17th June 2018

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive good or evil, according to what he has done in the body.” – 2 CORINTHIANS 5:10

We are all accountable for the gifts God has given us – our time, our talent and our treasure. Each of us is accountable, not only for our own life, but for the lives of others as well. One day God will ask each of us what did we do with the gifts we were given. How will you respond?

RESPONSORIAL PSALM PSALMS 91:2-3, 13-16. R. CF. V. 2

It is good to give thanks to the Lord to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night.

The just will flourish like the palm-tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar.

Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. In him, my rock, there is no wrong.

R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing the Lord.

NICENO-CONSTANTINOPOLITAN CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

[bow during the next two lines]

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,

who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

HAIL, HOLY QUEEN (Salve Regina)

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy.
Hail, our life, our sweetness, and our hope!

To thee do we cry,
poor banished children of Eve;
to thee do we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in the vale of tears.

Turn then most gracious advocate,
thine eyes of mercy towards us.

And after this, our exile, show unto us
the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

P: Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL – ANNUAL ELECTIONS

It was pleasing to see the increased numbers attending St Bernard's AGM which was held on Saturday 26th May 2018. It was a wonderful celebration of how active our Parish of St Bernard's is. Reports were presented and read. These can be found on our website <http://pol.org.au/bacchusmarsh> or by picking up a hard copy at the back of the church.

The Parish Pastoral Council has a number of vacancies and we invite interested parishioners to fill in a nomination form. Alternatively, do you know someone in the parish that you could nominate or recommend as a Parish Pastoral Council Member? If you would like to enquire about Council involvement, the role, duties and responsibilities of the Council, please contact Fr Fabian on 5367 2069.

Nomination forms are available at the main entrance to the Church and on our website. Completed nomination forms must bear the signature of both the Nominee and the Secunder, and should be sent to:

The Returning Officer, c/- St Bernard's Parish Office, 61 Lerderberg Street, Bacchus Marsh.

Nominations close next Sunday 24th June 2018 at 12noon.

THANKSGIVING ENVELOPES

Statements and new Thanksgiving Envelopes are available for collection from the church foyer. As the cost of postage is an expensive exercise for the Parish and, in an effort to save on postage, it would be a tremendous help if parishioners would pick up their Thanksgiving Envelopes, and perhaps even deliver a few to other parishioners.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL'S WINTER APPEAL

It does not matter whether you have faith or not, these talks can give added purpose and meaning to your life. Come and listen!

2018 is the Year of Youth: The Creed in Slow Motion XIX

Conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary (1)

There is a father of the Church called St Tarasius, and I'm sorry to say that I know nothing whatever about him, except that an extremely long and rather trying passage from one of his sermons came into the office.

He addresses our Lady in a series of very elaborate titles, mostly taken from the Old Testament; and among other things he says, "Hail, thou light cloud, that dost scatter the heavenly rain." At first, you rather wonder what he is talking about; but if you know your Bible very well, which I'm afraid most of us don't, you will remember that the Prophet Isaiah once said, "Behold, the Lord shall go up on a light cloud, and shall enter into Egypt".

Well, that begins to put the thing more in its proper setting, and it's rather a nice idea, really, to think of the Flight into Egypt in that way – St Joseph trudging along, on those hard winter roads, and our Lady jogging along on the donkey's back, which isn't a really comfortable way of going long distances. But our Lord, you see, rests quietly on our Lady's breast, borne along as if on a light cloud.

And you can think of it in another way; you can think of a country all parched with drought, and the farmers all scratching their heads and tapping the barometer and hoping for a nice drop of rain because, what will happen to the roots otherwise? And then a light cloud rising in the monotonous calm of the sky, with the promise of rain at last.

That's how the world was, you see, when our Lord came: parched, dry, waiting for its redemption. And the cloud which brought promise of rain was the appearance on earth of our Blessed Lady, ready to bring down from heaven the precious Dew of Grace which would bring life into our starved natures once more.

But there's another thing about clouds, since we have started talking about them. They look different when you catch them in different lights, from different angles. When you are in a cloud, it's just a sort of dank mist all round you. When you look up at it from below, it may be a nice fluffy white thing, like a piece of cotton wool hanging in the air.

Or again, it may be a dark, threatening presence in the sky, like an enormous blot on your school work. Or it may catch the colours of sunset, and be all red and gold, wreathing itself into strange shapes that make you think of a golden stairway or a harbour jutting out into calm seas.

But it's all the same cloud, really. And so it is that the figure of our Blessed Lady presents itself in different ways to the minds of men in different ages, according to the special needs of one age or another.

I was saying to you at the end of my sermon last Sunday that I didn't think we use the words "our Lady" quite in the same way as we use the words "our Lord". When we call Jesus Christ our Lord, we mean that he owns us, because that title comes down to us from an age when you thought of a "lord" as a man who owned slaves.

But the title "our Lady" doesn't come down to us from very far back in history. I may be wrong, but I think you could read all through the Missal and the Breviary without finding the Blessed Virgin referred to as "our Lady" once.

That title, I think, comes down to us from the Middle Ages, from the days of the troubadours; in those days, you talked about "your lady", meaning the woman you were in love with.

In the very early days of the Church, you thought of the Blessed Virgin as the Mother of God, because that was what the heretics would not see. In the Middle Ages, you thought of her as our Lady, because the whole notion of man's love for woman was being refined into something purer and nobler than it had been hitherto.

After the Reformation, when kings and queens became much more important in the world, you thought of the Blessed Virgin as the Queen of Heaven. And today, when family life is so important, and people have begun to take more notice of children, we are apt to think of her more simply as the Mother of the Infant Jesus.
