PRAYER TO ST MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil;
may God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

NICENO-CONSTANTINOPOLITAN CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

[bow during the next line]

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

WEEKLY PRAYERS & READINGS

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice.
Indeed, the Lord is near.

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Zephaniah

With gladness the Lord will rejoice over you.

Shout for joy, daughter of Zion,
Israel, shout aloud!

Rejoice, exult with all your heart,
daughter of Jerusalem!

The Lord has repealed your sentence;
he has driven your enemies away.

The Lord, the king of Israel, is in your midst;
you have no more evil to fear.

When that day comes, word will come to Jerusalem:

Zion, have no fear,

do not let your hands fall limp.

The Lord your God is in your midst,
a victorious warrior.

He will exult with joy over you,

he will renew you by his love;

he will dance with shouts of joy for you as on a day of festival.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: 12

Comm: Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

All: Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you
is the great and Holy One of Israel.

Truly, God is my salvation,

I trust, I shall not fear.

For the Lord is my strength, my song,
he became my saviour.

With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

Give thanks to the Lord, give praise to his name!

Make his mighty deeds known to the peoples!

Declare the greatness of his name.

Sing a psalm to the Lord

for he has done glorious deeds,
make them known to all the earth!

People of Zion, sing and shout for joy for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

All: Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you
is the great and Holy One of Israel.

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

The Lord is near.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me;

he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

What, then, must we do?

When all the people asked John. 'What must we do?' he answered, 'If anyone has two tunics he must share with the man who has none, and the one with something to eat must do the same.' There were tax collectors too who came for baptism, and these said to him, 'Master, what must we do?' He said to them, 'Exact no more than your rate.' Some soldiers asked him in their turn, 'What about us? What must we do?' He said to them, 'No intimidation! No extortion! Be content with your pay!'

A feeling of expectancy had grown among the people, who were beginning to think that John might be the Christ, so John declared before them all, 'I baptise you with water, but someone is coming, someone who is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to undo the strap of his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fan is in his hand to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.' As well as this, there were many other things he said to exhort the people and to announce the Good News to them.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Say to the faint of heart: Be strong and do not fear.

Behold, our God will come, and he will save us.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS-- FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

First Reading: Micah 5:1-4;

Second Reading: Heb 10:5-10;

Gospel: Lk 1:39-44

The Catholic family: Raising children in a secular world III

We continue the series of customs and traditions that you may like to adopt in your family home for Advent and Christmas.

THERE ARE TWELVE DAYS OF CHRISTMAS!

December 26. St Stephen's Feast Day. We play a game.

December 27. Feast Day of St John. We always serve grape juice and drink the Love of St John on that day. (According to tradition, St John the Apostle was once presented by his enemies with a cup of poisoned wine intended to kill him. When the Apostle made the sign of the cross over the wine, however, the cup split in half and the poisoned wine was spilled.)

December 28. Holy Innocents. We always have a party with a lot of families and their children, all dressed in white, for innocence, and red, for blood. The required dessert was vanilla ice-cream with strawberries.

December 29–30. Christmas carols wall to wall.

December 31. Children in bed early, awakened about 11:30pm to a lovely, adult-type sophisticated buffet. It is a quiet party. At midnight, we say the Yearly Offering (adapted from the Morning Offering) and the Our Father, then off to bed.

New Year's Day. We have our yearly drawings and a turkey dinner. Each of us draws the name of a saint to have for a special friend for the year. Another drawing gives you a living person or family to pray for throughout the year. The third is a poor soul.

Extract from Teaching the Catholic Faith Effectively, edited by Father John Hardon SJ

Epiphany. We bake cup cakes; four of them have buttons hidden in them. They represent the three kings (wise men), and Herod (the black button). If you get the cake with one of the Kings' buttons, you get a crown. Everyone hides, and whoever got the cake with the black button is Herod has to find them.

On this day, the father of the household sprinkles holy water in the main room of the house and asks God's blessing on the room and on all who enter it.

Over the front door he writes with chalk:

• 2 C O M 1 B 9 +

That is, the year (2019); and C = Caspar; M = Melchior; B = Balthasar (the traditional names of the three Kings).

A Birthday Cake for Jesus

1. Make it round, like the never-ending circle, as is His love for all of us.
2. Make it chocolate, like the darkness our sins bring to us and others.
3. Make it covered with white frosting, like His purity covering our weaknesses.
4. Top it with a yellow star and an angel, bearer of the first glad tidings.
5. Put 12 red candles on top, for all the 12 months of the year that Christ is our light. They are red for the blood He willingly shed for us.
6. Encircle this loving cake with evergreens, the symbol of everlasting life.

The Yearly Offering that is prayed on New Year's Eve might be like this one:

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you all my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this year, for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in reparation for my sins, for the intentions of all my relatives and friends and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father. Amen
