these Callings.

Materials for the meeting (a couple of pages) will be made available over the next fortnight. More on them, and further information, will be provided in next week's Monty and Eltham. Here are some basics:

- We will meet on Monday 25 November at 7.30 in the Parish Hall.
- Participants will be asked to choose which of the two Callings they would most like to consider.
- To help with planning, intending participants are asked to advise the Parish Office by e-mail or phone.

As Victoria continues the Journey towards Treaty and Reconciliation

some people might be interested in this year's

Rerum Novarum Oration

The Rerum Novarum Oration is held each year in Melbourne and is named after the first of the so-called 'social justice' encyclicals published around the turn of the 20th century.

In the spirit of Rerum Novarum, the annual Melbourne oration addresses contemporary Australian social justice issues - this year, the Journey towards Treaty and Reconciliation with Victoria's First Peoples.

This is a free event on Tuesday 26th November starting at 7pm with refreshments at ACU in Fitzroy. RSVP Friday 22nd Nov.

For more information see the posters in the foyer and at the side door.

Lighting a Candle in the month of November.

Don't all rush in at once.....but considered and carefully - might I add, prayerfully - light a candle in remembrance of someone that has passed away, and now lives in the presence of God. Naturally, some one that you miss - and wish to celebrate their life with this simple display of a candle burning. Please be respectful of this new space and where possible clean up afterwards to allow for more candles. Many thanks. Michael

Gospel: Luke 20:27-38

Some Sadducees - those who say that there is no resurrection - approached Jesus and they put this question to him, 'Master, we have it from Moses in writing, that if a man's married brother dies childless, the man must marry the widow to raise up children for his brother. Well, then, there were seven brothers. The first, having married a wife, died childless. The second and then the third married the widow. And the same with all seven, they died leaving no children. Finally the woman herself died. Now, at the resurrection, to which of them will she be wife since she had been married to all seven?'

Jesus replied, 'The children of this world take wives and husbands, but those who are judged worthy of a place in the other world and in the resurrection from the dead do not marry because they can no longer die, for they are the same as the angels, and being children of the resurrection they are sons of God. And Moses himself implies that the dead rise again, in the passage about the bush where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. Now he is God, not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all men are in fact alive.'

Let's Get Creative

At a retreat, two teams were given the task of getting from point A to point B on a huge Twister-like grid. The rules were very specific about what moves forward, backward, and sideways were legal and what weren't. It was very apparent that a straight run by every team member would not do the trick.

After much deliberation, one team finally figured out the key to getting across the mat. They would simply hold hands. The rules never said that every team member had to get across the mat, it simply said the team must reach the other side following very specific guidelines, which, in the end, did not allow for individual achievement, only a collective effort.

Creative thinking is often what the most difficult problems require, as Jesus so artfully shows us in this week's gospel. The usual tactics and strategies won't do. In fact, doing what's always been done is what most often gets us into trouble. If we want to know what it will be like to live in God's realm, then we must begin by not trying to measure it by human standards. Asking "What would Jesus do?" was all the rage a few years ago but remains a very good question. Whatever it is, it won't be something we can calculate, control, or measure. It will likely surprise, challenge, and be a response generated by love and connection.
