REFLECTION

GOD:FATHER-SON-SPIRIT in OUR LIVES

“I sit on a concrete step on the outside of the Temple of the Winds in Melbourne’s Botanic Gardens, and watch as the wind pushes the branches of the elm trees below and cars dart towards the city. I can see as far as the flags on the top of the MCG. Here, looking over the city, I begin to think about faith.

“In Jesus’ day some religious leaders believed that faith was fixed – that being devout meant adherence to a vast set of rules and regulations. Jesus challenged this idea everywhere he went. He continually asserted that God is not fixed but is dynamic like the breeze. Jesus swept away their preconceptions. In one memorable sermon he spoke of God and said, ‘The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.’

Jesus believed that the clearest way to discover God was through a living relationship. He would often take long walks to hear what the Father was saying to him. Jesus was always open to new possibilities.

As I sit on the edge of the Temple of the Winds and watch the storms sweeping through the city, I realise that I can never fully explain in words what this is like; I can only experience it and enjoy it, that is, the experience of GOD – Father, Son, Spirit.

Using David Enticott, The Sunday Age, 24.5.15

St Catherine of Siena: ‘O eternal Trinity, you are as deep a mystery as the sea: always with us, and in whom the more I seek, the more I find; and the more I find, the more I seek.’

St Augustine: ‘Our hearts are made for You, O God, and they cannot rest until they rest in You.’

OUR PASTORAL, SOCIAL & SCHOOL EVENTS

RCIA

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process by which those who are part of other faith traditions, and those whose Baptism into the Catholic Church has not been developed come into full communion with the Catholic Church. This process culminates in the liturgies of Easter in the following year after the process began. A new RCIA group journey in our Parish will commence on Tuesday, 19 July 2022, at 7:30pm at Sacred Heart Church. If you or anyone you know, would like to take this journey to share in the Sacraments of the Church and join in full communion with the Catholic Church, please contact the Parish Office for more information.
