

Jn 15:9-17 - Reflections From ~ St Kevin's Catholic Primary School

I show love by caring for my neighbour. How I show my friends love is to help them when they fall over. By Hamish
How I can show love to my friends is by helping my friends when they are stuck on some work. I can help them when they get hurt and I can share my things with them and be nice to people. By Madeline

I can show love to others by asking someone who has no-one to play with, to play with me and help them to have fun. By Faustene

I can be a good friend by helping other people by playing with them when they are alone. By Patrick

If I had lollies I would share them with others. By Luke

I would show love to my friends by helping them up when they have fallen down. By Ruairi

If you show love and kindness to your friends, they will show love back. By Nexus

I show love by sharing, helping, giving, caring, showing kindness, pushing the shopping trolley for mum (sometimes), putting the shopping in the car, taking the shopping into the kitchen and making my bed to help my mum. By Marisa

No one can have greater love than to lay down his life for his friends.

Sometimes for love to remain, it must be tested, tried, and proven true. It takes WORK. The good news for those of us who realize that we need to work at expressing love is that Jesus tells us how to do it. These messages from the students of Middle C - are what they believe this means for them.

I can show love to people by: giving their ball back if it goes over the fence, sharing my toys with others, bringing in the shopping from the car, play with others if they are feeling sad or lonely. By Mila

How we show love to other people, is when they are sad we try to cheer them up. By Alexandria

I show love to my friends and family by taking care of them when they need it. By Dante

I show love by doing my bed for mum and sharing my ice cream with mum and dad. By Max

You need to show your love - actions are sometimes better than words! By Kieran

I will show love by helping my friends and by sticking up for them. By Presley

I show love to my friends by looking out for them. By Ben

I show love by mowing the lawn for my dad and by taking the bins out on bin night. By Aidan

Showing love is when families are shopping together and playing together. By Quinton

Love is about looking out for people and showing them you care. By Giselle

When I show love I take in my neighbour's bins and mail to help them. By Bianca

I show Jesus' commandment - "LOVE ONE ANOTHER", by doing the dishes for my parents and showing my parents respect. By Miles