Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time Baptism Presentations Weekend St Kevin's School Junior Level Mass

Entrance Antiphon

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice;
turn to the Lord and his strength;
constantly seek his face.

Responsorial Psalm

The Lord has done great things
for us;
we are filled with joy.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done
away with death,
and brought us life through his gospel.

Alleluia!

Response to Prayers of the Faithful

Lord hear our prayer.

Communion Antiphon

We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

*A warm welcome to the students of Prep, Grades 1 and 2
to our Mass this Saturday evening.*

Blindness is a powerful metaphor that is used throughout Scripture. It is almost always used to indicate blindness of mind or heart rather than purely physical blindness. Bartimaeus is a man who has almost nothing in life. His blindness has made him outcast and he is reduced to begging on the side of the road. When he is called to Jesus he jumps up and casts off what may well be his only real possession – his cloak. Yet what he does have in abundance is faith and hope. When asked what he wants Jesus to do, his answer may seem obvious, but his desire to see goes beyond physical sight. He asks for the sight of one who truly believes and to whom the truth of Jesus is revealed. In this way, he is a model to all who would be disciples.

1st November – All Saints' Day

Our Plenary Council Journey

Our Parish took several significant steps this week on the journey of the Plenary Council.

- 1) Our Finance Committee became our 10th group to look at “What is the Holy Spirit asking of Australia?” In a remarkable synergy they came up with almost all of the issues that came to light in the other 9 sessions.
- 2) An inspiring and broad cross-section of 45 parishioners met on Wednesday. We strongly endorsed 7 of the 8 issues so far submitted to the Plenary Council Committee. There was caution expressed concerning the issue of change with liturgy. This proved that the group was taking seriously the need to listen to each other’s Holy Spirit speaking from within. The main concern amounts to insuring the central challenges of liturgy are faced and the peripherals do not dominate.
- 3) 4 of our 45 were from neighbouring parishes wishing to gain insights for their people. The hard work of putting substance into our submissions now begins. St Kevin’s had contact with Montmorency, Grovedale, Syndal and Parkdale Parishes. Are we seeing the start of a joint statement?
- 4) Survey Monkey continues to offer those who can’t/don’t want to come to meetings an opportunity to have a voice. Are you one of those? Check out the survey on our website.
- 5) 2 other initiatives are in the pipeline:
  - a) change.org    and    b) videocam statements to Plenary.

Sincere thanks to Lucy Halliburton, Peter Sheehan and Tony Byrne – our driving forces.

PS: Watch out for the next step scheduled for early December.

Questions to Ponder...

- 1) My favourite images from the first reading show God is
  - a) excited about Israel returning.
  - b) willing to save the people.
  - c) encouraging.
  - d) concerned about the people.
  - e) tender and compassionate.
- 2) If I had been in the gospel’s crowd I would have
  - a) been embarrassed by Bartimaeus.
  - b) told Bartimaeus to keep quiet.
  - c) asked Jesus to help Bartimaeus.
  - d) helped him when Jesus called him.
  - e) not believed what I saw.
- 3) If Jesus asked me, “What do you want me to do for you?” I would say...

Inspirational Quotes From Christian Meditation Network

The quality needed urgently is silence. We need to learn how to be silent and how to remain in silence. We are called to the eternal silence of God, that silence that we find in our own hearts.

In silence we communicate in depth and in truth.

The way of this silence is the way of discipline.

We learn to abandon our own thoughts, words, ideas and imagination. The way to a wakeful silence is the way of learning to say the mantra.
