CHANGE OF SUNDAY MASS TIME TO 10.30AM

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, in view of Bishop Tony's recommendation, we are considering celebrating the 10.00 am Mass at a new time of 10.30 am on Sunday. Thus, giving enough time for the parishioners to have a cuppa and a chat after the 8.30 am Mass. This will give enough time to everyone to arrive and depart. This weekend we take a census at all the Masses, please tick YES or NO in the provided cards to give your preference.

CORPUS CHRISTI BENEDICTION

In honour of the Feast of Corpus Christi we will celebrate a Corpus Christi Benediction today at the 10.00am Mass. After communion, once ministers are seated and the communion prayer is said, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for 3 minutes in silence. Singing "Down in Adoration Falling" and incensing will follow. A Blessing with the Blessed Sacrament and reciting the Divine Praises and the Blessed Sacrament will then be return to the tabernacle. The final hymn will then be sung

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED

Our St John Vianney's Parish community is truly a family, made one in Jesus Christ, with united, heartfelt vision of His Kingdom. Across all of our communities we seek to cherish, cultivate, and celebrate the many and varied ways that God desires to touch and transform the lives of people. Our common call as followers of Jesus is to encourage, equip, and empower others to live as Disciples of Christ.

Our parish is greatly blessed to have many parishioners who live this daily and wish to support others on this journey of faith. Our numerous parish volunteers assist with parish life, whether it be by involvement in the preparation and running of the liturgical and devotional life of the church or with the many areas of outreach into the wider community. The commitment of the unique energy, gifts, and talents of so many people in our parish community makes our parish come alive. I know some people have the knack of being able to organise parties and events, raise money for worthy causes, put people at ease in large gatherings, enjoy being sociable and also assisting with planning and implementing all aspects of the Sacred liturgy.

If you wish to volunteer at our SJV Church, please fill in the Volunteering form. On the form, you need to tick the relevant jobs in the list and fill in your details. You can specify on the form exactly what sort of help you can provide. Forms are available at the Church doors. Your ministry is very much appreciated.
